Moment of Silence.

At the request of the Chair (Mr. Wolf), the members, guests and staff stood in a moment of silence and reflection to the memory of the South Carolina 9.

Adjournment in Memory of the South Carolina 9.

The Senator from Hampshire, Franklin and Worcester, Mr. Rosenberg, requested that when the Senate adjourns today, it adjourn in memory of the nine men and women who died at Emanuel A. M. E. Church in Charleston, South Carolina on the evening of June 17, 2015.

Cynthia Marie Graham Hurd, Susie Jackson, Ethel Lee Lance, Depayne Middleton-Doctor, Clementa C. Pinckney, Tywanza Sanders, Daniel L. Simmons, Sr., Sharonda Coleman-Singleton and Myra Thompson.

Each one, though unknown by us, was loved by friends and family, each one a vital part of their church and their community. Their reverend, a pastor and fellow legislator of 19 years from the state of South Carolina, was leading them in bible study moments before the attack. All nine were shot and killed in a senseless crime of hate. These deaths have left our nation shaken.

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. wrote: "In the end, we will remember not the words of our enemies, but the silence of our friends." In that spirit, let us resolve today not to remain silent, but to speak up against injustice, and work to extinguish all forms of hatred and intolerance in our communities, our Commonwealth, and our Country.

The Senate wishes to convey its deepest and most heartfelt sympathies to the survivors, the victims' families and friends, the Emanuel African Methodist Episcopal Church in Charleston, the South Carolina State Legislature, and all others who have been affected by this tragedy.

Accordingly, as a mark of respect to the memory of the South Carolina 9, at fourteen minutes past eleven o'clock A.M., on motion of Mr. Hedlund, the Senate adjourned to meet again on Monday next at eleven o'clock A.M.
