

HOUSE No. 3630

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Nine

An Act relative to enhancing Melanie's law..

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 24 (1)(a)(1) of chapter 90 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2 2008 Official Edition, is hereby amended by inserting at the end of the first paragraph the 3 following sentence:-

4 Any sentence imposed for the above offense shall not run concurrent with a sentence for 5 any prior or subsequent conviction or assignment to an alcohol or controlled substance education
6 program for any like offense in this Commonwealth or any other jurisdiction.

7 SECTION 2. Section 24 (1)(a)(1) of chapter 90 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 8 2008 Official Edition, is hereby amended by deleting the fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh 9 paragraphs and inserting the following paragraphs in their place:-

10 If the defendant has been previously convicted or assigned to an alcohol or controlled 11 substance education, treatment, or rehabilitation program by a court of the commonwealth or any 12 other jurisdiction because of a like violation preceding the date of conviction or assignment in 13 the instant case, the defendant shall be punished by a fine of not less than six hundred nor more

14 than ten thousand dollars and by imprisonment for not less than sixty days nor more than two 15 and one-half years; provided, however, that the sentence imposed upon such person shall not be 16 reduced to less than thirty days, nor suspended, nor shall any sentence run concurrent with a 17 sentence for any prior or subsequent conviction for any like offense in this Commonwealth or 18 any other jurisdiction, nor shall any such person be eligible for probation, parole, or furlough or 19 receive any deduction from his sentence for good conduct until such person has served thirty 20 days of such sentence; provided, further, that the commissioner of correction may, on the 21 recommendation of the warden, superintendent, or other person in charge of a correctional 22 institution, or the administrator of a county correctional institution, grant to an offender 23 committed under this subdivision a temporary release in the custody of an officer of such 24 institution for the following purposes only: to attend the funeral of a relative; to visit a critically 25 ill relative; to obtain emergency medical or psychiatric services unavailable at said institution; to 26 engage in employment pursuant to a work release program; or for the purposes of an aftercare 27 program designed to support the recovery of an offender who has completed an alcohol or 28 controlled substance education, treatment or rehabilitation program operated by the department
29 of correction; and provided, further, that the defendant may serve all or part of such thirty day
30 sentence to the extent such resources are available in a correctional facility specifically 31 designated by the department of correction for the incarceration and rehabilitation of drinking
32 drivers. If the defendant has been previously convicted or assigned to an alcohol or controlled 33 substance education, treatment, or rehabilitation program by a court of the commonwealth, or 34 any other jurisdiction because of a like offense two times preceding the date of conviction or 35 assignment in the instant case, the defendant shall be punished by a fine of not less than one 36 thousand nor more than fifteen thousand dollars and by imprisonment for not less than one hundred and eighty days nor more than two and one-half years or by a fine of not less than one thousand nor more than fifteen thousand dollars and by imprisonment in the state prison for not less than two and one-half years nor more than five years; provided, however, that the sentence imposed upon such person shall not be reduced to less than one hundred and fifty days, nor shall any sentence run concurrent with a sentence for any prior or subsequent conviction for any like offense in this Commonwealth or any other jurisdiction, nor suspended, nor shall any such person be eligible for probation, parole, or furlough or receive any deduction from his sentence for good conduct until he shall have served one hundred and fifty days of such sentence; provided, further, that the commissioner of correction may, on the recommendation of the warden, superintendent, or other person in charge of a correctional institution, or the administrator of a county correctional institution, grant to an offender committed under this subdivision a temporary release in the custody of an officer of such institution for the following purposes only: to attend the funeral of a relative, to visit a critically ill relative; to obtain emergency medical or psychiatric services unavailable at said institution; to engage in employment pursuant to a work release program; or for the purposes of an aftercare program designed to support the recovery of an offender who has completed an alcohol or controlled substance education, treatment or rehabilitation program operated by the department of correction; and provided, further, that the defendant may serve all or part of such one hundred and fifty days sentence to the extent such resources are available in a correctional facility specifically designated by the department of correction for the incarceration and rehabilitation of drinking drivers. If the defendant has been previously convicted or assigned to an alcohol or controlled substance education, treatment, or rehabilitation program by a court of the commonwealth or any other jurisdiction because of a like offense three times preceding the date of conviction or assignment in the instant case, the defendant shall be punished by a fine of not less than one thousand five hundred nor more than twenty-five thousand dollars and by imprisonment for not less than two years nor more than two and one-half years, or by a fine of not less than one thousand five hundred nor more than twenty-five thousand dollars and by imprisonment in the state prison for not less than two and one-half years nor more than five years; provided, however, that the sentence imposed upon such person shall not be reduced to less than twelve months, nor suspended, nor shall any sentence run concurrent with a sentence for any prior or subsequent conviction for any like offense in this Commonwealth or any other jurisdiction, nor shall any such person be eligible for probation, parole, or furlough or receive any deduction from his sentence for good conduct until such person has served twelve months of such sentence; provided, further, that the commission of correction may, on the recommendation of the warden, superintendent, or other person in charge of a correctional institution, or the administrator of a county correctional institution, grant to an offender committed under this subdivision a temporary release in the custody of an officer of such institution for the following purposes only: to attend the funeral of a relative; to visit a critically ill relative; to obtain emergency medical or psychiatric services unavailable at said institution; to engage in employment pursuant to a work release program; or for the purposes of an aftercare program designed to support the recovery of an offender who has completed an alcohol or controlled substance education, treatment or rehabilitation program operated by the department of correction; and provided, further, that the defendant may serve all or part of such twelve months sentence to the extent that resources are available in a correctional facility specifically designated by the department of correction for the incarceration and rehabilitation of drinking drivers. If the defendant has been previously convicted or assigned to an alcohol or controlled substance

83 education, treatment or rehabilitation program by a court of the commonwealth or any other 84 jurisdiction because of a like offense four or more times preceding the date of conviction or 85 assignment in the instant case, the defendant shall be punished by a fine of not less than two 86 thousand nor more than fifty thousand dollars and by imprisonment for not less than two and 87 one-half years or by a fine of not less than two thousand nor more than fifty thousand dollars and 88 by imprisonment in the state prison for not less than two and one-half years nor more than 89 twenty years; provided, however, that the sentence imposed upon such person shall not be 90 reduced to less than twenty-four months, nor suspended, nor shall any sentence run concurrent 91 with a sentence for any prior or subsequent conviction for any like offense in this 92 Commonwealth or any other jurisdiction, nor shall any such person be eligible for probation, 93 parole, or furlough or receive any deduction from his sentence for good conduct until he shall 94 have served twenty-four months of such sentence; provided, further, that the commissioner of 95 correction may, on the recommendation of the warden, superintendent, or other person in charge 96 of a correctional institution, or the administrator of a county correctional institution, grant to an 97 offender committed under this subdivision a temporary release in the custody of an officer of 98 such institution for the following purposes only: to attend the funeral of a relative; to visit a
99 critically ill relative; to obtain emergency medical or psychiatric services unavailable at said 100 institution; to engage in employment pursuant to a work release program; or for the purposes of 101 an aftercare program designed to support the recovery of an offender who has completed an 102 alcohol or controlled substance education, treatment or rehabilitation program operated by the 103 department of correction; and provided, further, that the defendant may serve all or part of such 104 twenty-four months sentence to the extent that resources are available in a correctional facility specifically designated by the department of correction for the incarceration and rehabilitation of drinking drivers.

SECTION 3. Section 24 (1)(c)(1) of chapter 90 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2008 Official Edition, is hereby amended by replacing the words “preceding the date of the commission of the offense for which he has been convicted,” in line 5 with the following words:-

“at any time,”.

SECTION 4. Section 24 (1)(c)(2) of chapter 90 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2008 Official Edition, is hereby amended by replacing the words “preceding the date of the commission of the offense for which he has been convicted,” in line 4 with the following words:-

“at any time,”.

SECTION 5. Section 24 (1)(c)(3) of chapter 90 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2008 Official Edition, is hereby amended by replacing the words “preceding the date of the commission of the offense for which he has been convicted,” in line 4 with the following words:-

“, at any time,”.

SECTION 6. Section 24 (1)(c)(3½) of chapter 90 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2008 Official Edition, is hereby amended by replacing the words “preceding the date of the commission of the offense for which he has been convicted,” in line 4 with the following words:-

“, at any time,”.

SECTION 7. Section 24 (1)(c)(3¾) of chapter 90 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2008 Official Edition, is hereby amended by replacing the words “preceding the date of the 125 commission of the offense for which he has been convicted,” in lines 4 and 5 with the following 126 words:-

127 “, at any time,”.

128 SECTION 8. Section 24 (1)(c)(4) of chapter 90 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 129 2008 Official Edition, is hereby amended by replacing the word, “corrobing” in the second to 130 last line with the following word:-

131 “corroborating”.

132 SECTION 9. Section 24 (1)(f)(1) of chapter 90 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 133 2008 Official Edition, is hereby amended by replacing the word, “restistrar” in line 29 with the 134 following word:-

135 “registrar”.

136 SECTION 9. Section 24 (1)(f)(1) of chapter 90 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 137 2008 Official Edition, is hereby amended by deleting the last paragraph containing the following 138 language:-

139 No license or right to operate shall be restored under any circumstances and no restricted 140 or hardship permits shall be issued during the suspension period imposed by this paragraph;
141 provided, however, that the defendant may immediately, upon the entry of a not guilty finding or 142 dismissal of all charges under this section, section 24G, section 24L, or section 13½ of chapter
143 265, and in the absence of any other alcohol related charges pending against said defendant, 144 apply for and be immediately granted a hearing before the court which took final action on the 145 charges for the purpose of requesting the restoration of said license. At said hearing, there shall

146 be a rebuttable presumption that said license be restored, unless the commonwealth shall 147 establish, by a fair preponderance of the evidence, that restoration of said license would likely 148 endanger the public safety. In all such instances, the court shall issue written findings of fact with 149 its decision.
