226 shall compare this total to the sum of the originally reported votes for each candidate and ballot 227 question in the audited precincts. When such comparison reveals a discrepancy between the 228 hand-counted audit and the originally reported tally of the audited precincts, the discrepancy 229 shall be analyzed to ascertain its cause. The state secretary shall oversee the analysis and shall 230 publish the findings and make the findings available online, along with the factual information 231 on which such findings were based, within 180 days.

232 (g) If there is a discrepancy between the results reached pursuant to an audit and 233 originally reported tallies, the hand count of the official paper ballots conducted pursuant to the 234 audit shall be the official vote of record and the board of registrars or election commission shall 235 amend each precinct tally sheet, official return book and check list delivered to the office of the

238 and the originally reported tallies in that precinct in any audited race or any audited ballot
239 question that reasonably leads to doubt about the accuracy of election results, the state secretary

241 ensure that the election results are accurate.

242 (i) (1) Upon receipt of the results of the audit, the state secretary shall make information 243 in the audit reports publicly available on a precinct-by-precinct basis as soon as practicable, but 244 no later than 10 days after receipt of the audit report form, in both human and machine readable 245 formats, such as a spreadsheet or comma-separated-value file. This information shall also be 246 posted on the electronic website of the state secretary.

247 (2) The state secretary shall publish the results of the audit in the report required by 248 section 133 or in some other document in which the results of the audit can easily be compared 249 with the number of votes received by each candidate for nomination and for election for a state 250 and federal office.

251 (3) The audit and publication of the results thereof shall be completed prior to the time 252 the commonwealth shall make a final determination concerning the appointment of its 253 presidential electors.
