The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Eleven

An Act relative to long-term disability and foreclosure prevention..

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

SECTION 1. Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, residential mortgage lenders and landlords shall offer provisions to allow a mortgagee or lessee to defer payments and extend a mortgage term or lease term for a period proportional to the length of deferment. This provision shall apply to a residential mortgagee or lessee who has an active application for long-term disability assistance. The residential mortgage lender or landlord may require proof of hardship. This provision shall apply only to a primary residence.
