In the One Hundred and Ninety-Third General Court (2023-2024)

An Act relative to transmitting indecent visual depictions by teens and the unlawful distribution of explicit images.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 18C of the General Laws is hereby amended by adding the 2 following section:-

3 Section 15. The office of the child advocate, in consultation with the department of 4 elementary and secondary education, the department of youth services and the attorney general, 5 shall develop and implement a comprehensive educational diversion program. The program shall 6 be designed to provide adolescents with information about: (i) the legal consequences of and the 7 penalties for transmitting visual material in violation of section 43A of chapter 265 or section 8 29D of chapter 272, also known as “sexting”, or posting such visual material online, including an 9 explanation of other applicable federal and state law; (ii) the non-legal consequences of sexting 10 or posting such visual material online, including, but not limited to, the effect on relationships, 11 loss of educational and employment opportunities and being barred or removed from school

12 programs and extracurricular activities; (iii) how the unique characteristics of the internet can 13 produce long-term and unforeseen consequences for sexting and posting such visual material 14 online, including the impact on healthy relationships and the risk of trafficking; and (iv) the 15 connection between bullying and cyber-bullying, sexual assault and dating violence and juveniles
16 sexting or posting such visual material online. The child advocate shall consult the best available 17 research on effective educational diversion programs, including programs on sexting, in 18 designing the curriculum and shall regularly review the program design and make updates to 19 improve efficacy. The child advocate shall solicit public comment prior to the development of 20 the curriculum or the implementation of any significant changes to the curriculum or program.
21 The child advocate may establish the program, or any aspect of the program, in partnership with 22 a state institution, state agency or a public or private institution of higher education. The 23 educational diversion program shall be used as part of any diversion program required pursuant 24 to section 39N of chapter 119 and shall be made available to school districts for use in 25 educational programs on the topic. Law enforcement, clerk magistrates and district attorneys 26 may refer youth alleged to be a juvenile delinquent by reason of violating section 29B, 29C or 27 29D of chapter 272 to the educational diversion program.

28 SECTION 2. Chapter 71 of the General Laws is hereby amended by adding the following 29 section:-

30 Section 99. The department shall encourage school districts to: (i) implement instruction 31 in media literacy skills at all grade levels, including life skills programming, and in any of the 32 core subjects under section 1D of chapter 69 or other subjects, to equip students with the 33 knowledge and skills for accessing, analyzing, evaluating and creating all types of media; and (ii) 34 use the content of the educational diversion program established pursuant to section 15 of 35 chapter 18C for educational programs on the topic of transmitting visual material in violation of 36 section 43A of chapter 265 or section 29D of chapter 272 or posting such visual material online.

37 SECTION 3. Chapter 119 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after 38 section 39M the following section:-

39 Section 39N. (a) If a child is alleged to be a juvenile delinquent by reason of violating 40 sections 29B, 29C or 29D of chapter 272, the court shall divert the child from further court
41 processing prior to arraignment unless the court finds that failure to proceed with the arraignment 42 would result in the substantial likelihood of serious harm to a member of the community. If 43 arraignment has already occurred, the court may, if the child consents, stay the proceedings and 44 divert the child in the same manner as a child diverted prior to arraignment under this section.
45 The court shall direct a child diverted under this section to enter and complete the educational 46 diversion program established pursuant to section 15 of chapter 18C.

47 (b) A child who is alleged to be a juvenile delinquent by reason of violating sections 29B, 48 29C or 29D of chapter 272 may, upon the request of the child, undergo an assessment prior to 49 arraignment to enable the judge to consider the suitability of the child for diversion to the 50 educational diversion program established pursuant to section 15 of chapter 18C. If a child 51 chooses to request a continuance for the purpose of such an assessment, the child shall notify the 52 judge prior to arraignment. Upon receipt of such notification, the judge may grant a 14-day 53 continuance. The department of probation may conduct such assessment prior to arraignment to 54 assist the judge in making that decision. If the judge determines it is appropriate, a determination 55 of eligibility by the personnel of the educational diversion program may substitute for an 56 assessment. If a case is continued pursuant to this subsection, the child shall not be arraigned,

57 and an entry shall not be made into the criminal offender record information system, until a 58 judge issues an order to resume the ordinary processing of a delinquency proceeding. A judge 59 may order diversion without first ordering an assessment in any case in which the court finds that 60 sufficient information is available without an assessment; provided, however, that the judge shall 61 provide an opportunity for both the commonwealth and counsel for the child to be heard 62 regarding diversion of the child.

63 (c)(1) After the completion of the assessment, the probation officer or the director of the 64 educational diversion program established pursuant to section 15 of chapter 18C shall submit to 65 the court and to counsel for the child a recommendation as to whether the child would benefit 66 from diversion. Upon receipt of the recommendation, the judge shall provide an opportunity for 67 both the commonwealth and counsel for the child to be heard regarding diversion of the child.
68 The judge shall then make a final determination as to the eligibility of the child for diversion.
69 The proceedings of a child who is found eligible for diversion shall be stayed for 90 days unless 70 the judge determines that the interest of justice would best be served by a lesser period of time or 71 unless extended under subsection (f).

72 (2) A stay of proceedings shall not be granted under this section unless the child consents 73 in writing to the terms and conditions of the stay of proceedings and, after consultation with legal 74 counsel, knowingly executes a waiver of the child's right to a speedy trial on a form approved by 75 the chief justice of the juvenile court department of the trial court of the commonwealth. Consent 76 shall be given only upon the advice of counsel.

77 (3) The following shall not be admissible against the child in any proceedings: (i) a 78 request for assessment; (ii) a decision by the child not to enter the educational diversion

79 program; (iii) a determination by the department of probation or by the educational diversion 80 program that the child would not benefit from diversion; (iv) any statement made by the child or 81 the child's family during the course of assessment; and (v) circumstances regarding the child's 82 failure to complete the educational diversion program. Any consent by a child to a stay of 83 proceedings or any act done or statement made in fulfillment of the terms and conditions of a 84 stay of proceedings shall not be admissible as an admission, implied or otherwise, against the 85 child if the stay of proceedings was terminated and proceedings were resumed on the original
86 complaint. A statement or other disclosure or a record thereof made by a child during the course 87 of an assessment or during the stay of proceedings shall not be disclosed at any time to a 88 commonwealth or other law enforcement officer in connection with the investigation or 89 prosecution of any charges against the child or a codefendant.

90 (4) If a child is found eligible for diversion pursuant to this section, the child shall not be 91 arraigned and an entry shall not be made into the criminal offender record information system 92 unless a judge issues an order to resume the ordinary processing of a delinquency proceeding. If 93 a child is found eligible pursuant to this section, the eligibility shall not be considered an 94 issuance of a criminal complaint for the purposes of section 37H1/2 of chapter 71.

95 (d) A district attorney may divert any child for whom there is probable cause to issue a 96 complaint, either before or after the assessment procedure set forth in subsection (b), with or 97 without the permission of the court. A district attorney who diverts a case pursuant to this 98 subsection may request a report from the educational diversion program established pursuant to 99 section 15 of chapter 18C regarding the child's status in and completion of the program.

100 (e) If during the stay of proceedings a child is charged with a subsequent offense under 101 sections 29B, 29C or 29D of chapter 272, a judge in the court that entered the stay of 102 proceedings may issue such process as is necessary to bring the child before the court. When the 103 child is brought before the court, the judge shall afford the child an opportunity to be heard. If 104 the judge finds probable cause to believe that the child has committed such a subsequent offense, 105 the judge may order that the stay of proceedings be terminated and that the commonwealth be 106 permitted to proceed on the original complaint as provided by law.

107 (f)(1) Upon the expiration of the initial 90-day stay of proceedings, the probation officer
108 or the director of the educational diversion program, established pursuant to section 15 of chapter 109 18C, shall submit to the court a report indicating the successful completion of diversion by the 110 child or recommending an extension of the stay of proceedings for not more than an additional 111 90 days so that the child may complete the diversion program successfully.

112 (2) If the probation officer or the director of the educational diversion program, 113 established pursuant to section 15 of chapter 18C, indicates the successful completion of 114 diversion by a child, the judge shall dismiss the original complaint pending against the child. If 115 the report recommends an extension of the stay of proceedings, the judge may, on the basis of 116 the report and any other relevant evidence, take such action as the judge deems appropriate,
117 including the dismissal of the complaint, the granting of an extension of the stay of proceedings 118 or the resumption of proceedings.

119 (3) If the conditions of diversion have not been met, the child's attorney shall be notified 120 prior to the termination of the child from diversion and the judge may grant an extension to the

121 stay of proceedings if the child provides good cause for failing to comply with the conditions of 122 diversion.

123 (4) If the judge dismisses a complaint under this subsection, the court shall, unless the 124 child objects, enter an order directing expungement of any records of the complaint and related 125 proceedings maintained by the clerk, the court, the department of criminal justice information 126 services and the court activity record index.

127 SECTION 4. Section 43A of chapter 265 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2020
128 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking out, in line 7, the figure “$1,000” and inserting in 129 place thereof the following figure:- $5,000.

131 amended by striking out subsection (b) and inserting in place thereof the following 2
132 subsections:-
