The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Thirteen

An Act relative to hands free cell phone devices.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 13B of Chapter 90 of the General Laws, as appearing in 2 the 2008 Official Edition, is hereby amended by adding at the end, the following new section:-

3 Section 13C:- (a) No individual shall operate a motor vehicle on a public way 4 while using a mobile telephone unless the telephone is affixed to the vehicle, part of a fixture in 5 the vehicle, operated as headgear, or a hands free device.

6 This section shall not apply to the driver of a fire-fighting vehicle, a rescue 7 vehicle, an ambulance; or a state, county, or local public safety official operating a motor vehicle 8 in the course of her duties.

9 (b) A violation of this section shall be punishable by a fine of $50. A second 10 offense shall be punishable by a fine of $100. Each subsequent offense shall be punishable by a 11 fine of not more than $250.

12 (c) It shall be an affirmative defense for an operator under this section to 13 produce evidence that the use of a mobile telephone that is the basis of the alleged violation was 14 in the case of an emergency. For the purpose of this paragraph, an emergency shall mean that the 15 operator needed to communicate with another to report any of the following: (1) that the vehicle 16 or vessel was disabled; (2) that medical attention or assistance was required on the vehicle or 17 vessel; (3) that police intervention, fire department or other emergency services was necessary

18 for the personal safety of a passenger or to otherwise ensure the safety of the passengers; or (4) 19 that a disabled vehicle or an accident was present on a roadway.

20 (d) A penalty under this section shall not be a surchargeable offense under 21 section 113B of chapter 175
