An Act to promote public safety through the equitable allocation of funding for prosecutors and public defenders in the Commonwealth..

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Notwithstanding any special or general law to the contrary, no
2 later than October 1, 2014, the Chief Justice of the Administrative Office of the Trial Court shall 3 submit to the secretary of the Executive Office of Administration and Finance, the chairpersons
4 of the house and senate committees on ways and means, the chief counsel of the Committee for 5 Public Counsel Services (CPCS) and the executive director of the Massachusetts District
6 Attorneys Association a report indicating the number of all criminal and delinquency cases 7 initiated in the courts of the Commonwealth during fiscal year 2013, delineated as follows: the 8 number of criminal cases filed in the district courts and in the Boston Municipal Court; the 9 number of youthful offender and delinquency cases filed in the juvenile courts; the number of 10 criminal cases filed in the superior courts and, of those cases, how many were cases charging 11 murder or manslaughter; and the number of petitions filed by the Commonwealth in superior 12 court seeking the commitment of a respondent as a sexually dangerous person under G.L. ch.
13 123A. For purposes of this section the term “case” shall mean one defendant with one set of 14 related criminal charges. The report shall indicate, of those cases or petitions, the number where 15 the Commonwealth was represented by an assistant district attorney. The report shall also 16 indicate, of those cases or petitions, the number where the defendant was represented by a public 17 defender employed by the Committee for Public Counsel Services and the number where the 24 be counted as one; each petition seeking a commitment under G.L. ch. 123A shall be counted as 25 three; each superior court criminal case shall be counted as three; and each homicide or 26 manslaughter case shall be counted as four. From these weights there shall be determined a 27 caseload ratio for the District Attorneys and the Committee for Public Counsel Services. On or 28 after January 1, 2015, in no event shall the annual total appropriation, including supplemental 29 funding, for the District Attorneys or the criminal caseload of the Committee for Public Counsel 30 Services exceed this ratio by more than 10%.
