

HOUSE No. 2873

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Nine

An Act relative to tax exempt property..

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Section 5 of chapter 59 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 1996 Official Edition, is 2 hereby amended by adding the following paragraph:— Real property exempted from taxation by 3 the provisions of this section shall not be sold or converted to residential, industrial or 4 commercial use while so exempted unless the city or town in which such land is located has been 5 notified of intent to sell for or convert to such other use. For a period of 120 days subsequent to 6 such notification, said city or town shall have, in the case of an intended sale, a first refusal 7 option to meet a bona fide offer to purchase said land, or, in the case of an intended conversion
8 not involving sale, an option to purchase said land at full and fair market value to be determined
9 by impartial appraisal. After a public hearing, said city or town may assign either of said options
10 to a nonprofit organization under such terms and conditions as the mayor or board of selectmen
11 deem appropriate. Notice of intent shall be sent by the real property owner, or the property 12 owner’s authorized agent, via certified mail to the mayor and city council of a city, or the board
13 of selectmen of a town, to its board of assessors and to its planning board, if any, and said option 14 period shall run from the day following the last date of deposit of any such of such notices in the 15 United States mails. No sale or conversion of such land shall be consummated unless and until 16 either said option period shall have expired or the property owner shall have been notified by 17 written notice signed by the mayor or board of selectmen of said city or town in question that 18 said option will not be exercised. Such option may be exercised only by written notice signed by 19 the mayor or board of selectmen, mailed to the property owner by certified mail at such address 20 as may be specified in his notice of intention and recorded with the registry of deeds, within the 21 option period. An affidavit by a notary public that he has so mailed such a notice of intent on 22 behalf of a landowner shall conclusively establish the manner and time of the giving of such 23 notice; and such an affidavit, and such a notice that the option will not be exercised, shall be 24 recorded with the registry of deeds. Each such notice of intention, notice of exercise of the option 25 and notice that the option will not be exercised shall contain the name of the record owner of the 26 land and a description of the premises so to be sold or converted adequate for identification 27 thereof; and each such affidavit by a notary public shall have attached to it a copy of the notice

28 of intention to which it relates. Such notices of intention shall be deemed to have been duly 29 mailed to the parties above specified if addressed to them in care of the town or city clerk; and in 30 the case of notice to a city council or a board or commission, addressed to it as such entity. The 31 provisions of this section shall not be applicable with respect to a mortgage foreclosure sale; but 32 the holder of a mortgage shall, at least ninety days before a foreclosure sale, send written notice
33 of the time and place of such sale to the parties and in the manner above provided in this section 34 for notice of intent to sell or convert, and the giving of such notice may be established by an 35 affidavit of a notary public as set forth above.
