

HOUSE No. 2259

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Nine

An Act relative to civil rights and public safety..

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section one hundred twenty-one of chapter one hundred and forty of the 2 General Laws is hereby amended by deleting the section in its entirety and replacing it with the 3 following:-

4 Section 121. No county, municipality, township or other community entity within the 5 Commonwealth of Massachusetts may enact, pass or enforce any law, ordinance or regulation 6 concerning the lawful ownership, use, possession, transfer, purchase, receipt or transportation of 7 firearms, antique firearms, ammunition or ammunition components.

8 The right to keep and bear arms as an individual civil right shall be presumed to exist in 9 all matters regarding the ownership, use, possession, transfer, purchase, receipt or transportation
10 of firearms, antique firearms, ammunition or ammunition components unless expressly 11 prohibited by the laws of this Commonwealth.

12 SECTION 2. Section one hundred twenty-one A of chapter one hundred and forty 13 of the General Laws is hereby repealed.

SECTION 3. Section one hundred twenty-two of chapter one hundred and forty of the General Laws is hereby amended by deleting the section in its entirety and replacing it with the following:-

Section 122. As used in sections 122 to 129D inclusive, the following words shall, unless the context clearly requires otherwise, have the following meanings:-

“Ammunition”, ammunition or cartridge cases, primers, bullets, or propellant powder designed for use in any firearm.

“Antique Firearm”, shall mean

(A) any firearm manufactured in or prior to the year 1899;

(B) any replica of any firearm described in clause (A) if such replica: (i) is not designed or redesigned for using rimfire or conventional centerfire cartridges; or (ii) uses rimfire or conventional centerfire cartridges which are no longer manufactured in the United States and which are not readily available in the ordinary channels of commercial trade.

“Conviction”, a finding or verdict of guilt or a plea of guilty, whether or not final sentence is imposed. Any conviction which has been expunged, or set aside or for which a person has been pardoned or has had civil rights restored shall not be considered a conviction for purposes of this chapter, unless such pardon, expungement, or restoration of civil rights expressly provides that the person may not ship, transport, possess, or receive firearms.

“Crime of Violence”, shall mean any convictions listed within this definition that: (i) has as an element the use, attempted use or threatened use of physical force or a deadly weapon against the person of another; (ii) is home invasion, extortion, arson or kidnapping; (iii) involves the use of explosives; or (iv) otherwise involves conduct that presents a serious risk of physical injury to another.

(1) any crime punishable by imprisonment for a term exceeding one year for which a committed term of imprisonment has been served after sentencing has been carried out;

(2) any misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment for more than two years for which a committed term of imprisonment has been served after sentencing has been carried out; or

(3) any act of juvenile delinquency involving the use or possession of a deadly weapon that resulted in the bodily harm of another and would be punishable by imprisonment for more than one year for such term if committed by an adult.

“Firearm”, any weapon which will, or is designed to, or may readily be converted to, expel a projectile by the action of a propellant; or the frame of any such weapon. Such term does not include an antique firearm. This term shall be meant to include a rifle, shotgun or handgun.

“Handgun”, a firearm which has a short stock and is designed to be held and fired by the use of a single hand.

“Imitation firearm”, any weapon which is designed, manufactured or altered in such a way as to render it incapable of discharging a shot or bullet.

“Legal Alien”, any person who is not a citizen of the United States who is legally residing in or visiting the United States.

“Length of barrel” or “barrel length”, that portion of a firearm, rifle, shotgun or machine gun through which a shot or bullet is driven, guided or stabilized and shall include the chamber.

“Local Licensing Agent”, the chief of police or the board or officer having control of the police in a city or town, or persons authorized by them and shall be accountable to the Secretary of Public Safety for the lawful issuance of firearm identification cards.

“Machinegun”, any weapon which shoots, is designed to shoot, or can be readily restored to shoot, automatically more than one shot, without manual reloading, by a single function of the trigger. The term shall also include the frame or receiver of any such weapon, any part designed and intended solely and exclusively, or combination of parts designed and intended, for use in converting a weapon into a machinegun, and any combination of parts from which a machinegun can be assembled if such parts are in the possession or under the control of a person.

“Non-resident”, any person being a citizen of the United States whose legal residence is outside of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

“Prohibited Person”, any person who:

(1) is under indictment in any court for a crime punishable by imprisonment for a term exceeding one year;

(2) has been convicted of a crime of violence;

(3) has been convicted of a crime punishable by imprisonment for a term exceeding one year that is not a crime of violence for which a committed term of imprisonment has been served after sentencing has been carried out;

(4) has been convicted of a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment for more than two years that is not a crime of violence for which a committed term of imprisonment has been served after sentencing has been carried out;

(5) is a fugitive from justice;

(6) is an unlawful user of or addicted to any controlled substance;

(7) has been adjudicated as a mental defective;

(8) has been involuntarily committed to any mental institution;

(9) is an illegal alien;

(10) has been discharged from the military under dishonorable conditions;

(11) has renounced his or her United States citizenship;

(12) is currently subject to a court order restraining the person from harassing, stalking, or threatening an intimate partner or child of the intimate partner; no such order that has expired for which there was no conviction of a violation of such order shall be considered a disqualifier; or

(13) has been convicted of a misdemeanor crime of domestic violence, as defined in 18 USC 921 (a)(33).

When determining the status of a prohibited person in regards to convictions, the determination shall only be made using the penalties in place at the time of conviction.

92 “Rifle”, means a weapon intended to be fired from the shoulder and designed,
93 redesigned, made or remade to use the energy of a chemical propellant to fire only a single 94 projectile through a rifled bore for each single pull of the trigger.

95 “Shotgun”, a firearm intended to be fired from the shoulder and designed, redesigned,
96 made or remade to use the energy of a chemical propellant to fire through a smooth bore either a
97 number of ball shot or a single projectile for each single pull of the trigger.

98 “State Licensing Authority”, the Secretary of Public Safety, who shall be responsible
99 for the oversight of the issuance of Firearm Identification Cards and shall have direct authority
100 over all local licensing agents in regards to the issuance of cards and the application process 101 therefore.

102 SECTION 4.. Section one hundred twenty-two A of chapter one hundred and 103 forty of the General Laws is hereby repealed.

104 SECTION 5. Section one hundred twenty-two B of chapter one hundred and forty 105 of the General Laws is hereby amended by deleting the section in its entirety and replacing it
106 with the following:-

107 Section 122B. Any applicant or holder aggrieved by a denial, revocation or suspension
108 of a firearm identification card, unless a hearing has previously been held pursuant to chapter
109 209A, may, within either 90 days after receipt of notice of such denial, revocation or suspension 110 or within 90 days after the expiration of the time limit in which the local licensing agent is 111 required to respond to the applicant, file a petition to obtain judicial review in the district court
112 having jurisdiction in the city or town wherein the applicant filed for or was issued such card. A 113 justice of such court, after a hearing and a finding of the facts, shall determine if the petitioner is

114 presently eligible for a firearm identification card. If the justice finds in favor of the petitioner, 115 said justice shall order the local licensing agent to issue the firearms identification card to the 116 petitioner within 10 days. The local licensing agent shall have no right to appeal the decision of a
117 court order to issue said card. A refusal to issue said card by the local licensing agent shall place 118 the local licensing agent in contempt of court.

119 SECTION 6. Section one hundred twenty-three of chapter one hundred and forty 120 of the General Laws is hereby amended by deleting the section in its entirety and replacing it
121 with the following:-

122 Section 123. A firearm identification card shall be issued and possessed subject to 123 the following conditions and restrictions:

124 (1) Any person residing or having a place of business within the jurisdiction of the 125 local licensing agent or any person residing in an area of exclusive federal jurisdiction located
126 within a city or town may submit to the local licensing agent an application for a firearm 127 identification card, or renewal of the same, which the local licensing agent shall issue unless the 128 applicant has been deemed to be a prohibited person as defined in section 122.

129 (2) Upon receiving an application for a firearm identification card, the local licensing
130 agent or person accepting applications on behalf of the local licensing agent shall immediately 131 issue a receipt form for said application. Said form shall be made standard and supplied by the 132 firearms record bureau.

133 (3) Within seven days of the receipt of a completed application for a firearm
134 identification card, the local licensing agent shall forward one copy of the application and one 135 copy of the applicant's fingerprints to the Firearms Record Bureau. The taking of fingerprints shall not be required in issuing the renewal of a card if the renewal applicant's fingerprints are on file with the Firearms Record Bureau. The Firearms Record Bureau shall within 15 days advise the local licensing agent, in writing, of the applicant's status as a prohibited person. If the information from Firearms Record Bureau does not state in writing that the applicant is a prohibited person, the local licensing agent shall, within 30 days from the date of application, issue the firearm identification card.

(4) If the applicant is determined to be a prohibited person, the local licensing agent shall, within 30 days from the date of application, issue the applicant a denial/revocation form. This form shall be made standard in form and supplied by the Firearm Record Bureau. The denial/revocation form shall include the applicant's personal information, date of denial, a copy of their prohibited person file, prohibited person file number and the relevant information regarding an appeal as a prohibited person under section 122B.

(5) The local licensing agent, or any government entity, may not prescribe any other condition for the issuance of a firearm identification card not specified within this section.

(6) A firearm identification card shall be revoked or suspended by the local licensing agent or his designee upon receiving notice from the Firearms Record Bureau that the card holder has become a prohibited person.

(7) Upon revocation of a Firearm Identification Card, the local licensing agent shall take possession of such card and the person whose card is so revoked or suspended shall take all action required under the provisions of section 125. No appeal or post-judgment motion shall operate to stay such revocation. A revoked or suspended card may be reinstated when it is determined by the Firearms Record Bureau that the card holder or applicant is no longer a prohibited person.

(9) A firearm identification card shall be valid for all lawful purposes subject to the following age based restrictions:

(a) A firearm identification card holder aged 15 through 17 shall be entitled to borrow, possess, carry, or transport any rifle or shotgun;

(b) A firearm identification card holder aged 18 through 20 shall be entitled to purchase, own, rent, lease, borrow, possess, carry, transfer or transport any rifle or shotgun;

(c) A firearm identification card holder aged 21 and over shall be entitled to purchase, own, rent, lease, borrow, possess, transport, carry, transfer or carry concealed any firearm;

(10) A firearm identification card shall be provided by the Firearm Record Bureau board and shall be standard in a size and shape equivalent to that of a license to operate motor vehicles issued by the registry of motor vehicles pursuant to section 8 of chapter 90 and shall contain an identification number, name, address, photograph, place and date of birth, height, weight, hair color, eye color and signature of the cardholder and shall be marked "Firearm Identification Card".

(11) The application for such card shall be made in a standard form provided by the Firearm Record Bureau. The application shall not require the applicant to divulge to any person not directly involved with the licensing process under this section that they are applying for a firearm identification card, nor shall the application require that the applicant supply any letters of reference. Any applicant shall have the right to file an amended application if it is found that

178 the applicant did not correctly understand the questions being asked. No applicant shall be 179 denied a firearms identification card because of the need to submit an amended application. The 180 local licensing agent may not prescribe any other condition for the issuance of a firearm
181 identification card.

182 (12) Any person who knowingly files an application containing false information with 183 the expressed intent to deceive the local licensing agent shall be punished by a fine of not less 184 than $500 nor more than $5,000.

185 (13) A Firearm Identification Card shall be valid for a period of not less than 6 years
186 from the date of issue, except that if the cardholder applied for renewal before the card expired,
187 the card shall remain valid until revoked or renewed. A card issued on February 29 shall expire
188 on March 1.

189 (14) The Firearms Record Bureau shall send by first class mail to the holder of a 190 firearm identification card, a notice of the expiration of the card not less than 120 days before its 191 expiration, and shall enclose with the notice a form for the renewal of the card. The Firearms
192 Record Bureau shall include in the notice all pertinent information about the penalties that may 193 be imposed if the firearm identification card is not renewed.

194 (15) The fee for an application for a firearm identification card shall be $40, which 195 shall be payable to the city or town of the local licensing agent and shall not be prorated or 196 refunded in the case of revocation or denial.

197 (16) Any person of the age of 70 upon filing for a renewal shall be exempt from the 198 requirement of paying a renewal fee for a firearm identification card. All fees for an application

199 for a renewal of a firearm identification card shall be prorated if it is determined that the 200 applicant will turn 70 years of age during the upcoming license term.

201 (17) A cardholder shall notify, in writing, the Firearms Record Bureau of any change
202 of address. Such notification shall be made by certified mail accompanied with a five dollar fee
203 within 30 days of its occurrence. Upon receipt of the notification and fee, the Firearms Record
204 Bureau shall send the card holder a new card reflecting the reported change of address. A 205 cardholder who fails to complete such notification shall be fined not more than $100.

206 (18) Upon issuance of a firearm identification card under this section, the local 207 licensing agent shall forward a copy of such approved application and card to the Firearms
208 Record Bureau, who shall inform the local licensing agent forthwith of the existence of any 209 disqualifying condition discovered or occurring subsequent to the issuance of a firearm
210 identification card under this section.

211 (19) Nothing in this section shall authorize the purchase, possession or transfer of any 212 firearm or ammunition that is prohibited by state or federal law.

213 (20) In the case of loss, theft or recovery of any firearm or machine gun, a written 214 report shall be made forthwith by the card holder to both the Firearms Record Bureau and the 215 local licensing agent in the city or town where the owner resides.

216 (21) Transition. Any license to carry a firearm or firearms identification card that is 217 not expired, suspended or revoked at the time of passage of this act shall be deemed to be a 218 firearms identification card as described in this section. All licenses to carry a firearm shall be 219 deemed to have no restrictions, upon passage of this act.

(22) The secretary of the executive office of public safety, or his designee, may promulgate regulations to carry out the purposes of this section.

SECTION 7. Chapter 140 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after section 123 the following section:-

Section 123B. (a) Whoever, not being a prohibited person as defined in Section 122, except as provided or exempted by statute, knowingly has in his possession; or knowingly has under his control in a vehicle; a firearm, loaded or unloaded, as defined in Section 122 and whose firearm identification card issued under section 124 is invalid for the sole reason that it has expired shall be subject to a civil fine of not less than $100 nor more than $500. Such fine shall not be issued if the card holder can produce evidence of a renewal is in process.

(b) Whoever, not being a prohibited person as defined in Section 122, except as provided or exempted by statute, knowingly has in his possession, or knowingly has under his control in a vehicle, a firearm, loaded or unloaded, as defined in Section 122 without either:

(i) being present in or on his residence or place of business; or

(ii) having in effect a firearm identification card issued under section one hundred twenty-three; or

(iii) having complied with the provisions of sections one hundred and twenty-four, one hundred twenty-eight or one hundred twenty-eight A;

shall be subject to a civil fine of not less than $500 nor more than $5000.

SECTION 8. Section one hundred twenty-four of chapter one hundred and forty of the General Laws is hereby amended by deleting the section in its entirety and replacing it with the following:-

Section 124. No person, other than a federally licensed dealer or one who has been issued a firearm identification card or an exempt person as hereinafter described, shall own or possess any firearm or ammunition.

No person shall sell, give away, loan or otherwise transfer a firearm or ammunition other than: (1) by operation of law; (2) to an exempt person as hereinafter described; (3) to a federally licensed dealer; or (4) to a person who displays his firearm identification card.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to the following exempted persons and uses:

(a) Any device used exclusively for signaling or distress use and required or recommended by the United States Coast Guard or the Interstate Commerce Commission, or for the firing of stud cartridges, explosive rivets or similar industrial ammunition;

(b) Federally licensed firearms manufacturers or wholesale dealers, or persons employed by them or by licensed dealers, or on their behalf, when possession of firearms is necessary for manufacture, display, storage, transport, installation, inspection or testing;

(c) To a person voluntarily surrendering a firearm and ammunition therefor to a local licensing agent, the colonel of the state police or his designee if prior written notice has been given by said person to the local licensing agent or the colonel of the state police, stating the place and approximate time of said surrender;

260 (d) The regular and ordinary transport of firearms as merchandise by any common 261 carrier;

262 (e) Possession by retail customers for the purpose of firing at duly licensed target
263 concessions at amusement parks, piers and similar locations, provided that the firearms to be so 264 used are firmly chained or affixed to the counter and that the proprietor is in possession of a 265 firearm identification card;

266 (f) Possession of firearms and ammunition therefor by nonresident hunters with valid
267 nonresident hunting licenses during hunting season;

268 (g) Possession of firearms and ammunition therefor by nonresidents while on a firing
269 or shooting range;

270 (h) Possession of firearms and ammunition therefor by nonresidents traveling in or 271 through the commonwealth, providing that any firearms are unloaded and enclosed in a locked 272 case or trunk;

273 (i) Possession of firearms by nonresidents while at a firearm showing or display
274 organized by a regularly existing gun collectors' club or association;

275 (j) Any new resident moving into the commonwealth for a period of 180 days, or any 276 resident of the commonwealth upon being released from active service with any of the armed 277 services of the United States with respect to any firearm and any ammunition therefor then in his 278 possession, for no less than 180 days or such time as may be needed to complete the process for 279 receiving a firearm identification card after such release, return or entry into the commonwealth;

(k) Any person under the age of fifteen with respect to the use of a firearm by such person in hunting, provided that such use is otherwise permitted by law and is under the immediate supervision of a person holding a firearm identification card,

(l) A non-profit corporation, organized for educational purposes, may possess firearms, provided that any such possession, or utilization of those firearms, is under the immediate supervision of a holder of a firearm identification card;

(m) The temporary holding, handling or firing of a firearm for examination, trial or instruction in the presence of a holder of a firearm identification card, or a duly commissioned officer, noncommissioned officer or enlisted member of the United States Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Air Force or Coast Guard, or the National Guard or military service of the commonwealth or reserve components thereof, while in the performance of his duty, or where such holding, handling or firing is for a lawful purpose;

(n) A person acting as an executor of an estate containing firearms, or any person inheriting firearms, shall obtain a Firearm Identification Card within 180 days or such time as may be needed to complete the process to obtain a firearms identification card. The executor, or person inheriting firearms, may transfer said firearms to a federally licensed dealer;

(o) Persons in the military or other service of any state or of the United States, and police officers and other peace officers of any jurisdiction, in the performance of their official duty or when duly authorized to possess them;

(p) Carrying or possession by residents or nonresidents of an antique firearm as defined in section 122.

301 (q) The carrying or possession of conventional rifles, shotguns, and ammunition
302 therefor by nonresidents who meet the requirements for such carrying or possession in the state
303 in which they reside.

304 (r) Possession by a veteran's organization chartered by the Congress of the United 305 States, chartered by the commonwealth or recognized as a nonprofit tax-exempt organization by 306 the Internal Revenue Service and possession by the members of any such organization when on 307 official parade duty or ceremonial occasions.

308 (s) Possession by federal, state and local historical societies, museums, and 309 institutional collections open to the public, provided such firearms, rifles or shotguns are 310 unloaded, properly housed and secured from unauthorized handling;

311 (t) The possession of firearms, machine guns and ammunition, by banks or 312 institutional lenders, or their agents, servants or employees, when the same are possessed as 313 collateral for a secured commercial transaction or as a result of a default under a secured 314 commercial transaction.

315 (u) Any nonresident who is eighteen years of age or older at the time of acquiring a 316 rifle or shotgun from a federally licensed firearms dealer; provided however, that such 317 nonresident must meet the licensing or possession requirements, if any, of their state of 318 residence.

319 Nothing in this section shall permit the sale of any rifle or shotgun therefor to a minor
320 under the age of eighteen nor may any handgun be sold to a person under the age of twenty-one 321 nor to any person who does not possess a valid firearm identification card.

Any person who, while not being within the limits of his own property or residence, or such person whose property or residence is under lawful search, and who is not exempt under this section, shall on demand of a police officer or other law enforcement officer, exhibit his firearm identification card or receipt for renewal application for such card, or exhibit a valid hunting license issued to him which shall bear the number officially inscribed of such firearm identification card if any. Upon failure to do so, such person may be required to surrender to such officer said firearm which shall be taken into custody as under the provisions of section one hundred and twenty-five, except that such firearm shall be returned forthwith upon presentation within thirty days of said firearm identification card or receipt for fee paid for such card or hunting license as hereinbefore described. Any person subject to the conditions of this paragraph may, even though no firearm was surrendered, be required to produce within thirty days said firearm identification card or receipt for fee paid for such card, or said hunting license, failing which the conditions of section one hundred and twenty-five will apply. Nothing in this section shall prevent any person from being prosecuted for any violation of this chapter.

SECTION 9. Section one hundred twenty-five of chapter one hundred and forty of the General Laws is hereby amended by deleting the section in its entirety and replacing it with the following:-

Section 125. (a) Upon revocation or suspension of a firearm identification card, or of any machine gun license, the person whose card was so revoked or suspended shall without delay deliver or surrender to the local licensing agent, all firearms, machine guns and ammunition which he then possesses.

(b) Upon denial of an application for a firearm identification card, or of any machine gun license, the person whose application was so denied shall without delay deliver or surrender to the local licensing agent, all firearms, machine guns and ammunition which he then possesses.

Upon such delivery or surrender as described in paragraph (a) or (b) the local licensing agent shall issue an itemized receipt of said property to the owner, or their legal representative, at the time of said delivery or surrender. Due care shall be observed by the local licensing agent in the receipt and holding of any such firearm, rifle, shotgun or machine gun and ammunition.

Any such person as described in paragraph (a) or (b), or his legal representative, having delivered or surrendered any firearms, machine guns and ammunition to the local licensing agent shall have the right to transfer his property to any federally licensed firearms dealer or any other person legally permitted to take possession of such firearms, machine guns and ammunition. Upon written notification by the owner, the local licensing agent shall within ten days deliver such firearms, machine guns and ammunition to the transferee. Any such request for transfer of such property must take place within one year of said delivery or surrender.

The local licensing agent, after taking possession of any firearm, machine gun or ammunition by any means, may transfer possession of such firearm or machine gun for storage purposes to a federally licensed dealer. The local licensing agent shall be liable to such dealer for reasonable storage charges. If the property is not transferred as described in this section within one year after such delivery or surrender, the local licensing agent may dispose of any such firearm, machine gun or ammunition as provided under this section. Any such dealer that takes possession of a weapon under the provisions of this section shall: (i) inspect such firearm or machine gun; (ii) issue to the owner a receipt indicating the make, model, caliber, serial number and condition of each firearm or machine gun so received; and (iii) store and maintain all firearms or machine guns so received in accordance with such regulations, rules or guidelines as the secretary of the executive office of public safety may establish under this section.

The local licensing agent shall not transfer any firearm or machine gun that was used or was suspected of being used in the commission of a crime and is evidence in any current or pending criminal case.

Firearms, machine guns and ammunition not transferred at the request of the owner within one year after delivery or surrender according to the provisions of this section shall be sold at public auction by the colonel of the state police to the highest bidding person legally permitted to purchase and possess said firearms, machine guns and ammunition and the proceeds shall be remitted to the state treasurer. Any funds derived from such auction shall be used to fund the Criminal Firearms and Trafficking Division as described in Section 9C of Chapter 269.

The secretary of the executive office of public safety may make and promulgate such rules and regulations as are necessary to carry out the provisions of this section.

SECTION 10. Section one hundred twenty-six of chapter one hundred and forty of the General Laws is hereby amended by deleting the section in its entirety and replacing it with the following:-

Section 126. Any government agency, building or facility that restricts access to a citizen lawfully carrying a firearm shall provide, free of charge, a means for securely storing any firearm(s) possessed by a holder of a firearms identification card who wishes to enter the building or facility.

SECTION 11. Section one hundred twenty-seven of chapter one hundred and forty of the General Laws is hereby amended by deleting the section in its entirety and replacing it with the following:-

Section 127. No person carrying a loaded firearm under a Firearm Identification Card issued under section 123 shall carry the same in a vehicle unless such firearm while carried therein is under the direct control of such person. Whoever violates the provisions of this subsection shall be punished by a fine of not less than $50 nor more than $500.

SECTION 12. Section one hundred twenty-eight of chapter one hundred and forty of the General Laws is hereby amended by deleting the section in its entirety and replacing it with the following:-

Section 128. Any nonresident or any person not falling within the jurisdiction of a local licensing agent, who is not a prohibited person as defined in section 122 of this chapter may apply to the colonel of the state police for a Firearm Identification Card. Upon the determination that the applicant is not a prohibited person, the colonel of state police, or persons authorized by him, shall issue said card to the applicant. The fee for such card shall be $40 and the card shall be valid for not less than six years.

SECTION 13. Section one hundred twenty-eight A of chapter one hundred and forty of the General laws is hereby amended by deleting the section in its entirety and replacing it with the following:-

Section 128A. Any person who is not a resident of the commonwealth may carry a firearm in or through the commonwealth for the purpose of taking part in a firearm competition or attending any meeting or exhibition of any organized group of firearm collectors or for the 409 purpose of hunting; provided, that such person is a citizen of the United States and is lawfully 410 able to do so in their state of residence, district or territory of residence.

411 Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, any lawful citizen may 412 transport or carry firearms through the Commonwealth in accordance with federal law.

413 Law enforcement officers and other peace officers, who are not a prohibited person, of 414 any state, territory or jurisdiction within the United States duly authorized to possess firearms by 415 the laws thereof shall, for the purposes of this section, be deemed to have a Firearm
416 Identification Card.

417 SECTION 14. Section one hundred twenty-eight B of chapter one hundred and 418 forty of the General Laws is hereby amended by deleting the section in its entirety and replacing 419 it with the following:-

420 Section 128B. No legal alien as defined in section 122 shall own or have in his 421 possession or under his control a firearm except as provided in this section. The colonel of the 422 state police may, after an investigation, issue a Firearm Identification Card to a legal alien legally 423 residing or visiting the commonwealth. The fee for the permit shall be $100.

424 Upon issuing such card said colonel shall so notify, in writing, the chief of police or 425 the board or officer having control of the police in the city or town in which such alien resides.
426 Each such card shall clearly indicate the expiration date as determined by the colonel and shall 427 be revocable for cause by said colonel. In case of revocation, the fee for such permit shall not be 428 prorated or refunded. Whenever any such permit is revoked, said colonel shall give notification 429 as hereinbefore provided. The permit issued to an alien under this section shall be subject to

430 sections one hundred and twenty-three and one hundred and twenty-four except as otherwise 431 provided by this section.

432 Violation of any provision of this section shall be punished by a fine of not less than 433 one thousand nor more than five thousand dollars. If, in any prosecution for violation of this 434 section, the defendant alleges that he has been naturalized, or alleges that he is a citizen of the 435 United States, the burden of proving the same shall be upon him. Any firearm owned by an alien 436 or in his possession or under his control in violation of this section shall be forfeited to the 437 commonwealth. Any such firearm may be the subject of a search warrant as provided in chapter 438 two hundred and seventy-six.

439 The director of law enforcement of the department of fisheries, wildlife and 440 environmental law enforcement, deputy directors of enforcement, chiefs of enforcement, deputy 441 chiefs of enforcement, environmental police officers and deputy environmental police officers, 442 wardens as defined in section one of chapter one hundred and thirty-one and members of the 443 state police in areas over which they have jurisdiction, and all officers qualified to serve criminal 444 process shall arrest, without a warrant, any person found with a firearm in his possession if they 445 have reason to believe that he is an alien and if he does not have in his possession a valid card as 446 provided in this section.

447 SECTION 15. Chapter 140 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting
448 after section 128B the following section:-

449 Section 128C:

450 (a) The colonel of the state police shall, after an investigation, issue a machine gun 451 license to a resident of the Commonwealth, who is the holder of a firearm identification card and who is over 21 years of age, if such citizen has demonstrated that they are, or intend to be, a collector of machine guns.

The term “collector of machine guns” shall refer to:

(i) Any person who is licensed pursuant to 18 U.S.C. Chapter 44, sections 921-929 and 27 CFR 178;

(ii) Any person who seeks to acquire machine guns for such lawful purposes as historical significance, display, research, lecturing, demonstration, test firing, investment or other like purpose; or

(iii) Any person currently lawfully in possession of a machine gun under federal law.

(b) The fee for the machine gun license shall be $40, and it shall be valid for a term of six years. The application shall be standard in form. Upon receiving an application, the colonel shall either issue or deny the license within sixty days. Any such denial shall be in writing and shall clearly state the reasons why the applicant was not considered a collector of machine guns or is a prohibited person.

Upon issuing such license, the colonel shall notify in writing the local licensing agent. A machine gun license shall be revocable for cause by the colonel. In case of revocation, the fee for such license shall not be prorated or refunded.

(c) A machine gun license shall entitle a person to purchase, possess, transport, transfer, store and fire a machine gun in accordance with federal law.

(d) No person shall own or have in his possession or under his control a machine gun, except as provided in this section. It shall be lawful for:

(i) A person aged 18 years or over to temporarily hold, handle or fire a machine gun for examination, trial or instruction while under the direct/immediate supervision of a holder of a machine gun license.

(ii) A duly commissioned officer, noncommissioned officer or enlisted member of the United States Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Air Force or Coast Guard, or the National Guard or military service of the commonwealth or reserve components to handle, hold or fire a machine gun, while in the performance of his duty.

(iii) A person aged 21 years or over who is a resident of another state to transport a machine gun through the commonwealth, provided that such person lawfully possesses such machine gun under federal law and under the laws of their state of residence, and provided, further, that said machine gun is unloaded and locked in a trunk or case while the machine gun is being transported.

SECTION 16. Section one hundred twenty-nine of chapter one hundred and forty of the General Laws is hereby amended by deleting the section in its entirety and replacing it with the following:-

Section 129. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) of section ten of chapter two hundred and sixty-nine or any other law to the contrary, the carrying or possession of a firearms and blank ammunition therefor, during the course of any television, movie, stage or other similar theatrical production, by a person within such production, shall be authorized; provided, however, that said firearm shall be made permanently disabled from firing conventional cartridges that discharge a projectile.

SECTION 17. Section one hundred twenty-nine B of chapter one hundred and forty of the General Laws is hereby amended by deleting the section in its entirety and replacing it with the following:-

Section 129B. Except as exempted or provided by law, no person shall carry on his person on any public way a loaded rifle or shotgun having cartridges or shells in either an attached magazine or chamber thereof. For purposes of this section, “loaded shotgun or loaded rifle” shall mean any shotgun or rifle having ammunition in either an attached magazine or chamber thereof, such ammunition including a live cartridge, primer (igniter), bullet or propellant powder designed for use in any firearm and, in the case of a muzzle loading or black powder shotgun or rifle, containing powder in the flash pan, a percussion cap and shot or ball; but the term “loaded shotgun or loaded rifle” shall not include a shotgun or rifle loaded with a blank cartridge, which contains no projectile within such blank or within the bore or chamber of such shotgun or rifle.

Whoever violates the provisions of this subsection shall be punished by a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $1,000.

This section shall not apply to drills, parades, military reenactments or other commemorative ceremonies, color guards or memorial service firing squads, so-called, as permitted by law.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to the carrying of a loaded rifle or shotgun on a public way by (i) any officer, agent or employee of the commonwealth or any other state or the United States, including any federal, state or local law enforcement personnel; (ii) any member of the military or other service of any state or the United States, including members of the national guard, reserves and junior reserve officer training corps; (iii) any duly authorized law enforcement officer, agent or employee of any municipality of the commonwealth; provided, however, that any such person described in clauses (i) to (iii), inclusive, shall be authorized by a competent authority to so carry a loaded or unloaded rifle or shotgun on a public way and such person is acting within the scope of his duties or training; or (iv) a person who is lawfully engaged in hunting and is the holder of a valid hunting or sporting license issued pursuant to chapter 131. This section shall not apply to the operation of a shooting gallery, licensed and defined under the provisions of section 56A, nor to persons using the same.

SECTION 18. Section one hundred twenty-nine C of chapter one hundred and forty of the General Laws is hereby amended by deleting the section in its entirety and replacing it with the following:-

Section 129C. Whoever discharges a firearm within five hundred feet of a dwelling or other building in use, except with the consent of the owner or legal occupant thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to (a) the lawful defense of life and property; (b) any law enforcement officer acting in the discharge of his duties; (c) persons using underground or indoor target or test ranges with the consent of the owner or legal occupant thereof; (d) persons using outdoor skeet, trap, target or test ranges with the consent of the owner or legal occupant of the land on which the range is established; (e) persons using shooting galleries, licensed and defined under the provisions of section fifty-six A of chapter one hundred and forty; and (f) the discharge of blank cartridges for theatrical, athletic, ceremonial, firing

537 squad, or other purposes in accordance with section thirty-nine of chapter one hundred and forty-538 eight.

539 SECTION 19. Section one hundred twenty-nine D of chapter one hundred and 540 forty of the General Laws is hereby amended by deleting the section in its entirety and replacing 541 it with the following:-

542 Section 129D. Any fines collected as a result of any civil violations in section 122
543 through 129C shall be utilized to fund the Criminal Firearms and Trafficking Division as defined 544 in Section 9C of chapter 269.

545 SECTION 20. Sections one hundred and thirty through one hundred and thirty-546 one P of chapter one hundred and forty of the General Laws are hereby repealed.

547 SECTION 21. Section eighty-five U of chapter two-hundred thirty-one of the 548 General Laws is hereby amended by striking the existing section and replacing it with the 549 following:-

550 Section 85U. No person who has committed an act of lawful defense as outlined 551 in section 8A of chapter 278 shall be held liable in an action for damages for death or injuries to 552 an assailant.

553 SECTION 22: Section eighteen B of chapter two hundred sixty-five of the General
554 Laws is hereby amended by striking the existing language and replacing it with the following:

555 Section 18B. Whoever, while in the commission of or the attempted commission of an 556 offense which may be punished by imprisonment in the state prison,

557 (A) has in his possession or under his control a firearm as defined in section 9A of 558 chapter 269, shall, in addition to the penalty for such offense, be punished by imprisonment in 559 the state prison for not less than five years; provided, however, if such person, while in the 560 commission or attempted commission of such offense, has in his possession or under his control 561 a machine gun, as defined in section 9A of chapter 269, such person shall be punished by 562 imprisonment in the state prison for not less than ten years.

563 (B) has committed an offense which may be punished by imprisonment in the state 564 prison and had in his possession or under his control a firearm and who thereafter, while in the 565 commission or the attempted commission of a second or subsequent offense which may be 566 punished by imprisonment in the state prison, has in his possession or under his control a firearm
567 shall, in addition to the penalty for such offense, be punished by imprisonment in the state prison 568 for not less than 20 years; provided, however, that if such person, while in the commission or 569 attempted commission of such offense, has in his possession or under his control a machine gun, 570 such person shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for not less than 25 years.

571 A sentence imposed under this section for a second or subsequent offense shall not be 572 reduced nor suspended, nor shall any person convicted under this section be eligible for 573 probation, parole, furlough or work release or receive any deduction from his sentence for good 574 conduct until he shall have served the minimum term of such additional sentence; provided,
575 however, that the commissioner of correction may, on the recommendation of the warden,
576 superintendent or other person in charge of a correctional institution or the administrator of a 577 county correctional institution, grant to such offender a temporary release in the custody of an 578 officer of such institution for the following purposes only: (i) to attend the funeral of a spouse or 579 next of kin; (ii) to visit a critically ill close relative or spouse; or (iii) to obtain emergency medical services unavailable at such institution. Prosecutions commenced under this section shall neither be continued without a finding nor placed on file. The provisions of section 87 of chapter 276 relative to the power of the court to place certain offenders on probation shall not apply to any person 17 years of age or over charged with a violation of this section.

SECTION 23. Chapter 265 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after section 44 a new section:—

Section 45. Crimes committed with a deceptive weapon device:

“Deceptive Weapon Device” shall mean any device or item used in the commission of a crime that is intended to convey the presence of a weapon, as defined in this section, to a potential victim or law enforcement officer. Such devices or items shall include, but not be limited to, common air guns, toy guns, or substances carved or fashioned to resemble a weapon.

Any person, who is in possession of a deceptive weapon device as defined in this section, during the commission of a violent crime as defined in Section 9A of Chapter 269 shall be deemed to be armed and shall be punishable by penalties set forth in this chapter.

SECTION 24. Chapter 269 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after section 8 the following new section:-

Section 9A. Definitions

657 in length and any weapon made from a shotgun (whether by alteration, modification or 658 otherwise) if such a weapon as modified has an overall length of less than twenty-six inches. The

659 term “sawed-off shogun” shall not apply to any firearm authorized by the Attorney General of 660 the United States under Title 18 U.S.C.

661 SECTION 25. Chapter 269 of the General Laws shall be amended by inserting
662 after section 9A the following section:-

663 Section 9B: State firearm crime

664 (a) Any crime of violence that involved the criminal use of a firearm shall be 665 considered a state firearm crime and shall be investigated by the Criminal Firearms and 666 Trafficking Division.

667 (b) Any case of unlawful intrastate firearms trafficking shall be considered a state crime
668 and shall be investigated by the Criminal Firearms and Trafficking Division.

669 (c) Any violation of section 18B or section 45 of chapter 265 or sections 9D through 670 12E of this chapter shall be considered a state firearm crime and shall be investigated by the 671 Criminal Firearms and Trafficking Division.

672 SECTION 26. Chapter 269 of the General Laws shall be amended by inserting
673 after section 9B the following section:-

674 Section 9C: Criminal Firearms and Trafficking Division

675 Any violent crime committed with the possession of a firearm or machine gun within 676 the commonwealth shall be considered a state crime. All such crimes shall become the 677 jurisdiction of the Criminal Firearms and Trafficking Division.

678 There shall be attached to the department of the attorney general a special unit of the 679 state police known as the Criminal Firearms and Trafficking Division, heretofore referred to as 680 the division. The division shall assist the office of the attorney general in prosecuting all crimes 681 involving the criminal use of a firearm during the commission of a crime of violence as defined in Section 9A. The division shall investigate all cases of unlawful intrastate firearms trafficking. The division shall investigate any criminal use of a firearm during the commission of a violent crime as defined in Section 9A that has taken place within the commonwealth to establish the following:

1. If the suspect would be considered a prohibited person as defined in Section 9A;
2. Determine if the suspect obtained the firearm illegally;
3. Determine the source from which the suspect illegally obtained the firearm;
4. Create a database of all firearms reported stolen or recovered as stolen property, said database shall be made available to all federally licensed firearm dealers within the commonwealth;
5. Create a database of all firearms used in such crimes within the commonwealth. The database shall include the following:
 - a. The make, model and serial number of the firearm;
 - b. Any fingerprint evidence found on the firearm;
 - c. Any ballistic evidence that can be retrieved from the crime scene;
 - d. If the criminal use of the firearm was related to known gang activity;

The division shall make an annual report to the Joint Committee on Public Safety and Homeland Security concerning all of the information that it has gathered during each calendar year concerning the criminal use and criminal trafficking of firearms.

Any fines collected as a result of any convictions in sections 9D through 10F, inclusive, of this chapter shall be utilized to fund the Criminal Firearms and Trafficking Division.

SECTION 27. Chapter 269 of the General Laws shall be amended by inserting after section 9C the following section:-

Section 9D. Prohibited Person in possession of a firearm.

(A) Whoever being a prohibited person is in possession of a firearm shall be subject to a fine of not less than $500 nor more than $5,000. A second or subsequent conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than $5,000 nor more than $10,000 or by imprisonment for not less than one year nor more than five years or by both such fine and imprisonment.

(B) Whoever being a prohibited person is in possession of a firearm while in possession of a controlled substance as defined in section 1 of chapter 94C shall be punished by a fine of not less than $10,000 or by imprisonment for not less than two years nor more than ten years or by both such fine and imprisonment.

(C) Whoever being a prohibited person is in possession of a firearm while engaged in the trafficking of a controlled substance as defined in section 1 of chapter 94C shall be punished by a fine of not less than $10,000 or by imprisonment for not less than five years nor more than ten years or by both such fine and imprisonment.

721 imprisonment for not less than five years nor more than ten years or by both such fine and 722 imprisonment.

723 SECTION 28. Chapter 269 of the General Laws shall be amended by inserting
724 after section 9D the following section:-

725 Section 9E Unlawful transfer

726 (a) It shall be unlawful to provide a firearm to any alien who does not hold a firearms
727 identification card issued by the colonel under section 128B.

728 (b) It shall be unlawful to provide a firearm to a person known to be a prohibited 729 person.

730 (c) It shall be unlawful to provide a firearm to any minor, except that nothing shall 731 prevent a parent or guardian from allowing any adult with a firearms identification card to 732 supervise the minor's use of a firearm for purposes of instruction, or participation in organized 733 competition. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit an instructor from furnishing 734 firearms or ammunition therefor to pupils; provided, however, that said instructor has the consent 735 of a parent or guardian of a pupil under the age of eighteen years.

736 Any person violating (a) (b) or (c) above shall be punished by fine of not less than 737 $1,000 nor more than $10,000, or by imprisonment in a state prison for not more than ten years
738 or by imprisonment in a house of correction for not more than two and one-half years, or by both 739 such fine and imprisonment.

740 SECTION 29. Chapter 269 of the General Laws shall be amended by inserting
741 after section 9E the following section:-

Section 9F (A) Whoever falsely makes, alters, forges or counterfeits or procures or assists another to falsely make, alter, forge or counterfeit a firearm identification card, or whoever forges or without authority uses the signature, facsimile of the signature, or validating signature stamp of the local licensing agent or its designee, or whoever possesses, utters, publishes as true or in any way makes use of a falsely made, altered, forged or counterfeited a firearm identification card, shall be punished by imprisonment in a state prison for not more than two years, or by a fine of not less than five hundred dollars, or both such fine and imprisonment.

(B) Whoever knowingly manufactures for sale, offers for sale or sells a falsely made, altered, forged or counterfeit firearm identification card as described in paragraph (A) shall be punished by imprisonment in a state

SECTION 30. Chapter 269 of the General Laws shall be amended by inserting after section 9F the following section:-

Section 9G. Unlawful intrastate commerce of firearms

(a) Whoever unlawfully transports firearms into the commonwealth with the intent to use said firearm for the commission of criminal activity shall be punished by a term of imprisonment of not less than five years nor more than ten years in the state prison.

(b) Whoever unlawfully transports firearms into the commonwealth with the intention to unlawfully distribute, sell, or transfer possession of any quantity of firearms shall be punished by a term of imprisonment of not less than five years nor more than ten years in the state prison.

(c) Whoever unlawfully transports firearms into the commonwealth with the intention to unlawfully distribute, sell, or transfer possession of any quantity of firearms to a prohibited

763 person shall be punished by a term of imprisonment of not less than ten years nor more than 764 twenty years in the state prison.

765 (d) Whoever unlawfully transports a firearm into the commonwealth with the intention 766 to unlawfully distribute, sell, or transfer it to a prohibited person, and if such firearm is 767 subsequently used to cause the death of another, shall be punished by a term of not less than 768 twenty years in the state prison.

769 Any motor vehicle lawfully owned or operated by any person convicted under this 770 section shall be forfeit in accordance with the provisions of section 24W of Chapter 90. All 771 proceeds from the auction of said vehicle(s) shall be utilized to fund the Criminal Firearms and 772 Trafficking Division.

773 SECTION 31. Chapter 269 of the General Laws shall be amended by inserting
774 after section 9G the following section:-

775 Section 9H. Theft of a firearm, breaking and entering

776 (A) Whoever in the nighttime or the daytime breaks and enters a building, ship, vessel 777 or vehicle with the intent to steal a firearm shall be subject to a fine of not less than $5,000 nor 778 more than $10,000 or by imprisonment for not less than one year nor more than five years or by 779 both such fine and imprisonment.

780 (B) Whoever in the nighttime or the daytime breaks and enters a building, ship, vessel 781 or vehicle with the intent to steal a firearm to distribute to a prohibited person shall be subject to 782 a fine of not less than $10,000 or by imprisonment for not less than five years nor more than ten 783 years or by both such fine and imprisonment.

(C) Whoever in the nighttime or the daytime breaks and enters a building, ship, vessel or vehicle with the intent to steal a firearm and in the process causes injury of another shall be subject to a fine of not less than $10,000 or by imprisonment for not less than five years nor more than ten years or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Any motor vehicle lawfully owned or operated by any person convicted under this section shall be forfeit in accordance with the provisions of section 24W of Chapter 90. All proceeds from the auction of said vehicle(s) shall be utilized to fund the Criminal Firearms and Trafficking Division.

SECTION 32. Section ten of chapter two-hundred sixty-nine is hereby amended by deleting the section in its entirety and replacing it with the following:

Section 10. (a) Whoever knowingly has in his possession, or knowingly has under his control in a vehicle; a firearm, loaded or unloaded, as defined in Section 9A during the commission of a felony that is not an act of defense, shall be punished by shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for not less than two and one-half years nor more than five years.

(b) Whoever, being a prohibited person as defined in Section 9A, knowingly has in his possession, or knowingly has under his control in a vehicle; a firearm, loaded or unloaded, as defined in Section 9A during the commission of a felony, shall be punished by shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for not less than five years nor more than ten years. The punishment for a second or subsequent offense shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for not less than ten years nor more than twenty years.

(c) Whoever, being a prohibited person as defined in Section 9A, and who is not legally within the United States, knowingly has in his possession, or knowingly has under his control in a vehicle; a firearm, loaded or unloaded, as defined in Section 9A during the commission of a felony, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for not less than ten years nor more than twenty years.

(d) Whoever, being a prohibited person as defined in Section 9A, knowingly has in his possession, or knowingly has under his control in a vehicle; a firearm, loaded or unloaded, as defined in Section 9A, while in the possession of a controlled substance as defined in chapter 94C with intent to distribute shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for not less than ten years nor more than twenty years.

The provisions of section eighty-seven of chapter two hundred and seventy-six shall not apply to any person seventeen years of age or older, charged with a violation of this subsection, or to any child between ages fourteen and seventeen so charged, if the court is of the opinion that the interests of the public require that he should be tried as an adult for such offense instead of being dealt with as a child.

(e) Whoever, except as provided by law, possesses a machine gun, as defined in said section 9A, or whoever owns, possesses or carries on his person, or carries on his person or under his control in a vehicle, a sawed-off shotgun, as defined in said section 9A, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for life, or for any term of years provided that any sentence imposed under the provisions of this paragraph shall be subject to the minimum requirements of paragraph (c).

(f) Any person convicted under paragraphs (b), (c) (d) and (e) shall not be suspended, nor shall any person so sentenced be eligible for probation or receive any deduction from his sentence for good conduct.

(g) Any person convicted under paragraphs (b), (c), (d) and (e) having been found to have been in the possession of a firearm that has been reported stolen shall be punished by an additional imprisonment in the state prison for not less five years to be served consecutively.

(h) Upon conviction of a violation of this section, the firearm or other article shall, unless otherwise ordered by the court, be confiscated by the commonwealth. The firearm or article so confiscated shall, by the authority of the written order of the court be forwarded by common carrier to the colonel of the state police, who, upon receipt of the same, shall notify said court or justice thereof. Said colonel shall sell by public auction all firearms which can be lawfully owned in the commonwealth for which a lawful owner cannot be determined. Any proceeds received from such auctions shall be utilized to fund the Criminal Firearms and Trafficking Division. Any firearm which may not be lawfully sold in the commonwealth shall be destroyed. The colonel shall keep a permanent record of all firearms destroyed.

(i) The court shall, if the firearm or other article was lost by or stolen from the person lawfully in possession of it, order its return to such person.

(j) Any person who leaves a firearm unattended with the intent to transfer possession of such firearm to any prohibited person the purpose of committing a crime or concealing a crime shall be punished by imprisonment in a house of correction for not more than two and one half years or in state prison for not more than five years.

(k) Whoever knowingly fails to deliver or surrender a revoked firearm identification card or a firearm or machine gun, as provided in section one hundred and twenty-five of chapter one hundred and forty, unless an appeal is pending, shall be punished by imprisonment in a jail or house of correction for not more than two and one-half years or by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars.

(l) The provisions of this section shall be fully applicable to any person proceeded against under section seventy-four of chapter one hundred and nineteen, provided, however, that nothing contained in this section shall impair, impede, or affect the power granted any court by chapter one hundred and nineteen to adjudicate a person a delinquent child, including the power so granted under said chapter one hundred and nineteen.

(m) For purposes of this section, "loaded" shall mean that ammunition is contained in the weapon or within a feeding device attached thereto.

SECTION 33. Section ten E of chapter two-hundred sixty-nine is hereby amended by deleting the section in its entirety and replacing it with the following:-

Section 10E. Whoever, except as provided by law, in a single transaction or occurrence or in a series of transactions within a twelve month period, knowingly or intentionally distributes, sells, or transfers possession of a quantity of firearms, machine guns, or any combination thereof, shall, if the quantity of firearms, machine guns, or any combination thereof is:

(1) Three or more, but less than ten, be punished by a term of imprisonment of not more than ten years in the state prison. No sentence imposed under the provisions of this paragraph shall be for less than a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment of three years and a

869 fine of not more than fifty thousand dollars may be imposed but not in lieu of the mandatory 870 minimum term of imprisonment, as established herein.

871 (2) Ten or more, but less than twenty, be punished by a term of imprisonment of not 872 more than ten years in the state prison. No sentence imposed under the provisions of this 873 paragraph shall be for less than a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment of five years and a 874 fine of not more than one hundred thousand dollars may be imposed but not in lieu of the 875 mandatory minimum term of imprisonment, as established herein.

876 (3) Twenty or more, be punished by a term of imprisonment not less than ten years up
877 to life imprisonment in the state prison. No sentence imposed under the provisions of this 878 paragraph shall be for less than a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment of ten years and a 879 fine of not more than one hundred and fifty thousand dollars may be imposed but not in lieu of 880 the mandatory minimum term of imprisonment, as established herein.

881 (4) Any person convicted under paragraphs (1), (2) or (3) having been found to have 882 been in the possession of a firearm that has been reported stolen shall be punished by an 883 additional imprisonment in the state prison for not less five years to be served consecutively.

884 A prosecution commenced under this section shall not be placed on file or continued
885 without a finding, and the sentence imposed upon a person convicted of violating any provision 886 of said section shall not be reduced to less than the mandatory minimum term of imprisonment as 887 established in said section, nor shall any sentence of imprisonment imposed upon any person be 888 suspended or reduced until such person shall have served said mandatory minimum term of 889 imprisonment.

A person convicted of violating any provision of this section shall not, until he shall have served the mandatory minimum term of imprisonment established herein, be eligible for probation, parole, furlough, work release, or receive any deduction from his sentence for good conduct under sections one hundred and twenty-nine C and one hundred and twenty-nine D of chapter one hundred and twenty-seven; provided, however, that the commissioner of corrections may, on the recommendation of the warden, superintendent, or other person in charge of the correctional institution, grant to said offender a temporary release in the custody of an officer of such institution for the following purposes: to attend the funeral of a relative, to visit a critically ill relative, or to obtain emergency medical or psychiatric services unavailable at said institution. The provisions of section eighty-seven of chapter two hundred and seventy-six shall not apply to any person, seventeen years of age or over, charged with a violation of said sections, or to any child between the age of fourteen and seventeen, so charged, if the court is of the opinion that the interests of the public require that he shall be tried for such offense instead of being dealt with as a child.

SECTION 34. Chapter 269 of the General Laws shall be amended by inserting after section 10E the following section:-

Section 10F. Carrying of dangerous weapons, punishment

Whoever, except as provided by law, carries on his person, or carries on his person or under his control in a vehicle, any stiletto, dagger or a device or case which enables a knife with a locking blade to be drawn at a locked position, any ballistic knife, or any knife with a detachable blade capable of being propelled by any mechanism, dirk knife, any knife having a double-edged blade, or a switch knife, or any knife having an automatic spring release device by

912 which the blade is released from the handle, having a blade of over one and one-half inches, or a 913 slung shot, blowgun, blackjack, metallic knuckles or knuckles of any substance which could be 914 put to the same use with the same or similar effect as metallic knuckles, nunchaku, zoo bow, also 915 known as klackers or kung fu sticks, or any similar weapon consisting of two sticks of wood, 916 plastic or metal connected at one end by a length of rope, chain, wire or leather, a shuriken or 917 any similar pointed starlike object intended to injure a person when thrown, or any armband, 918 made with leather which has metallic spikes, points or studs or any similar device made from any 919 other substance or a cestus or similar material weighted with metal or other substance and worn 920 on the hand, or a manrikigusari or similar length of chain having weighted ends; or whoever,
921 when arrested upon a warrant for an alleged crime, or when arrested while committing a breach 922 or disturbance of the public peace, is armed with or has on his person, or has on his person or 923 under his control in a vehicle, a billy or other dangerous weapon other than those herein
924 mentioned and those mentioned in paragraph (a), shall be punished by imprisonment for not less 925 than two and one-half years nor more than five years in the state prison, or for not less than six 926 months nor more than two and one-half years in a jail or house of correction, except that, if the 927 court finds that the defendant has not been previously convicted of a felony, he may be punished
928 by a fine of not more than fifty dollars or by imprisonment for not more than two and one-half 929 years in a jail or house of correction.

930 SECTION 35. Section eleven A of chapter two hundred sixty-nine of the General
931 Laws is hereby amended by deleting the section in its entirety and replacing it with the 932 following:-

933 Section 11A. For the purposes of this section and sections eleven B, eleven C and 934 eleven E, the following words shall have the following meanings:—

“Firearm”, any weapon which will or is designed to or may readily be converted to expel a projectile by the action of an explosive; the frame or receiver of any such weapon; any firearm muffler or firearm silencer; or any destructive device. Such term does not include an antique firearm. This term shall be meant to include a rifle, shotgun, handgun or machine gun.

“Serial number”, the number stamped or placed upon a firearm by the manufacturer in the original process of manufacture.

“Identification number”, the number stamped or placed upon a firearm by the colonel of the state police under authority of section eleven D.

SECTION 36. Section eleven E of chapter two-hundred sixty-nine is hereby amended by deleting the section in its entirety and replacing it with the following:

Section 11E. All firearms of new manufacture, manufactured or delivered to any licensed dealer within the commonwealth shall bear serial numbers permanently inscribed on a visible metal area of said firearm, and the manufacturer of said firearm, shall keep records of said serial numbers and the dealer, distributor or person to whom the firearm was sold or delivered.

No licensed dealer shall order for delivery, cause to be delivered, offer for sale or sell within the commonwealth any newly manufactured firearm received directly from a manufacturer, wholesaler or distributor not so inscribed with a serial number nor shall any licensed manufacturer or distributor of firearms deliver or cause to be delivered within the commonwealth any firearm not complying with this section.

No licensed manufacturer within the commonwealth shall produce for sale within the United States, its territories or possessions any firearm not complying with paragraph one of this

956 section. Whoever violates this section shall be punished by a fine of five hundred dollars. Each 957 such violation shall constitute a separate offense.

958 SECTION 37. Section twelve E of chapter two-hundred and sixty-nine is hereby 959 amended by deleting the section in its entirety and replacing it with the following:-

960 Section 12E. Prohibiting the confiscation of lawfully owned firearms.

961 No government official or any person acting on behalf of the Commonwealth of 962 Massachusetts shall order the confiscation of, or otherwise cause the confiscation of, any 963 lawfully carried or lawfully owned firearm.

964 No law enforcement officer, person acting as a law enforcement officer, or other 965 public official shall confiscate or attempt to confiscate any lawfully carried or lawfully owned 966 firearm.

967 Whoever violates the provisions of this section shall be subject to a civil fine of not 968 less than $500 nor more than $5,000 for each firearm unlawfully confiscated or by imprisonment
969 in a state prison for not more than two and one-half years.

970 Nothing in this section shall prohibit the confiscation of firearms from any person 971 who;

972 (a) Has been placed under arrest;

973 (b) Who is the subject of a protection order issued under Chapter 209A;

974 (c) Has had their Firearm Identification Card revoked or suspended; or 975 (d) Who is or has become a prohibited person.

976 SECTION 38. Section eight A of chapter two hundred 977 seventy-eight of the General Laws is hereby amended by 978 striking the existing language and replacing it with the 979 following:

980 Section 8A. It shall be an act of lawful defense if a person, who is an occupant of 981 a dwelling or in any place that they have a right to be, used deadly force, or less than deadly 982 force, if he or she acted in the reasonable belief that an assailant was about to inflict great bodily 983 injury or death upon themselves or upon another person who also had a right to be in the 984 location. There shall be no duty on a person to retreat from any place that they have a right to be.
985 An act of lawful defense as outlined in this section shall not be cause for arrest or prosecution.
986 Further, an act of lawful defense under this section shall not be cause for the revocation of a 987 firearm identification card issued under Chapter 140.
