

HOUSE No. 4416

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Nine

An Act concerning the position of police chief in the Town of Belmont..

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 97 or 97A of Chapter 41 of the 2 General Laws, or of any other general or special law to the contrary, there shall be a chief of 3 police in the town of Belmont appointed by the Belmont board of selectmen who shall have and 4 exercise all the powers and discharge all the duties conferred by law generally upon police 5 chiefs, and shall appoint such police officers as he/she may deem necessary, and may remove the 6 same at any time for cause and after a hearing. He//She shall have full and absolute authority in 7 the administration of the police department, shall make all rules and regulations for its operation,
8 shall report to the board of selectmen from time to time as it may require, and shall annually 9 report to the town the condition of the department with his/her recommendations thereon; he/she 10 shall fix the compensation of all members of the department, subject to the approval of the 11 selectmen. The chief shall be in immediate control of all town property used by the department, 12 and of the police officers, whom he/she shall assign to the respective duties and who shall obey 13 his/her orders.

14 SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage.
