[SIMILAR MATTER FILED IN PREVIOUS SESSION
SEE HOUSE, NO. 2565 OF 2011-2012.]

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Thirteen

An Act to promote efficiency and transparency in economic development.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. The General Laws are hereby amended after Chapter 30B by inserting the 2 following chapter:-

3 Chapter 30C. Economic Development, Transparency and Fiscal Accountability

4 Section 1. As used in Chapter 30C, the following words shall, unless the context clearly 5 requires otherwise, have the following meanings:-

6 "Corporate parent" means any person, association, corporation, joint venture, partnership, 7 or other entity, that owns or controls 50 percent or more of a recipient corporation.

8 "Date of subsidy" means the date that a granting body provides the initial monetary value 9 of a development subsidy to a recipient corporation provided, however, that where the subsidy is 10 for the installation of new equipment, such date shall be the date the corporation puts the 11 equipment into service and provided, further, that where the subsidy is for improvements to 12 property, such date shall be the date the improvements are finished, or the date the corporation 13 occupies the property, whichever is earlier.

14 "Development subsidy" means any expenditure of public funds with a value of at least 15 $25,000.00 for the purpose of stimulating economic development within the Commonwealth, 16 including but not limited to bonds, grants, loans, loan guarantees, enterprise zones, 17 empowerment zones, tax increment financing, grants, fee waivers, land price subsidies, matching 18 funds, tax abatements, tax exemptions, and tax credits.

19 "Discretionary tax credit program" means: (i) the historic rehabilitation tax credit in 20 section 38R of said chapter 63 and section 6J of said chapter 62; (ii) the life sciences investment 21 tax credit in section 38U of said chapter 63 and subsection (m) of said section 6 of said chapter 22 62; (iii) the low-income housing tax credit in section 31H of said chapter 63 and section 6I of 23 said chapter 62; (iv) the refundable research credit in subsection (J) of section 38M of said 24 chapter 63; (v) the economic development incentive program in subsection (g) of said section 6 25 of said chapter 62 and section 38N of said chapter 63; (vi) certified housing development credits 26 of subsection (q) of Section 6 of said Chapter 62; (vii) donated land (conservation) credits of 27 subsection (p) of Section 6 of said Chapter 62; (viii) community investment tax credit of section 28 6M of said chapter 62 and section 38EE of said chapter 63; and (ix) any discretionarily awarded 29 tax credits under chapter 62 and 63 established after January 1, 2013.

30 "Full-time job" means a job in which an individual is employed by a recipient 31 corporation for at least 35 hours per week.

32 "Granting body" means any agency, board, office, public benefit corporation or authority 33 of the Commonwealth or a local government unit that provides a development subsidy.

34 "Local government unit" means an agency, board, commission, office, public benefit 35 corporation, or public authority of a political subdivision of the Commonwealth.

36 "New Employee" means a full-time employee who represents a net increase in the 37 number of individuals employed by the recipient corporation in the Commonwealth. "New 38 employee" does not include an employee who performs a job that was previously performed by 39 another employee of the recipient corporation if that job existed for at least 6 months before 40 hiring the employee.

41 "Part-time job" means a job in which an individual is employed by a recipient 42 corporation for less than 35 hours per week.

43 "Permanent Job" means a job that is not scheduled to terminate at the completion of a 44 discrete project.

45 "Project site" means the site of a project for which any development subsidy is provided.

46 "Property-taxing entity" means any entity that levies taxes upon real or personal property.

47 “Recipient corporation” means any person, association, corporation, joint venture, 48 partnership or other entity that receives a development subsidy.

49 “Searchable Website” means the website defined in Section 14C (a) of Chapter 7 of the 50 Massachusetts General Laws and administered by the Secretary of Administration and Finance 51 that allows the public at no cost to search for, obtain and aggregate state spending and revenue 52 information.

53 "Small business" means a corporation whose corporate parent, and all subsidiaries 54 thereof, that employed fewer than twenty full-time employees or had total gross receipts of less 55 than one million dollars during the calendar year.

56 “State” means an agency, board, commission, office, public benefit corporation or public 57 benefit authority of the Commonwealth.

58 "Subsidy value” means the face value of any and all development subsidies provided to a 59 recipient corporation.

60 “Temporary job” means a job in which an individual is hired for a season or for a limited 61 period of time.

62 Section 2. Application for Economic Development Subsidies

63 (a) Notwithstanding any general or special laws to the contrary, an applicant for an 64 economic development subsidy, shall complete an application for the subsidy on a form prepared 65 by the Executive Office of Housing and Economic Development. The information required on 66 the application shall include but not be limited to the following:

67 (i) An application tracking number for the granting agency and the project;

68 (ii) The name, street and mailing address, and phone number of the chief officer of the 69 granting body;

70 (iii) The name, street and mailing address, and phone number of the chief officer of the 71 applicant’s corporate parent;

72 (iv) The name, street and mailing address, and phone number of the chief officer of the 73 applicant;

74 (v) The street address of the project site;

75 (vi) The three-digit North American Industry Classification System number of the project 76 site;

77 (vii) The total number of individuals employed by the applicant at the project site on the 78 date of the application, broken down by full-time, part-time, and temporary positions;

79 (viii) The total number of individuals employed in the Commonwealth by the applicant's 80 corporate parent, and all subsidiaries thereof, as of December 31 of the prior fiscal year, broken 81 down by full-time, part-time and temporary positions;

82 (ix) The development subsidy or subsidies being applied for with the granting body, and 83 the value of such subsidy or subsidies;

84 (x) An estimate of the number of new jobs to be created by the applicant, broken down by 85 full-time, part-time and temporary positions, where applicable;

86 (xi) The average hourly wage to be paid to all current and new employees at the project 87 site, where applicable;

88 (xii) For project sites located in a Metropolitan Statistical Area, as defined by the federal 89 Office of Management and Budget, the average hourly wage paid to non-managerial employees 90 in the Commonwealth for the industries involved at the project, as established by the United 91 States Bureau of Labor Statistics;

92 (xiii) For project sites located outside of Metropolitan Statistical Areas, the average 93 weekly wage paid to non-managerial employees in the county for industries involved at the 94 project, as established by the United States Department of Commerce;

95 (xiv) The type and amount of health care coverage to be provided by the applicant within 96 ninety days of commencement of employment at the project site, including any costs to be borne 97 by the employees;

98 (xv) A description of the project to be developed or undertaken, where applicable;

99 (xvi) The value of any additional private investment to be committed to this project;

100 (xvii) A statement as to whether the development subsidy may reduce employment at any 101 other site controlled by the applicant or its corporate parent, within or without of the 102 Commonwealth, resulting from automation, merger, acquisition, corporate restructuring or other 103 business activity;

104

105 (1) If the granting body shall approve the application, it shall send a copy to the 106 Executive Office of Housing and Economic Development within fifteen days of such approval, 107 which shall be a public record.

108 Section 3. Reports

109 (a) Annual reports

110 (i) Notwithstanding any general or special laws to the contrary, each granting body shall 111 file a progress report with the Executive Office of Housing and Economic Development for each 112 project for which a development subsidy has been granted, no later than May 15 each year. The 113 report shall include the following information:-

114 (1) The application tracking number;

115 (2) The identity of each taxpayer received an economic development subsidy and from 116 which program the credit was received;

117 (3) The amount of the tax credit awarded and issued for each taxpayer and each project, if 118 applicable;

119 (4) A list of all other development subsidies which the applicant has been granted by state 120 or local agencies within the Commonwealth.

121 (i) Subsidies granted over a period of time, including but not limited to tax increment 122 financing agreements, shall include both the value of the annual subsidy and the estimated 123 cumulative total for each subsequent year.

124 (5) The benefit to the Commonwealth actually provided, including but not limited to:

125 (i) The number of jobs created and lost, broken down by full-time, part-time and 126 temporary positions, where applicable;

127 (ii) The average wage of the jobs created, where applicable;

128 (iii) The type and amount of health care coverage provided to the employees at the 129 project site, including any costs borne by the employees, where applicable;

130 (iv) The status of the development project, where applicable;

131 (v) The amount of private investment committed to this project, where applicable.

132 (6) The comparison of the total employment in the Commonwealth by the recipient's 133 corporate parent on the date of the application and the date of the report, broken down by full-134 time, part-time and temporary positions;

135 (7) A statement, as reported by the taxpayer applicant, as to whether the use of the 136 development subsidy during the previous fiscal year has reduced employment at any other site 137 controlled by the recipient corporation or its corporate parent, within or without of the 138 Commonwealth as a result of automation, merger, acquisition, corporate restructuring or other 139 business activity;

140 (8) A signed certification by the chief officer of the recipient corporation as to the 141 accuracy of the progress report;

142 (i) On all subsequent annual progress reports, the granting body shall indicate whether the 143 recipient corporation is still in compliance with its job creation, wage and benefit goals, and 144 whether the corporate parent is still in compliance with its state employment requirement;

145 (ii) Granting bodies and recipient corporations shall file annual progress reports for the 146 duration of the subsidy, or not less than five years, whichever period is greater.

147 (b) Two-Year Report

148 (i) No later than fifteen days after the second anniversary of the date of subsidy, the 149 granting body shall file with the Executive Office of Housing and Economic Development a two-150 year progress report including the same information as required under section 5(a). The recipient 151 corporation shall certify as to the accuracy of such report.

152 (ii) The granting body shall state in the two-year report whether the recipient corporation 153 has achieved its job creation, wage and benefit goals, and whether the corporate parent has 154 maintained 90% of its employment in the Commonwealth.

155 (c) The Executive Office of Housing and Economic Development (EOHED) shall 156 compile and publish all data from the progress reports in both written and electronic form, 157 including to a reporting web site maintained by the Executive Office of Housing and Economic 158 Development. The information in the reports shall be included as part of the Searchable Website 159 administered by the Secretary of Administration and Finance

160 (d) The granting body and the Executive Office of Housing and Economic Development 161 shall have access at all reasonable times to the project site and the records of the recipient 162 corporation in order to monitor the project and to prepare progress reports. The Executive Office 163 of Housing and Economic Development shall commit the resources necessary to audit 164 compliance and verify the accuracy of progress reports.

165 (e) A recipient corporation that fails to provide the granting body with the information or 166 access required under paragraphs (1) and (2) of this section shall be subject to a fine of not less 167 than $500 per day to commence within ten working days after the February 1 deadline, and of 168 not less than $1,000 per day to commence twenty days after such deadline.

169 Section 4. Review

170 Notwithstanding any general or special laws to the contrary, all discretionary tax credit 171 programs shall expire after a period of 5 years unless reauthorized by an act of the legislature.
172 All other economic development subsidies shall be reviewed every 5 years by the legislature 173 with assistance from the Executive Office of Housing and Economic Development, based on the 174 reports required under Section 3, and may take action to renew, modify, or repeal them 175 accordingly.

176 Section 5. Subsidy Limit and Job Quality Standards

177 (a) A granting body shall not grant award a development subsidy if the cost per 178 permanent, full-time job is greater than $35,000.00. Such cost shall be determined by dividing 179 the amount of the subsidy by the number of permanent, full-time jobs required under the 180 application approved by the granting body.

181 (b) A granting body shall not grant a subsidy to an applicant unless the wages paid to 182 employees at the project site are equal to or exceed 85% of the average wage as established 183 under paragraphs (xii) and (xiii) of section 4, provided, however, that for small businesses, the 184 average wage must equal or exceed 75% of the wages established hereunder. The computation of 185 wages under this section shall only apply to a recipient corporation that provides the health care 186 coverage as approved in its application by the granting body.

187 Section 6. Revocation/Recapture

188 (a) A recipient corporation shall fulfill its job creation, wage, health care and other 189 benefit requirements for the project site within two years of the date of subsidy. Such recipient 190 shall maintain its wage and benefit goals as long as the subsidy is in effect, or five years, 191 whichever is longer.

192 (b) The corporate parent of a recipient corporation must maintain at least 90% of its 193 employment in the Commonwealth as long as the development subsidy is in effect, or not less 194 than five years, whichever is longer.

195 (c) If the requirements under paragraphs (a) or (b) are not fulfilled, this shall be deemed a 196 material variance and the granting body shall revoke and recapture the development subsidy 197 from the recipient corporation as follows:

198 (i) For projects certified before January 1, 2013, if the granting body revokes a subsidy 199 because of a material variance, the value of the economic benefit that shall be recaptured or 200 otherwise recouped by the commonwealth or municipality shall be the amount the corporate 201 parent would have been allowed to receive after the effective date of revocation. Revocation 202 shall take effect on the first day of the tax year in which a material variance occurred as 203 determined by the granting body. If the granting body revokes a subsidy because of a material 204 misrepresentation or fraud, the value of the economic benefit that shall be recaptured or 205 otherwise recouped by the commonwealth or the municipality shall be the total amount of 206 economic benefit approved by the state for the corporate parent.

207 (ii) For projects certified after January 1, 2013, if the granting body revokes a subsidy, 208 the value of the economic benefit that shall be recaptured or otherwise recouped by the state or 209 municipality shall be the total amount of economic benefit approved by the state or municipality 210 for the corporate parent.

211 (d) The granting body shall provide notice to the recipient corporation of its intent to 212 revoke and recapture the development subsidy and state the reasons and amount to be recaptured.
213 The recipient corporation shall remit to the governing body such amount within 60 calendar days 214 of the date of such notice.

215 (e) If a recipient corporation fails to create at least 90% of the required number of jobs or 216 to pay the required wages or benefits for three consecutive calendar years, the granting body 217 shall revoke, and shall so notify the Executive Office of Housing and Economic Development 218 and the recipient corporation. The recipient corporation shall pay back to the granting body all 219 remaining value of the development subsidy it has not previously repaid within 180 calendar 220 days of the date of the notice of such default.

221 (i) Recipient corporations that have defaulted on their agreement and had their full 222 subsidy recaptured shall be barred from applying for any other economic development subsidy in 223 the Commonwealth for a period not less than 5 years.

224 Section 7. Private Enforcement Action

225 If a granting body fails to enforce any provision of this Act, any individual who paid 226 personal income taxes to the Commonwealth in the calendar year prior to the year in dispute, or 227 any organization representing such taxpayers, shall be entitled to bring a civil action in state 228 court to compel enforcement under this statute. The court shall award reasonable attorney's fees 229 and costs to such prevailing taxpayer or organization.

230 Section 8. Transparency & Public Record Disclosure

231 (a) All records required to be prepared or maintained under this Act, including but not 232 limited to applications, progress reports, audits, recapture notices and any other records or 233 proceedings relating thereto, shall be subject to disclosure under the Commonwealth's Open 234 Records Law and be made available as part of the Searchable Website administered by the 235 Secretary of Administration and Finance.

236 (b) Granting bodies administering discretionary economic development incentive 237 programs, including but not limited to the Economic Assistance Coordinating Council and the 238 Massachusetts Life Sciences Center, shall be required to:

239 (i) Post meeting dates 30 days in advance on the website of the Executive Office of 240 Housing and Economic Development.

241 (ii) Make meeting agendas and supporting materials, including but not limited to the full 242 text of the applications to be considered, publicly available on the website of the Executive 243 Office of Housing and Economic Development at least 2 weeks prior to the meeting.

244 (iii) Make meeting members, votes, and minutes publicly available on the website of the 245 Executive Office of Housing and Economic Development within 24 hours of the meeting.

246 Section 9. Pre-emption

247 Nothing in this chapter shall be read to require or authorize any recipient corporation to 248 reduce wages or benefits established under any collective bargaining agreement or state or 249 federal prevailing wage law.

250 Section 10. Separability

251 If any provision of this Act is determined to be unenforceable in a court of law, such 252 determination shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of this Act.

253 Section 11. Waivers

254 The Executive Office of Economic Development may waive the subsidy limit and job 255 quality standards described in section 6 upon a finding that there exists significant public policy 256 goals apart from job creation. Thirty days prior to waiving requirements, the Executive Office of 257 Economic Development shall publish its intent to do so on its reporting website with an 258 explanation of the specific public policy goals, why the waiver is necessary to meet the public 259 policy goals and define objective standards by which the public policy goals will be measured.
260 The one and two year progress reports described in section 5 will use these standards to 261 determine whether these public policy goals were met.
