

HOUSE No. 4156

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Nine

An Act relative to the agreement among the states to elect the President by national popular vote

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. The Commonwealth of Massachusetts hereby ratifies the Agreement
2 Among the States to Elect the President by National Popular Vote.

3 SECTION 2. The General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after chapter 54, as 4 appearing in the 2006 Official Edition, the following chapter: -

5 Chapter 54B.

6 Agreement Among The States To Elect The President By National Popular Vote

7 Article I–Membership

8 Any State of the United States and the District of Columbia may become a member of 9 this agreement by enacting this agreement.

10 Article II–Right of the People in Member States to Vote for President and Vice President

11 Each member state shall conduct a statewide popular election for President and Vice 12 President of the United States.

13 Article III–Manner of Appointing Presidential Electors in Member States

14 Prior to the time set by law for the meeting and voting by the presidential electors, the 15 chief election official of each member state shall determine the number of votes for each 16 presidential slate in each State of the United States and in the District of Columbia in which 17 votes have been cast in a statewide popular election and shall add such votes together to produce 18 a “national popular vote total” for each presidential slate.

19 The chief election official of each member state shall designate the presidential slate with 20 the largest national popular vote total as the “national popular vote winner.”

21 The presidential elector certifying official of each member state shall certify the 22 appointment in that official’s own state of the elector slate nominated in that state in association 23 with the national popular vote winner.

24 At least six days before the day fixed by law for the meeting and voting by the 25 presidential electors, each member state shall make a final determination of the number of 26 popular votes cast in the state for each presidential slate and shall communicate an official 27 statement of such determination within 24 hours to the chief election official of each other 28 member state.

29 The chief election official of each member state shall treat as conclusive an official 30 statement containing the number of popular votes in a state for each presidential slate made by

31 the day established by federal law for making a state’s final determination conclusive as to the 32 counting of electoral votes by Congress.

33 In event of a tie for the national popular vote winner, the presidential elector certifying 34 official of each member state shall certify the appointment of the elector slate nominated in 35 association with the presidential slate receiving the largest number of popular votes within that 36 official’s own state.

37 If, for any reason, the number of presidential electors nominated in a member state in 38 association with the national popular vote winner is less than or greater than that state’s number 39 of electoral votes, the presidential candidate on the presidential slate that has been designated as 40 the national popular vote winner shall have the power to nominate the presidential electors for 41 that state and that state’s presidential elector certifying official shall certify the appointment of 42 such nominees. The chief election official of each member state shall immediately release to the 43 public all vote counts or statements of votes as they are determined or obtained.

44 This article shall govern the appointment of presidential electors in each member state in 45 any year in which this agreement is, on July 20, in effect in states cumulatively possessing a 46 majority of the electoral votes.

47 Article IV—Other Provisions

48 This agreement shall take effect when states cumulatively possessing a majority of the 49 electoral votes have enacted this agreement in substantially the same form and the enactments by 50 such states have taken effect in each state.

51 Any member state may withdraw from this agreement, except that a withdrawal 52 occurring six months or less before the end of a President’s term shall not become effective until 53 a President or Vice President shall have been qualified to serve the next term.

54 The chief executive of each member state shall promptly notify the chief executive of all 55 other states of when this agreement has been enacted and has taken effect in that official’s state,
56 when the state has withdrawn from this agreement, and when this agreement takes effect 57 generally.

58 This agreement shall terminate if the electoral college is abolished.

59 If any provision of this agreement is held invalid, the remaining provisions shall not be 60 affected.

61 Article V–Definitions

62 For purposes of this agreement,

63 “chief executive” shall mean the Governor of a State of the United States or the Mayor of 64 the District of Columbia;

65 “elector slate” shall mean a slate of candidates who have been nominated in a state for the 66 position of presidential elector in association with a presidential slate;

67 “chief election official” shall mean the state official or body that is authorized to certify 68 the total number of popular votes for each presidential slate;

69 “presidential elector” shall mean an elector for President and Vice President of the United 70 States;

71 “presidential elector certifying official” shall mean the state official or body that is 72 authorized to certify the appointment of the state’s presidential electors;

73 “presidential slate” shall mean a slate of two persons, the first of whom has been 74 nominated as a candidate for President of the United States and the second of whom has been 75 nominated as a candidate for Vice President of the United States, or any legal successors to such 76 persons, regardless of whether both names appear on the ballot presented to the voter in a 77 particular state;

78 “state” shall mean a State of the United States and the District of Columbia; and

79 “statewide popular election” shall mean a general election in which votes are cast for 80 presidential slates by individual voters and counted on a statewide basis.
