Remarks of Minority Leader Bruce E. Tarr.

Ernest Masiello, or "Ernie", as he was more commonly known, enlisted in the U.S. Navy in 1944, during the height of World War II. He served his country with pride until he was discharged in 1946. Following his service in the Navy, Mr. Masiello started his own family operated business in the early 1950s. His company, Crystal Motor Express, Inc. was founded in 1952, offering top quality pickup and delivery services to its customers. With Ernie behind the wheel as one of the company's first drivers and his wife Doris managing the administrative duties, Crystal Motors became known for its impeccable service. Engaging a unique business structure and culture, Ernie and his wife expanded Crystal Motors' operations from Massachusetts to include the entire Northeast and Mid-Atlantic regions.

Following the growth and success of Crystal Motors, the company expanded in 1980 with the opening of the Crystal Warehouse Corporation and again nearly 30 years later with the introduction of the Crystal International Freight Systems in 2007. The Crystal Companies started as a small family business and today employ over 250 trained professionals who work with the same care and quality standards that Mr. Masiello instilled in his company over 60 years ago.

A generous man, Mr. Masiello valued service, community and family. He was a founding member of the Incarnation Church in Melrose and a community leader in his parish. He contributed to the building of the baseball field behind his church for public use. He enjoyed playing golf, attending New England Patriots football games and cooking for all his family and friends.

Ernest Masiello will be missed by many. A family friend put it best at the time of his passing by saying "He was such a kind and generous man. We are thinking of his wonderful family during this time and admiring the legacy he has left." He is survived by his wife, children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren and many other family members and friends.

On motion of Mr. Tarr, under the provisions of Senate Rule 6, the remarks were printed in the Journal of the Senate.

PAPERS FROM THE HOUSE

Emergency Preamble Adopted.

An engrossed Bill establishing a sick leave bank for John J. Monahan, an employee of the Trial Court (see Senate, No. 1969), having been certified by the Senate Clerk to be rightly and truly prepared for final passage and containing an emergency preamble,-- was laid before the Senate; and, a separate vote being taken in accordance with the requirements of Article LXVII of the Amendments to the Constitution, the preamble was adopted in concurrence, by a vote of 2 to 0.

The bill was signed by the Acting President (Mr. Brownsberger) and sent to the House for enactment.

Engrossed Bills.

An engrossed Bill further regulating the Community Events Fund in the town of Wareham (see Senate, No. 1099, amended) (which originated in the Senate), having been certified by the Senate Clerk to be rightly and truly prepared for final passage, was passed to be re-enacted and signed by the Acting President (Mr. Brownsberger) and again laid before the Governor for his approbation.

The following engrossed bills (the first two of which originated in the Senate), having been certified by the Senate Clerk to be rightly and truly prepared for final passage, were severally passed to be enacted and were signed by the Acting President (Mr. Brownsberger) and laid before the Governor for his approbation, to wit:

Establishing a sick leave bank for Susan Welliver, an employee of the Massachusetts Department of Transportation (see Senate, No. 1954);
