- (b) Recordings Required. All statements made by a person during a custodial interrogation relating to a crime shall be electronically recorded.

- (d) Overcoming the Presumption of Inadmissibility. The presumption of inadmissibility of statements provided in subsection (c) may be overcome and statements that were not electronically recorded may be admitted into evidence in a juvenile or criminal proceeding brought against the person, if the court finds that:

- (C) the law enforcement officers, in good faith, failed to make an electronic recording of the custodial interrogation because the officers inadvertently failed to operate the recording equipment properly, or without the officers' knowledge the recording equipment malfunctioned or stopped operating; or
- (D) the custodial interrogation occurred in another jurisdiction and was conducted by officials of that jurisdiction in compliance with the law of that jurisdiction; or
- (E) the law enforcement officers conducting or observing the custodial interrogation reasonably believed that the making of an electronic recording would jeopardize the safety of the person, a law enforcement officer, another person, or the identity of a confidential informant; or

- (e) Exceptions.  testimony and not as substantive evidence; or
 - (ii) the custodial interrogation occurred before a grand jury or court; or
