The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Thirteen

An Act regarding tuition equity for high school graduates in the Commonwealth.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Chapter 15A of the General Laws, as most recently amended by section 20 of chapter 189
2 of the acts of 2010, is hereby amended by adding the following section:—

3 Section 9C(a) Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, for the purpose
4 of determining eligibility for in-state tuition rates and fees at state institutions of higher education
5 in Massachusetts, any person admitted to such state institutions of higher education, other than a
6 nonimmigrant alien within the meaning of paragraph 15 of subsection (a)(A) through (S) of 8 7 U.S.C., section 1101 of the federal act, who has attended a high school in the commonwealth for 8 3 or more years and has graduated from a high school in the commonwealth or attained the 9 equivalent thereof from an adult basic education program in the commonwealth, shall be eligible 10 to pay in-state tuition rates and fees at any state institution of higher education in the 11 commonwealth.

12 (b) Any such person shall: (A) if eligible for the military selective service under the 13 federal Military Selective Service Act, as amended by 50 U.S.C., App. 453, section 3, register 14 for such; (B) provide the state institution of higher education in the commonwealth in which 15 enrollment is sought with documentation of registration with the selective service, if applicable;
16 (C) supply the state institution of higher education in which enrollment is sought with a valid
17 social security number or a document reflecting issuance of an individual taxpayer identification

18 number (ITIN) in lieu of a social security number; (D) file, in every year of enrollment, a 19 Massachusetts income tax return pursuant to chapter 62 of the general laws; and (E) file at the 20 time of enrollment, if that person is not a citizen of the United States or a legal permanent 21 resident of the United States, an affidavit signed under the pains and penalties of perjury stating 22 that the person has applied for citizenship or legal permanent residence or will apply for 23 citizenship or legal permanent residence in accordance with federal statute and federal 24 regulations within 120 days of eligibility for such status.

25 (c) No person qualified for in-state tuition rates and fees under this chapter shall be 26 denied in-state tuition and fees as a result of the granting of eligibility under this paragraph.
