The Commonwealth of Alassachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Third General Court (2023-2024)

An Act relative to infertility insurance coverage.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

- SECTION 1. Chapter 46 of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out section
- 2 4B, as appearing in the 2020 Official Edition, and inserting in place thereof the following
- 3 section:-
- 4 Section 4B. Any child born to a married individual as a result of artificial insemination
- 5 with the consent of their spouse shall be considered the legitimate child of the parent and such
- 6 spouse.
- 7 SECTION 2. Section 47H of chapter 175 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby
- 8 amended by striking out the last 2 sentences and inserting in place thereof the following 3
- 9 sentences:- For purposes of this section, "infertility" shall mean (i) the condition of an individual who is unable to conceive or produce conception during a period of 1 year if the individual is age 35 or younger or during a period of 6 months if the individual is over the age of 35; (ii) the condition of an individual who is unable to conceive after 12 failed attempts of intrauterine insemination under medical supervision if the individual is age 35 or younger or after 6 failed attempts of intrauterine insemination under medical supervision if the individual is over the age of 35; or (iii) the presence of a demonstrated condition recognized by a licensed physician and surgeon as a cause of infertility. For purposes of meeting the criteria for infertility in this section, if a person conceives but is unable to carry that pregnancy to live birth, the period of time they attempted to conceive prior to achieving pregnancy shall be included in the calculation of the 1 year or 6 month period, as applicable.

No insurer providing coverage pursuant to this section shall discriminate based on an individual's expected length of life, present or predicted disability, degree of medical dependency, perceived quality of life, or other health conditions, nor on the basis of age, race, color, religious creed, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, marital status or gender identity.

SECTION 3. Section 8K of chapter 176A of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby amended by striking out the last 2 sentences and inserting in place thereof the following 3 sentences:- For purposes of this section, "infertility" shall mean (i) the condition of an individual who is unable to conceive or produce conception during a period of 1 year if the individual is age 35 or younger or during a period of 6 months if the individual is over the age of 35; (ii) the condition of an individual who is unable to conceive after 12 failed attempts of intrauterine insemination under medical supervision if the individual is age 35 or younger or after 6 failed attempts of intrauterine insemination under medical supervision if the individual is over the age of 35; or (iii) the presence of a demonstrated condition recognized by a licensed physician and surgeon as a cause of infertility. For purposes of meeting the criteria for infertility in this section, if a person conceives but is unable to carry that pregnancy to live birth, the period of time they attempted to conceive prior to achieving pregnancy shall be included in the calculation of the 1 year or 6 month period, as applicable.

No contract providing coverage pursuant to this section shall discriminate based on an individual's expected length of life, present or predicted disability, degree of medical dependency, perceived quality of life, or other health conditions, nor on the basis of age, race, color, religious creed, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, marital status or gender identity.

SECTION 4. Section 4J of chapter 176B of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby amended by striking out the last 2 sentences and inserting in place thereof the following 3 sentences:- For purposes of this section, "infertility" shall mean (i) the condition of an individual who is unable to conceive or produce conception during a period of 1 year if the individual is age 35 or younger or during a period of 6 months if the individual is over the age of 35; (ii) the condition of an individual who is unable to conceive after 12 failed attempts of intrauterine insemination under medical supervision if the individual is age 35 or younger or after 6 failed attempts of intrauterine insemination under medical supervision if the individual is over the age of 35; or (iii) the presence of a demonstrated condition recognized by a licensed physician and surgeon as a cause of infertility. For purposes of meeting the criteria for infertility in this section, if a person conceives but is unable to carry that pregnancy to live birth, the period of time they attempted to conceive prior to achieving pregnancy shall be included in the calculation of the 1 year or 6 month period, as applicable.

No subscription certificate providing coverage pursuant to this section shall discriminate based on an individual's expected length of life, present or predicted disability, degree of medical dependency, perceived quality of life, or other health conditions, nor on the basis of age, race, color, religious creed, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, marital status or gender identity.
