The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Third General Court
(2023-2024)

An Act relative to veteran judges' pensions.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Notwithstanding sections 65A, 65B and 65D of chapter 32 of the General Laws, or any 2 other general or special law to the contrary, a retired chief justice, justice, associate justice,
3 judge, associate judge, or special justice, hereinafter referred to as a judge, who: (i) is a veteran
4 who served in the armed forces of the United States, (ii) was called into duty in the armed forces
5 of the United States while seated as a judge, and served at least 90 days in active duty in the 6 armed forces of the United States while seated as a judge, (iii) retired at the age of 70 under 7 Article LVIII of the Amendments to the Constitution with at least 10 years of continuous judicial 8 service or resigned after serving in office for at least 15 years continuously and attaining the age 9 of 65 years, and (iv) currently receives a pension related to such service as a judge, shall be 10 eligible for an increase in their pension to receive a pension for life at an annual rate equal to 11 three fourths of the current annual rate of regular compensation of a judge currently serving in

12 the same or similar position as the retired judge held at the time of their retirement, calculated as 13 of the date of the application for pension increase, beginning on the date such application was 14 approved by the retirement board pursuant to the second paragraph. A judge who retired at age 15 70 under Article LVII of the Amendments to the Constitution with less than 10 years of 16 continuous judicial service who otherwise meets the requirements of this act shall be eligible to 17 receive an increase in their pension by calculating such pension based on the current annual rate 18 of regular compensation of a judge currently serving in the same or similar position as the retired 19 judge held at the time of their retirement, calculated as of the date of the application for pension 20 increase, beginning on the date such application was approved by the retirement board pursuant 21 to the second paragraph.

22 Within 30 days after the effective date of this act, the state retirement board shall notify 23 all retired judges collecting a pension pursuant to chapter 32 of the General Laws, in writing by 24 certified mail, of the opportunity to apply for an increase in their pension pursuant to this act.
25 Said judges shall have 30 days after receipt of said notice to make application for such pension 26 increase, which shall include information, as the retirement board deems necessary, to determine 27 eligibility pursuant to this act. The retirement board shall make a determination on any 28 application submitted pursuant to this act within 30 days after receipt of such application, and 29 shall notify the applicant of such determination in writing not later than 10 days after such 30 determination is made.
