The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Eighty-Ninth General Court (2015-2016)

An Act relative to dress codes in public schools.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 83 of chapter 71 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2012
2 Official Edition, is hereby amended by inserting after the word “cleanliness” in line 4 the 3 following words:

4 Or b) are acting in accordance with a code of personal dress and appearance as authorized 5 by the school committee of each city, town, or regional school district after due consideration 6 and public hearing; and 1) only if said standards or code of personal dress and appearance are 7 defined and included in the official student handbook, or are distributed to each student and his 8 parent or guardian at the start of each school year, or upon enrollment, whichever occurs first; 2) 9 only if school officials make available resources to assist economically disadvantaged students, 10 herein defined as those students who qualify for free or reduced price lunches under federal

11 income eligibility guidelines, to purchase clothing that meets the standards or code of personal 12 dress and appearance; 3) only if school officials shall afford parents or guardians the flexibility 13 to exempt their children from compliance with the standards or code of personal dress and 14 appearance; and 4) only if this policy includes a provision that no student so exempted shall be 15 penalized by reason of such exemption.

16 SECTION 2. Section 86 of chapter 71 is hereby amended by striking out the paragraph 17 and inserting in place thereof the following paragraph: — The provision of sections 83 to 85, 18 inclusive, shall apply only to municipal, vocational and regional school districts that accept the 19 same by a majority vote of the school committee, or in the case of a charter school, by the board 20 of trustees.
