Michael D. Brady

SENATE No. 2416

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Third General Court (2023-2024)

An Act authorizing the appointment of special police officers in the town of Charlton.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. The chief of police of the town of Charlton may appoint, if the chief deems 2 necessary, former police officers who are retired for superannuation in good standing as special 3 police officers for the purpose of performing police details or any other police duties arising 4 from or during the course of police detail work, whether or not related to the detail work. Prior to 5 appointment under this act, a special police officer shall pass a medical examination conducted 6 by a physician or other certified professional chosen by the town to determine that the special 7 police officer is capable of performing the essential duties of a special police officer, the cost of 8 which shall be borne by the special police officer.

9 SECTION 2. Notwithstanding section 1 of chapter 32 of the General Laws or any other 10 general or special law to the contrary, a special police officer appointed pursuant to this act shall 11 not be subject to the maximum age restrictions applied to regular officers under chapter 32 of the 12 General Laws; provided, however, that a special police officer appointed pursuant to this act 13 shall not be eligible to serve as a special police officer upon reaching the age of 70.

14 SECTION 3. Special police officers appointed under this act shall be subject to the 15 limitation on hours worked and other restrictions on earnings as provided in paragraph (b) of 16 section 91 of chapter 32 of the General Laws.

17 SECTION 4. Special police officers shall be subject to the rules and regulations, policies, 18 procedures and requirements of the chief of police of the town of Charlton including, but not 19 limited to, restrictions on the type of detail assignments, requirements regarding medical 20 examinations to determine continuing capability to perform the duties of a special police officer, 21 requirements for training, requirements for firearms licensing and qualifications and 22 requirements regarding uniforms and equipment. Such special police officers shall comply with 23 all requirements of chapter 6E of the General Laws, including: (i) maintaining certification and 24 good standing with the Massachusetts Peace Officer Standards and Training Commission; and 25 (ii) complying with all annual in-service and other training requirements mandated by the 26 municipal police training committee.

27 SECTION 5. This act shall take effect upon passage.
