The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Thirteen

An Act relative to tax withholding for individual retirement accounts.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Chapter 62 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2010 Official Edition, is hereby amended by adding the following section:-

Section 65. Every person who receives payments or distributions from an individual retirement account may choose the amount of income taxes to be withheld from such payment or distribution regardless of whether such payment is subject to federal withholding; provided, that the recipient files a form specifying said amount with the payer of the individual retirement account and the commissioner.
