An Act relative to media access and transparency in correctional facilities.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 127 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after 2 section 36C the following section:-

3 Section 36D.

4 (a) For purposes of this section, “News media representatives” shall mean persons who 5 are engaged in reporting news for: (i) a radio or television program (ii) an online or print
6 newspaper; (iii) an online or print magazine; (iv) a national or international news service, 7 including wire services; (v) a website; or (vi) a podcast. Freelance reporters and journalists shall 8 be considered news media representatives.

9 (b) No correctional institution, state prison, jail, or house of correction, the commissioner 10 of correction, sheriff, superintendent, correctional officer, employee, contractor or any other staff 11 shall abridge the right of a person incarcerated in any correctional or penal institution in the 12 commonwealth to confer with any news media representative. Such news media representatives

13 may visit an incarcerated person at such times as may be established under rules promulgated by 14 the commissioner. News media representatives shall have rights to unimpeded, confidential, in 15 person visitation and video conferencing commensurate with the rights of attorneys established 16 in section 36A; provided further, that there shall be no restrictions on the access of news media 17 representatives due to housing placement or due to disciplinary sanctions imposed on an 18 incarcerated person for any offense.

19 (c) All correctional institutions, state prisons, jails, and houses of correction shall provide 20 for unimpeded, unmonitored, and confidential telephone communication between news media
21 representatives and incarcerated persons. Media representatives shall be permitted to establish a 22 telephone line which shall be authorized for confidential communication with any incarcerated
23 person. All institutions shall provide an online system whereby news media representatives can 24 register their information, including without limitation email address and telephone numbers.
25 Upon verifying the news media representative's credentials, the institution shall publish such 26 information on the institution's website and provide the same to all incarcerated persons upon 27 entry into any correctional facility. Ordinary pre-authorization processes, telephone limitations, 28 restrictions, and cap limits shall not apply to conversations between incarcerated persons and 29 news media representatives. Incarcerated persons serving disciplinary sanctions shall at all times 30 be permitted telephone access to news media representatives.

31 (d) Attorneys shall be permitted to bring with them a news media representative on any 32 legal visit with an incarcerated person, including in person visits, video visits, and video 33 conferencing.

34 (e) Retaliation against any incarcerated person for communication with a news media 35 representative shall be prohibited and punishable by disciplinary action up to and including 36 termination.

37 (f) The commissioner of correction shall update regulations in accordance with this 38 section.

39 (g) Sheriffs shall update policies in accordance with this section.

40 SECTION 2. Section 87 of chapter 127 of the General Laws is hereby amended by 41 inserting in subsection (a) after the phrase “the commissioner or any deputy commissioner of 42 correction,” the following:- any news media representative as defined by section 36D of chapter 43 127.
