AN ACT RELATIVE TO THE PUNISHMENT OF HABITUAL OFFENDERS.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 133B of chapter 27 of the General Laws is hereby repealed.

2 SECTION 2. Section 25 of chapter 279 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2006 Official 3 Edition, is hereby amended by striking section 25 in its entirety and inserting in place there of the 4 following section:-

5 Section 25. (a) Whoever has been twice convicted of crime and sentenced and committed to 6 prison in this or another state or by the Federal government, or once in this and once or more in 7 another state or by the Federal government, for terms of not less than three years each, and does 8 not show that he has been pardoned for either crime on the ground that he was innocent, shall, 9 upon conviction of a felony, be considered an habitual criminal and be punished by 10 imprisonment in the state prison for the maximum term provided by law as a penalty for the 11 felony for which he is then to be sentenced.

12 (b) Whoever has been twice convicted in the Superior Court of a felony, and does not show that 13 he has been pardoned for either crime on the ground that he was innocent, shall, upon conviction 14 in the Superior Court of a felony, be considered an habitual criminal and be punished by 15 imprisonment in the state prison for the maximum term provided by law as a penalty for the 16 felony for which he is then to be sentenced.

17 (c) Whoever has been twice convicted of a felony punishable by more than ten years in the state 18 prison, and does not show that he has been pardoned for either crime on the ground that he was 19 innocent, shall, upon conviction of any felony, either in the Boston Municipal Court, District
20 Court, or Superior Court be considered an habitual criminal and be punished by imprisonment

21 for the maximum term provided by law as a penalty for the felony for which he is then to be 22 sentenced.

23 (d) A prosecution commenced under this section shall not be continued without a finding or 24 placed on file and all offenders sentenced under this section shall be ineligible for probation, 25 parole, work release or furlough or receive any deduction from his sentence for good conduct.

26 (e) In any prosecution commenced pursuant to this section, introduction into evidence of a prior 27 conviction by either certified attested copies of original court papers, or certified attested copies 28 of the defendant's biographical and informational data from records of the department of 29 probation, any jail or house of correction or the department of correction showing that defendant
30 served a sentence or probationary term for the offense in question, shall be prima facie evidence 31 that the defendant before the court has been convicted previously by a court of the 32 commonwealth or any other jurisdiction. Such documentation shall be self-authenticating and 33 admissible, after the commonwealth has established the defendant's guilt on the primary offense, 34 as evidence in any court of the commonwealth to prove the defendant's commission of any prior 35 conviction described therein. The commonwealth shall not be required to introduce any 36 additional corroborating evidence or live witness testimony to establish the validity of such prior 37 conviction.

38 SECTION 3. Section 1 of chapter 279 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2006
39 Official Edition, is hereby amended by inserting in the second paragraph after the first 40 sentence the following new sentence:-

41 A probationer whose sentence has been suspended shall be revoked and committed on the 42 suspended sentence where it is established by a preponderance of the evidence that the 43 probationer committed a felony while on probation.

44 SECTION 4. Section 1A of chapter 279 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2006 Official 45 Edition, is hereby amended by inserting, after the first paragraph, the following new paragraph:-

46 A probationer whose sentence has been suspended shall be revoked and committed on the 47 suspended sentence where it is established by a preponderance of the evidence that the 48 probationer committed a felony while on probation.

49 SECTION 5. Section 3 of chapter 279 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2006
50 Official Edition, is hereby amended in the first paragraph by striking the words "If such 51 suspension is revoked, the sentence shall be in full force and effect." and inserting in place 52 thereof the following:- If such suspension is revoked, the sentence shall be in full force and 53 effect, and such suspension must be revoked where it is established by a preponderance of 54 the evidence that the probationer committed a felony while on probation. The pendency of a 55 criminal action on a charge which also constitutes an alleged violation of probation shall not

56 be grounds for a continuance of the probation violation hearing and such probation violation 57 hearing shall be conducted promptly.

58 SECTION 6. Chapter 279 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2006 Official Edition, is 59 hereby amended by striking out section 8B in its entirety and inserting in place thereof the 60 following section:-

61 Section 8B. If a defendant on release subject to the provisions of sections 42A, 58, 58A, or 62 87 of chapter 276 or any other statute that allows the court to set conditions of release during 63 the pendency of a criminal case, commits a crime, the sentences ultimately imposed on the 64 pending crime and the new crime shall run consecutively to each other, without regard to the 65 order or sequence in which those cases are adjudicated.
