Such fees shall be paid to the state secretary at the time the certificate of organization or the annual report is filed.

(e) The fee for the filing of the certificate of organization required by subsection (a) for a limited liability company with 6 employees or fewer shall be two hundred and fifty dollars. The fee for the filing of the annual report required by subsection (c) for a limited liability company with 6 employees or fewer shall be two hundred and fifty dollars. Such fees shall be paid to the state secretary at the time the annual report is filed.”

The amendment was rejected.

Mr. Tarr moved that the proposed new draft be amended by inserting after section __, the following sections:-

“SECTION AA. Subsection (c) of section 3 of chapter 63B of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2012 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking out the first and second sentences and inserting in place thereof the following 3 sentences:-

For purposes of this chapter, there shall be 4 required installments for each taxable year, except as otherwise provided by this chapter. The first installment shall be paid on or before the fifteenth day of the third month of the taxable year; the second installment shall be paid on or before the fifteenth day of the sixth month of the taxable year; the third installment shall be paid on or before the fifteenth day of the ninth month of the taxable year; and the fourth installment shall be paid on or before the fifteenth day of the twelfth month of the taxable year. The amount of any installment shall be 25 per cent of the required annual payment.

SECTION BB. Section 4A of said chapter 63B, as so appearing, is hereby amended by striking out, in line 4, the word ‘sixty-five percent’ and inserting in place thereof the following words:- 50 per cent.

SECTION CC. Said section 4A of said chapter 63B, as so appearing, is hereby further amended by striking out, in line 9, the word ‘ten percent’ and inserting in place thereof the following words:- 25 per cent.”

The amendment was rejected.

Ms. Chang-Diaz and Mr. Eldridge moved that the proposed new draft be amended by inserting in section 3 after the definition of "Benefit year" the following:-

“‘Bereavement’, leave taken to grieve or make arrangements necessitated by the death of a family member.”;

By striking lines 47-50 and inserting in place thereof the following:-

“‘Family care leave’, leave taken by an employee from employment to provide care for a family member for 1 of the following reasons: (i) to bond with the employee's child during the first 12 months after the child's birth or the first 12 months after the placement of the child for adoption or foster care with the employee; (ii) a serious health condition of a family member; or (iii) for bereavement following the death of a family member.”;

By inserting after the words "benefit year" in line 96 the following:- “to bond with a child or to care for a family member. An employee or independent contractor shall be eligible for a maximum of 1 week of family care leave in a benefit year for bereavement, which shall be in addition to the maximum number of weeks an employee or contractor is eligible to take to care for a family member.”;

By inserting after the words "such leave" in line 134 the following:- “; provided that family care leave for bereavement that immediately follows leave taken in response to a serious health condition of a family member shall not be subject to an additional period of unpaid benefits; provided further that no family care benefits shall be paid during the first 3 consecutive calendar days of bereavement leave that does not immediately follow leave taken in response to a serious health condition of a family member.”; and

By striking in lines 203-204 and inserting in place thereof the following:- "(ii) a statement affirming that the employee is needed to care for a family member or bond with a child, or requires bereavement following the death of a family member.”.

The amendment was rejected.

Mr. Tarr moved that the proposed new draft be amended by inserting after section _ the following section:-

“SECTION __. Section 30 of said chapter 151A of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby amended by striking out subsection (a) in its entirety and inserting in place thereof the following subsection:

(a) Except as provided in subsection (b), the total benefits which an unemployed individual may receive during his benefit year shall be an amount equal to thirty-six percent of his wages in the base period, or an amount equal to thirty times his benefit rate, whichever is less, plus dependency benefits payable under section 29; provided, that if in any month the average state-wide unemployment rate for the prior 6 months, as determined by the United States Department of Labor, is equal to or below 5.1 percent, the total benefits which an unemployed individual who then files a claim may receive during his benefit year shall be an amount equal to 36 per cent of his wages in the base period or an amount equal to 26 times his benefit rate, whichever is less, plus dependency benefits payable under said section 29. If such amount includes a fractional part of a dollar, it shall be rounded to the next lower full dollar amount

SECTION __. Said section 30 of said chapter 151A of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby amended by adding the following subsection:-

(d) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (a), in any period that the average state-wide unemployment rate exceeds 5.1 percent and is below 7.0 percent, an individual's rights to receive regular benefits under this chapter for any week in excess of 26 times the individual's weekly benefit amount, plus dependency benefits payable under section 29, shall be dependent on the individual's participation in an unpaid internship program approved by the commissioner. An individual may participate and receive a weekly benefit amount in an approved unpaid internship program for 4 weeks in excess of the 26 week benefit period. For each week in excess of said 26 weeks, in order to receive the corresponding benefits for that week, the individual shall complete a week in such approved internship program. Approved participation in such program shall not result in a decrease in an individual's regular benefits. Benefits under this chapter in excess of 26 weeks shall not be conditional upon participation in an unpaid internship if the average state-wide unemployment rate for the prior 6 months is equal to or above 7.1 percent, provided that in no case shall regular benefits be distributed in excess of 30 weeks."

The amendment was rejected.

Mr. Tarr moved that the proposed new draft be amended by inserting after section 6 the following new section:-

"SECTION __. Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, the secretary of labor and workforce development in consultation with the secretary of housing and economic development shall conduct an economic analysis on the impact of this legislation. Said report shall include but not be limited to an analysis of the economic conditions impacted by the bill, included but not limited to, the economic competitiveness of employers, the impact on unemployment, and the impact of the economic stability of recipients of unemployment benefits in the Commonwealth.

Said reports shall be made available on the website of the department of unemployment assistance and submitted to the clerks of the house and senate and the joint committee on labor and workforce development. Said act will not go into effect until 60 days after the submission of the economic analysis required under this section.";

By striking sections 7, 8 and 9 in their entirety.

After remarks, the amendment was rejected.

Ms. O'Connor Ives moved that the proposed new draft be amended by striking in section 3 in line 23 "employer or" from the definition of contributions.

The amendment was rejected.

Ms. O'Connor Ives moved that the proposed new draft be amended by striking in section 3 in line 52 "the employer" from definition of premium.

The amendment was rejected.

Mr. Tarr moved that the proposed new draft be amended by striking in its entirety and inserting in place thereof the following:-

"SECTION __. Chapter 151A of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2012 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking, in section 24, the first paragraph of subpart (a) and inserting in place thereof the following:-

(a) Have been paid wages in the base period amounting to at least 40 times the weekly benefit rate; provided, however, that for the period beginning on January first, nineteen hundred and ninety-five the individual has been paid wages in at least two calendar quarters of the base period amounting to at least 40 times the weekly benefit rate; provided, further, that said amount shall be increased annually proportionately, rounding to the nearest one hundred dollars, to any increases which have occurred during the prior calendar year in the minimum wage as set forth in section one of chapter one hundred and fifty-one; and, provided further, that any such increase shall be effective beginning on the first Sunday in January.

Section __. Chapter 151A of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2012 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking, in section 30, subparts (a) and (b) and inserting in place thereof the following:-

(a) Except as provided in subsection (b), the total benefits which an unemployed individual may receive during his benefit year shall be an amount equal to thirty-six percent of his wages in the base period, or an amount equal to 26 times his benefit rate, whichever is less, plus dependency benefits payable under section 29; provided, however, that if in any month the average local unemployment for the last 12 months, as determined by the United States Department of Labor is equal to or below 5.1 per cent, the total benefits which an unemployed individual who then files a claim may receive during his benefit year shall be an amount equal to 36 per cent of his wages in the base period or an amount equal to 22 times his benefit rate, whichever is less, plus dependency benefits payable under said section 29; provided further that no such reduction in benefit rate from 26 times to 22 times the benefit rate due to the operation of this section shall occur to an individual's total benefit amount if, in any month during the individual's benefit year, the requirements of this section have not been met. If such amount includes a fractional part of a dollar, it shall be rounded to the next lower full dollar amount.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (a), an individual's rights to receive regular benefits under this chapter for any week in excess of 22 times the individual's weekly benefit amount, plus dependency benefits payable under section twenty-nine, shall cease for the remainder of the benefit year if such week of unemployment falls in an extended benefit period as defined in paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of section thirty A, or as defined in the Emergency Unemployment Compensation Act of 1991, or any other federal extended unemployment compensation act, as applicable.

SECTION __. Chapter 151A of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2012 Official Edition, is hereby amended by inserting at the end thereof the following section:-

Section 75. (a) As used in this section, the following words shall, unless the context clearly requires otherwise, have the following meanings:-

'Bonding or bond', to develop a psychological and emotional attachment between a child and his or her parent(s) or persons who stand in loco parentis.

'Child', a biological, adopted, or foster son or daughter, a stepson or stepdaughter, a legal ward, a son or daughter of a domestic partner, or a son or daughter of an employee who stands in loco parentis to that child.

'Department', the department of unemployment assistance.

'Employee', has the meaning described in section 1(h) of this chapter.

'Federal act', sections 101 to 105, inclusive, of the Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993, 29 U.S.C. sections 2611 to 2615, inclusive, as it may be amended.

'Newborn child', a child under one year of age."

'Parent', a biological, foster, or adoptive parent, a step-parent, a legal guardian, or other person who stands in loco parentis to the employee or the employee's spouse or domestic partner when he or she was a child.

'Persons who stand in loco parentis', persons with day-to-day responsibilities to care for and financially support a child. A biological or legal relationship is not required.

'Serious health condition', any illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition that involves inpatient care in a hospital, hospice, or residential healthcare facility, or continued treatment or continuing supervision by a licensed healthcare provider.

(b) An employee shall be eligible for temporary caregiver benefits if the employee meets the eligibility criteria for unemployment benefits under sections 24(a) and 24A of this chapter and for leave under the federal act; provided, however, that an employer may opt to waive the federal act eligibility criteria in a manner to be determined by the department.

(c) Temporary caregiver benefits are available for any week in which an employee is unable to perform his or her regular and customary work because he or she is:

(1) Bonding with a newborn child or a child newly placed for adoption or foster care with the employee; or

(2) Caring for a child, parent, parent-in-law, grandparent, or spouse, who has a serious health condition;

(d) Temporary caregiver benefits shall begin January 1, 2018 and be limited to a maximum of 4 weeks per calendar year. The benefit amount shall be calculated using the weekly benefit rate described in section 29 of this chapter. Temporary caregiver benefits shall be paid from the Unemployment Compensation Fund.

(e) If the necessity for temporary caregiver benefits under this section is foreseeable, the employee shall provide the employer and the department at least seven days' notice before the date the leave is to begin. If the necessity for leave is not foreseeable, the employee shall provide such notice as is practicable.

(f) An employer may require that a request for benefits under this section be supported by a certification issued at such time and in such manner as the attorney general may by regulation require.

(g) The prohibition on false statements or misrepresentations contained in section 47 of this chapter shall apply to the benefits provided for in this section.

(h) The department shall implement and enforce the provisions of this section. The department shall have the following powers and duties:

(1) To promulgate regulations relative to the operation of temporary caregiver benefits;

(2) To create all necessary applications and certificates to fulfill the purposes of the temporary caregiver program; and

(3) To disseminate information regarding the program and carry out a public education program to inform employees and employers about the availability of benefits under the temporary caregiver program."

After remarks, the amendment was rejected.

Ms. O'Connor Ives moved that the proposed new draft be amended by striking in section 8 in line 245 "employer and".

The amendment was rejected.

Ms. O'Connor Ives moved that the proposed new draft be amended by striking section 7.

The yeas and nays having been completed at sixteen minutes before three o'clock P.M., the bill was passed to be engrossed.
Sent to the House for concurrence.

The Senate Bill promoting restorative justice practices (Senate, No. 71),-- was read a second time. Pending the question on adoption of the amendment previously recommended by the committee on Ways and Means substituting a new draft with the same title (Senate, No. 2467), and pending the main question on ordering the bill to a third reading, on motion of Mr. Eldridge, the bill was recommitted to the committee on Ways and Means.

Recess.

There being no objection, at ten minutes before three o'clock P.M., at the request of Mr. Tarr, for the purpose of a minority caucus, the President declared a recess; and, at five minutes before six o'clock P.M., the Senate reassembled, the President in the Chair.

At four minutes before six o'clock P.M., Mr. Tarr doubted the presence of a quorum. The President having determined that a quorum was not in attendance, then directed the Sergeant-at-Arms to secure the presence of a quorum.

Subsequently, at two minutes before six o'clock P.M., a quorum was declared present.

There being no objection, during consideration of the Orders the Day, the following matters were considered as follows:

PAPERS FROM THE HOUSE

Engrossed Bills.

The following engrossed bills (the first of which originated in the Senate), having been certified by the Senate Clerk to be rightly and truly prepared for final passage, were severally passed to be enacted and were signed by the President and laid before the Governor for his approbation, to wit:

Authorizing the commissioner of capital asset management and maintenance to convey a certain parcel of land in the town of Concord (see Senate, No. 2272); and Authorizing the Division of Capital Asset Management and Maintenance to grant an easement in certain land to the city of Salem (see House, No. 3970, amended).

Engrossed Bills — Land Takings for Conservation Etc.

An engrossed Bill authorizing the town of Middleborough to exchange certain parcels of conservation land (see Senate, No. 2090, changed and amended) (which originated in the Senate), having been certified by the Senate Clerk to be rightly and truly prepared for final passage,-- was put upon its final passage; and, this being a bill providing for the taking of land or other easements used for conservation purposes, etc., as defined by Article XCVII of the Amendments to the Constitution, the question on passing it to be enacted was determined by a call of the yeas and nays, at fourteen minutes past six o'clock P.M., as follows, to wit (yeas 39 - nays 0) [Yeas and Nays No. 523]:

Emergency Preamble Adopted.

An engrossed Bill authorizing the Commissioner of Capital Asset Management and Maintenance to convey an easement over a certain parcel of land in the town of Dracut (see House, No. 4220), having been certified by the Senate Clerk to be rightly and truly prepared for final passage and containing an emergency preamble,-- was laid before the Senate; and, a separate vote being taken in accordance with the requirements of Article LXVII of the Amendments to the Constitution, the preamble was adopted in concurrence, by a vote of 28 to 0.

The bill was signed by the President and sent to the House for enactment.

Orders of the Day.

The Orders of the Day were considered, as follows:

There being no objection, one matter was taken out of order and considered, as follows:

The Senate Bill relative to the creative economy (Senate, No. 992),-- was read a second time.

After remarks, and pending the question on adoption of the amendment previously recommended by the committee on Ways and Means substituting a new draft with the same title (Senate, No. 2451), and pending the main question on ordering the bill to a third reading, Messrs. Rodrigues, Tarr, Ross, deMacedo, Fattman, Humason and OConnor moved that the proposed new draft be amended by striking section 1 and inserting the following sections:-

“SECTION 1. Section 148B of chapter 149 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2014 Official Edition, is hereby amended by inserting after the paragraph designation ‘(a)’ in line 1, the following numeral:- (1)

SECTION 2. Said section 148B of said chapter 149, as so appearing, is hereby further amended by inserting after the word ‘performed.’, in line 11, the following words:- (a)(2) An individual who has pre-registered as a payroll-taxpaying entity with the Department of Revenue and has attested that said registration is being provided ‘voluntarily and free from coercion by any person or entity’ shall be considered to have satisfied test (2) in (a)(1) above if the contract for work:

- (1) Provides compensation that equals or exceeds $30 per hour, or $1,200 per week, or $5,160 per month, or
- (2) Involves either: a) the provision of services requiring professional certification or licensure and the individual possesses such certification or licensure; or b) conducting business in a franchise relationship subject to the rules and regulations of the Federal Trade Commission, and the relationship complies with those rules and regulations, or
- (3) Provides for work that by occupational definition consistently requires any of the following: (a) exercise of discretion and independent judgment with respect to matters of significance; (b) advanced knowledge in a field of science or learning; or (c) invention, imagination, intellect, creativity, originality, or talent in a recognized field or artistic or creative endeavor, or
- (4) Grants the individual either ownership of or copyright to the work product.”

After debate, the question on adoption of the amendment was determined by a call of the yeas and nays at fourteen minutes past seven o’clock P.M., on motion of Mr. Tarr, as follows, to wit (yeas 11 – nays 29) [Yeas and Nays No. 537]:

The yeas and nays having been completed at a seventeen minutes past seven o'clock P.M., the amendment was rejected.

Messrs. Tarr, Wolf, deMacedo, Fattman, Humason, OConnor and Ross moved that the proposed new draft be amended by adding the following section:-

“SECTION 2. There shall be a task force to examine and make recommendations on the independent contractor classification in the commonwealth. The task force shall consist of: the senate and house chairs of the joint committee on labor and workforce development, who shall serve as co-chairs; the secretary of labor and workforce development or a designee; the attorney general or a designee; 2 members of the house of representatives, 1 of whom shall be appointed by the minority leader; 2 members of the senate, 1 of whom shall be appointed by the minority leader; 1 member representing Associated Industries of Massachusetts, Inc.; 1 member representing Associated Builders and Contractors, Inc.; 1 member representing Associated General Contractors of Massachusetts, Inc.; 1 member representing Associated Subcontractors of Massachusetts, Inc.; 1 member representing the Massachusetts Building Trades Council; 1 member representing the New England Regional Council of Carpenters; 1 member representing the Service Employees International Union; 1 member representing Massachusetts High Technology Council, Inc.; 1 member representing the National Federation of Independent Business; 1 member representing Greater Boston Legal Services, Inc.; 1 member representing Community Labor United, Inc.; 1 member representing the Massachusetts Artists Leaders Coalition; and 1 member representing the Massachusetts AFL-CIO.

The task force shall file a report containing its findings and recommendations, including draft legislation necessary to carry out its recommendations, with the clerks of the house of representatives and senate, the senate and house chairs of the joint committee on economic development and emerging technologies and the chairs of the house and senate committees on ways and means not later than June 31, 2017.”.

After debate, the amendment was adopted.

The Ways and Means amendment, as amended, was then adopted.

The bill (Senate, No. 2451, amended) was then ordered to a third reading, read a third time and passed to be engrossed. Sent to the House for concurrence.

Suspension of Senate Rule 38A.

Ms. Chandler moved that Senate Rule 38A be suspended to allow the Senate to meet beyond the hour of 8:00 P.M.; and the same Senator requested unanimous consent that the rules be suspended without a call of the yeas and nays. There being no objection, the motion was considered forthwith, and it was adopted.

Recess.

At twenty-seven minutes past seven o'clock P.M., at the request of Mr. Tarr, for the purpose of a minority caucus, the President declared a recess; and, at twenty-nine minutes before nine o'clock P.M., the Senate reassembled, the President in the Chair.

The yeas and nays having been completed at twenty-three minutes past nine o'clock P.M., item 4000-0014, contained in section 2, stands, in concurrence, notwithstanding the disapproval of His Excellency the Governor, two-thirds of the members present and voting having approved the same.

Item 4000-0300 (EOHHS and MassHealth Administration) was considered as follows:

4000-0300 For the operation of the executive office of health and human services, including the operation of the managed care oversight board; provided, that the executive office shall provide technical and administrative assistance to agencies under the purview of the secretariat receiving federal funds; provided further, that the executive office shall monitor the expenditures and completion timetables for systems development projects and enhancements undertaken by all agencies under the purview of the secretariat and shall ensure that all measures are taken to make such systems compatible with one another for enhanced interagency interaction; provided further, that the executive office shall ensure that any collaborative assessments for children receiving services from multiple agencies within the secretariat shall be performed within existing resources; provided further, that funds appropriated in this item shall be expended for administrative and contracted services related to the implementation and operation of programs under chapter 118E of the General Laws; provided further, that the executive office and its agencies, when contracting for services on the islands of Martha's Vineyard and Nantucket, shall take into consideration the increased costs associated with the provision of goods, services and housing on said islands; provided further, that the executive office shall contract with Martha's Vineyard Community Services, Inc. for no less than $100,000 to increase access to health and human services on Martha's Vineyard and Nantucket, and such funds shall be used to cover feasible travel costs associated with arranging access to health and human services; provided further, that in consultation with the center for health information and analysis, no rate increase shall be provided to existing Medicaid provider rates without taking all measures possible under Title XIX of the Social Security Act to ensure that rates of payment to providers shall not exceed the rates that are necessary to meet only those costs which shall be incurred by efficiently and economically operated providers in order to provide services of adequate quality; provided further, that funds may be expended for the operation of the office of health equity within the executive office of health and human services; provided further, that not less than $25,000 shall be provided to Baystate Noble Hospital, a federal and state disproportionate share hospital that is geographically isolated, to make extensive improvements to the existing entranceway access for all patients, especially those challenged with disabilities, provided that such funds are matched by an equal or greater amount by Baystate Noble Hospital; provided further, that no expenditures, whether made by the executive office or another commonwealth entity, shall be made that are not federally reimbursable, including those related to Titles XIX or XXI of the Social Security Act, the MassHealth demonstration waiver under section 1115(a) of the Social Security Act or the community first demonstration waiver under section 1115 of the Social Security Act except as required for: (a) the equivalent of MassHealth standard benefits for children under 21 years of age who are in the care or custody of the department of youth services or the department of children and families; (b) dental benefits provided to clients of the department of developmental services who are 21 years of age or over; or (c) cost containment efforts, the purposes and amounts of which have been submitted to the executive office for administration and finance and the house and senate committees on ways and means 30 days before making these expenditures; provided further, that in calculating rates of payment for children enrolled in MassHealth receiving inpatient and outpatient services at acute care pediatric hospitals and pediatric specialty units as defined in section 8A of said chapter 118E, the executive office shall make a supplemental payment not less than $7,400,000 to any acute care pediatric hospital and pediatric specialty unit in the commonwealth, above base rates, to compensate for high-complexity pediatric care; provided further, that the executive office of health and human services may continue to recover provider overpayments made in the current and prior fiscal years through the Medicaid management information system, and these recoveries shall be considered current fiscal year expenditure refunds; provided further, that the office of Medicaid shall apply an add-on to reimburse the managed care organizations and senior care organizations under contract with the commonwealth for the full costs associated with the Affordable Care Act's annual insurer fee, as specified in the Affordable Care Act, 26 USC 4001(a); provided further, that the add-on shall be exclusive of any additional rate increase currently being proposed for fiscal year 2017; provided further, that subject to the availability of federal financial participation, the add-on shall include the related tax liability for the annual insurer fee; provided further, that MassHealth shall provide a report not later than March 1, 2017 to the house and senate committees on ways and means and the joint committee on health care financing on the amount of reimbursement of the Affordable Care Act's insurer fee and the related tax liability and the methodology for calculating the reimbursement to the managed care organizations and senior care organizations; provided further, that the executive office of health and human services may continue to recover provider overpayments made in the current and prior fiscal years through the Medicaid management information system and those recoveries shall be considered current fiscal year expenditure refunds; provided further, that the executive office may collect directly from a liable third party any amounts paid to contracted providers under said chapter 118E for which the executive office later discovers another third party is liable if no other course of recoupment is possible; provided further, that no funds shall be expended for interpretive services directly or indirectly related to a settlement or resolution agreement with the office of civil rights or any other office, group or entity; provided further, that interpretive services currently provided shall not give rise to enforceable legal rights for any party or to an enforceable entitlement to interpretive services; provided further, that notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, the commissioner of mental health shall approve any prior authorization or other restriction on medication used to treat mental illness under written policies, procedures and regulations of the department of mental health; provided further, that funds shall be provided in an amount not less than the total appropriated in item 1599-2009 in section 2 of chapter 182 of the acts of 2008; provided further, that the executive office of health and human services shall report to the house and senate committees on ways and means not later than January 13, 2017 on the number of members served in the dual eligible initiative, the average expenditure per member, the average expenditure per member prior to the demonstration project and the number of clients that receive care at skilled nursing facilities; provided further, that the executive office shall submit a report not later than December 1, 2016 to the house and senate committees on ways and means and the joint committee on health care financing detailing utilization in fiscal year 2016 of the Health Safety Net Trust Fund established in section 66 of said chapter 118E; provided further, that the report shall include: (a) the number of persons whose medical expenses were billed to the Health Safety Net Trust Fund; (b) the total dollar amount billed to the Health Safety Net Trust Fund; (c) the age, income level, and insurance status of recipients using the Health Safety Net Trust Fund; (d) the types of services paid for out of the Health Safety Net Trust Fund; and (e) the amount disbursed from the Health Safety Net Trust Fund to each hospital and community health center; provided further, that the office of Medicaid shall coordinate with the health policy commission in the development of care delivery and payment models in the MassHealth program, including patient-centered medical homes and accountable care organizations, in order to ensure alignment of such models with the commission's certification programs under sections 14 and 15 of chapter 6D of the General Laws; provided further, that any unexpended balance in these accounts shall revert to the General Fund on June 30, 2017; provided further, that not later than January 18, 2017, the executive office of health and human services shall submit a report to the house and senate committees on ways and means detailing the methodology used to project caseload and utilization in fiscal year 2016 and fiscal year 2017; provided further, that not later than December 1, 2016, the executive office of health and human services, in coordination with the department of public health and the office of Medicaid, shall report to the house and senate committees on ways and means on a plan to expand lead testing and follow-up services, including but not limited to: (a) a review of all services currently offered for lead poisoning-related services; (b) a plan of implementation for expanded lead poisoning-related services, including steps required to increase reimbursement opportunities for services such as lead poisoning testing, prevention, follow-up, investigation and treatment; (c) spending and revenue cost estimates for implementing such expanded services; (d) revenue maximization opportunities associated with pursuing such services; and (e) an analysis of the short- and long-term cost effectiveness associated with providing such services; provided further, that the executive office of health and human services shall expend not less than $50,000 to develop a pilot program in Norfolk county to incentivize independent home health care nurses to work with patients with rare diseases and disorders including, but not limited to, Rett Syndrome and mitochondrial diseases; and provided further, that in the development of the program, the executive office shall review the reimbursement rates for independent home care nurses and consider restructuring the rate system so that independent home care nurses who agree to treat patients with more severe needs shall be compensated at a higher rate; provided further, that $50,000 shall be expended for the direct payroll costs of a MassHealth liaison to the trial court who shall be responsible for the administration of health insurance benefits for participants in the specialty courts; provided further, that MassHealth shall establish a direct phone number for court employees who serve participants of specialty courts to use in contacting MassHealth regarding enrollment and other benefits' issues for participants and MassHealth shall notify the specialty courts administrator with the direct contact number and other pertinent information within 30 days after the effective date of this item; provided further, that no less than $100,000 shall be expended for The MetroWest Free Medical Program, Inc.; and provided further, that not less than $250,000 shall be expended for the Brookline Community Mental Health Center, Inc. to expand the healthy lives program.....$100,501,087.

The Governor reduced this item by $2,791,439 and struck the following wording "; provided further, that the executive office shall contract with Martha's Vineyard Community Services, Inc. for no less than $100,000 to increase access to health and human services on Martha's Vineyard and Nantucket, and such funds shall be used to cover feasible travel costs associated with arranging access to health and human services" and "; provided further, that not less than $25,000 shall be provided to Baystate Noble Hospital, a federal and state disproportionate share hospital that is geographically isolated, to make extensive improvements to the existing entranceway access for all patients, especially those challenged with disabilities, provided that such funds are matched by an equal or greater amount by Baystate Noble Hospital" and "; provided further, that in calculating rates of payment for children enrolled in MassHealth receiving inpatient and

At the request of the President, members, staff and guests stood in a moment of silence to remember in our thoughts and prayers those who lost their lives to gun violence.

Matters Taken Out of the Notice Section of the Calendar.

There being no objection, the following matters were taken out of the Notice Section of the Calendar and considered as follows:

The House Bill authorizing the change of use of certain park land in the town of South Hadley (House, No. 4379, amended),-- was read a third time and passed to be engrossed, in concurrence.

The House Bill authorizing the city of Springfield to convert certain park land at Emerson Wight Park (House, No. 4302),-- was read second time, ordered to a third reading, read a third time and passed to be engrossed, in concurrence.

The House Bill authorizing the City of Springfield to transfer certain property to Habitat for Humanity (House, No. 3948),-- was read a third time.

Pending the question on passing the bill to be engrossed, Mr. Welch moved that the bill be amended by inserting after the word "contrary", in line 2, the following words:- "but subject to paragraphs (a), (b) and (g) of said section 16 of said chapter 30B".

The amendment was adopted.

The bill, as amended, was then passed to be engrossed, in concurrence, with the amendment, its title having been changed by the committee on Bills in the Third Reading to read as follows: "An Act authorizing the city of Springfield to convey a certain parcel of real property to the Greater Springfield Habitat for Humanity".

Sent to the House for concurrence in the amendment.

The House Bill authorizing the town of Weston to transfer certain parcels of recreation land from the recreation commission to the conservation commission (House, No. 4508) (its title having been changed by the committee on Bills in the Third Reading),-- was read a third time and passed to be engrossed, in concurrence.

The House Bill authorizing the Department of Fish and Game to grant an easement to the town of Bourne in exchange for a conservation restriction on town land (House, No. 4516) (its title having been changed by the committee on Bills in the Third Reading),-- was read a third time and passed to be engrossed, in concurrence.

PAPER FROM THE HOUSE

A Bill authorizing the town of Weston to transfer certain recreation land known as Cat Rock (House, No. 4507, amended,-- on petition),-- was read.

There being no objection, the rules were suspended, on motion of Ms. L'Italien and the bill was read a second time, ordered to a third reading, read a third time and passed to be engrossed, in concurrence.

A Bill authorizing the Division of Capital Asset Management and Maintenance to grant certain easements to the New England Power Company (House, No. 4388, amended,-- on petition),-- was read.

There being no objection, the rules were suspended, on motion of Ms. Spilka and the bill was read a second time, ordered to a third reading, read a third time and passed to be engrossed, in concurrence, its title having been changed by the committee on Bills in the Third Reading to read as follows: "An Act authorizing the Division of Capital Asset Management and Maintenance to grant certain easements in the town of Grafton to the New England Power Company".

Order Adopted.

On motion of Mr. Tarr,--

Ordered, That when the Senate adjourns today, it adjourn to meet tomorrow next at twelve o'clock noon, in a full formal session without a calendar.

Adjourn In Memory of former Representative John H. Flood.

The Senator from Norfolk, Bristol and Plymouth, Mr. Joyce moves that when the Senate adjourns today it does so in memory of former State Representative and Norfolk County Sheriff, John H. "Jack" Flood.

A graduate of Northeastern University and Suffolk University Law School, Mr. Flood dedicated his life to public service. He proudly served his nation in the United States Navy, and his state as a public defender and as the State Representative for Canton and Randolph. A gubernatorial and senatorial candidate, Jack was later named Sheriff of Norfolk County by Governor Weld. As Sheriff, Jack implemented groundbreaking programs to assist inmates with addiction issues. He ended his distinguished public career as the Director of Substance Abuse Services for the Massachusetts Department of Corrections.

Jack is survived by his beloved wife of 49 years, Brenda Flood of Norton, and his daughters Amy E. Fisher and her husband Neal of Walpole, Katy F. Risher and her husband Dan of Sterling, Virginia, Kerry A. Flood of Norton, Nancy N. Flood of Roslindale, and Mary F. Mahon and her husband Brian of Fairfield, Connecticut, and his grandchildren Alison, Kelly, Megan, Johnny, Liam, Declan, Claire, and Eamonn. He is also survived by his brother Daniel J. Flood of Canton and his sister Ellen Stonis of Punta Gorda, Florida.

Accordingly, as a mark of respect in memory of John H. "Jack" Flood, at seventeen minutes past ten o'clock P.M., on motion of Mr. Tarr, the Senate adjourned to meet again tomorrow at twelve o'clock noon.
