8 SECTION 1A.) Membership of such committee, shall be determined by appropriate
9 consultation, and regulations, with the Executive Office of Public Safety and Security; the Office
10 of Governor, and the Attorney General. The Membership shall consist of no more than five (5)

11 individuals, who shall include at least one (1) individual with substantial experience, as a Police
12 Chief, and one (1) individual representing the general public.

23 breadth of skill, training, competence, and management abilities.
- 24 • To provide a reasonable period for qualifying competent officers, who may wish 25 to seek appropriate promotion.
- 26 • To provide a reasonable period for qualifying additionally competent Police 27 Chiefs.

29 honorable positions.

30 SECTION 4. In general, in recognizing the need for these long overdue reforms, actions
31 may, and likely should, reduce to the absolute possible minimum, the unfortunate prevalence of 32 various incompetencies; and remove such individuals as do not meet reasonable standards;
33 whether they be Police Officers, or Police Chiefs. In so doing, this legislation seeks to further

35 professionals should have, for such opportunity of enjoyment, in the communities, for which 36 they serve.

41 Officers, or Police Chiefs, the cost of any reform, must include the capacity, to move on, to a 42 new, fresh page of progress, without retaining significant flaws, that should not have been 43 permitted. This set of circumstances, can certainly be appropriately adjusted for, by appropriate
44 retirements, through existing provisions of Retirement Law.
