

HOUSE No. 3861

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Nine

An Act relative to prohibit predatory lending practices by auto dealers..

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 255 B of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2006 Official
2 Edition, is hereby amended by adding the following section:-

3 Section 26. A retail installment sales contract shall include the following:

4 (a) All financial and dealership documents (including handwritten, computer generated
5 and printed) be contained in a single file and available to the consumer at the lender and 6 dealership on request;

7 (b) The lender’s “buy rate” be posted for consumers to view at the dealership;

8 (c) Purchase payroll records, including original pay stubs or other authenticable
9 documents that show proof of income, be attached to bank loan papers when submitted to the 10 lender, to avoid overestimates of income or falsification of income at dealer request by 11 consumers;

12 (d) With any option to purchase additional products like extended warranties and service
13 contracts, consumers must be shown both the pre-option sale price and amount of monthly

14 payments, with interest, and the total price in sum including options and monthly payments
15 including additional charges for extras, with interest, to allow consumers a true and clear
16 comparison of figures;

17 (e) Any “balloon” payments as the final payment on a loan be specifically disclosed to 18 the consumer and a written notice of such disclosure be signed by both the consumer and 19 dealer’s agent;

20 (f) Dealers procure a state license to sell warranties and insurance products, and that a
21 condition of licensure be the purchase of insurance coverage to cover a dealership’s total
22 liabilities if a warranty company defaults;

23 Forbid mandatory arbitration clauses in vehicle purchase.
