

HOUSE No. 4658

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Ten

An Act Regulating Psychotherapy..

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 88 of chapter 13 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2008
2 Official edition, is hereby amended by striking the entire section and inserting in place thereof 3 the following:

4 Section 88. There shall be within the division of professional licensure a board of 5 registration of allied mental health and human services professions, in this section and sections 6 eighty-nine and ninety, which shall consist of thirteen members, one of whom shall be elected as 7 chairperson, to be appointed in the manner provided by section eighty-nine. Members shall be 8 appointed for a term of three years. No member shall be appointed to more than two consecutive 9 full terms; provided, however, that a member appointed for less than a full term may serve two 10 full terms in addition to such part of a full term, and a former member shall again be eligible for 11 appointment after a lapse of one or more years.

12 Any member of the board may be removed by the governor for neglect of duty, 13 misconduct or malfeasance, or misfeasance in office after being given a written statement of the 14 charges against him and sufficient opportunity to be heard thereon. No member may be removed

15 without a public hearing with at least thirty days prior written notice of the charges and the date 16 fixed for such hearing. All board members shall be subject to chapter 268A. No board member 17 shall participate in any matter before the board in which a pecuniary interest, personal bias, or 18 other similar conflict of interest is established.

19 Members shall receive no compensation but shall be entitled to reasonable travel 20 expenses. The members of the board shall be public employees for the purposes of chapter 258 21 for all acts or omissions within the scope of their duties as board members.

22 SECTION 2. Section 89 of said chapter 13 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 23 2008 Official edition, is hereby amended by striking the entire section and inserting in place
24 thereof the following:

25 Section 89. The governor shall appoint members of the board only from among the 26 candidates who meet the following qualifications:

27 (A) Ten members shall be licensed practicing mental health and human services 28 professionals, two of whom shall be marriage and family therapists, two of whom shall be 29 rehabilitation counselors, two of whom shall be clinical mental health counselors, two of whom 30 shall be educational psychologists, two of whom shall be autonomous psychoanalytic 31 psychotherapists or autonomous psychoanalysts; and each shall have been, for at least five years 32 immediately preceding appointment, actively engaged as a practitioner rendering professional 33 services in that field, or in the education and training of graduate students or interns in the field, 34 or in appropriate human developmental research, or in other areas substantially equivalent 35 thereto, and shall have spent the majority of the professional time in such activity during the two 36 years preceding the appointment in the commonwealth, and 37 (B) Three members shall be representatives of the general public who have no direct 38 affiliation with the practice of any allied mental health or human services profession.

39 The appointment of any member of the board shall automatically terminate within thirty 40 days after the date such member is no longer a resident of the commonwealth.

41 Each appointee shall, upon accepting appointment to the board, take and subscribe to the 42 oath or affirmation prescribed by law, and file the same in the office of secretary of state.

43 SECTION 3. Section 90 of said chapter 13 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 44 2008 Official edition, is hereby amended by striking the entire section and inserting in place
45 thereof the following:

46 Section 90. The board shall hold at least two regular meetings each year, but additional 47 meetings may be held upon the call of the chairperson, or the secretary, or upon the written 48 request of any two board members. A majority of the members of the board then appointed shall 49 constitute a quorum; provided, however, that at least one of those present shall be a member who 50 was selected from and who represents the general public.

51 The board shall administer and enforce the provisions of sections one hundred and sixty-52 three to one hundred and seventy-two, inclusive, of chapter one hundred and twelve. Said board 53 shall promulgate regulations which set forth education requirements necessary for a person to be 54 licensed under the provisions of sections one hundred sixty-five, one hundred sixty-five A, and 55 one hundred sixty-five B of said chapter one hundred and twelve; and the board may, from time 56 to time, adopt such rules and regulations as it deems necessary to carry out the performance of its 57 duties.

58 The director of the division of professional licensure shall have authority to review and 59 approve rules and regulations proposed by the board. Such regulations will be deemed approved 60 unless disapproved within fifteen days of submission to said director; provided, however, that 61 any such disapproval shall be in writing setting forth the reasons for such disapproval.

62 Said board, or its agent, shall examine and pass on the qualifications of all applicants for 63 licenses under sections one hundred and sixty-three to one hundred and seventy-two, inclusive, 64 of chapter one hundred and twelve, and shall issue a license to each successful applicant therefor, 65 attesting to their professional qualifications to be a licensed allied mental health and human 66 services professional. After a person has applied for licensure, no member of the board may 67 supervise such applicant for a fee nor shall any member vote on any applicant previously 68 supervised by such member.

69 Said board may recommend to the governor and the general court, after a public hearing 70 which shall be advertised by publication of notices to the appropriate mental health and human 71 service professional organizations and in major media outlets throughout the commonwealth, 72 modifications and amendments to sections eighty-eight, eighty-nine and this section and sections 73 one hundred and sixty-three to one hundred and seventy-two, inclusive, of chapter one hundred 74 and twelve.

75 Said board shall cause examinations to be held not less than twice annually and shall 76 evaluate examinations to keep them free from cultural bias.

77 Said board shall annually publish a list of names and addresses of persons who are 78 licensed under sections one hundred and sixty-three to one hundred and seventy-two inclusive, of 79 chapter one hundred and twelve.

80 Fees for initial and renewal applications shall be determined annually by the secretary of 81 administration and finance under the provisions of section three B of chapter seven.

82 Said board shall establish regulations for continuing educational requirements for 83 licensees. Said regulations shall not require more than thirty contact hours per year, on average 84 through the term of the license, of approved continuing education programs as a condition for 85 continuing registration.

86 Said board shall cause public hearings to be held prior to setting specifications for any 87 continuing educational requirements.

88 The board shall establish procedures to permit consumers to file written complaints 89 against licensed individuals and investigate and take appropriate action on such complaints.

90 SECTION 4. Section 65A of chapter 112 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2008
91 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking out the first sentence and inserting in place 92 thereof the following sentence:—

93 Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, (i) each board of registration 94 under the supervision of the division of professional licensure, (ii) each board of registration 95 under the supervision of the department of public health and (iii), in the case of violations of 96 section 65F, the division of professional licensure may, after a consent agreement between the 97 parties or after an opportunity for an adjudicatory proceeding held pursuant to chapter 30A, 98 assess and collect a civil administrative penalty not to exceed $1,000 for the first violation and a 99 civil administrative penalty not to exceed $2,500 for a second or subsequent violation upon a 100 person who, without holding the required license, certificate, registration or authority, engages in

101 the practice of a trade or profession for which a license, certificate, registration or authority is 102 required.

103 SECTION 5. Said chapter 112 as appearing in the 2008 Official Edition is hereby 104 amended by inserting after section 65E the following section:—

105 Section 65F. Persons shall not hold themselves out to the public as psychotherapists or 106 represent that the service they are offering is psychotherapy, unless (a) they are currently 107 licensed by the board of registration in medicine and practicing within the scope of such license 108 and have completed training in psychiatry, or (b) they are currently licensed by the board of 109 registration in nursing and are practicing within the scope of such license and have completed 110 training in psychiatric nursing, or (c) they are currently licensed by the board of registration of 111 psychologists, the board of registration of social workers, or the board of registration of allied 112 mental health and human services professionals and they are practicing within the scope of 113 practice of such license, or (d) they are a student, intern, or person fulfilling supervised 114 experience for licensure in the above professions under the qualified supervision of a licensee.
115 Any person who violates this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for the 116 first offense and by a fine of not more than $2,500 for a second or subsequent offense.

117 SECTION 6. Said chapter 112 as appearing in the 2008 Official Edition is hereby 118 amended by replacing Sections 163 and 164 with the following:

119 Section 163. As used in sections one hundred and sixty-three to one hundred and 120 seventy-two, inclusive, the following words shall, unless the context clearly requires otherwise, 121 have the following meanings:—

122 “Advertise”, includes, but is not limited to, distributing or causing to be distributed any 123 card, sign or device to any person; or the causing, permitting or allowing of any sign or marking 124 on or in any building or structure, or in any newspaper or magazine or in any directory, or on 125 radio, television or other electronic medium, or by the use of any other means designed to secure 126 public attention.

127 “Allied mental health and human services professional”, an educational psychologist, a 128 marriage and family therapist, a mental health counselor, an autonomous psychoanalytic 129 psychotherapist, an autonomous psychoanalyst, or a rehabilitation counselor.

130 “Approved Continuing Education”, continuing education such as research and training 131 programs, college and university courses, in-service training programs, seminars and conferences 132 designed to maintain and enhance the skills of allied mental health and human services 133 professionals and which are recognized by the board.

134 “Autonomous psychoanalyst”, a person so licensed under section one hundred and sixty-135 five B.

136 “Autonomous psychoanalytic psychotherapist”, a person so licensed under section one 137 hundred and sixty-five A.

138 “Board”, the Massachusetts board of registration of allied mental health and human 139 services professions.

140 “Educational psychologist”, a person so licensed under section one hundred and sixty-141 five.

142 “Marriage and family therapist”, a person so licensed under section one hundred and 143 sixty-five.

144 “Mental health counselor”, a person so licensed under section one hundred and sixty-five.

145 “Practice of educational psychology”, the rendering of professional services to 146 individuals, groups, organizations, or the public for compensation, monetary or otherwise. Such 147 professional services shall include, but not be limited to: applying psychological principles, 148 methods and procedures in the delivery of services to individuals, groups, families, educational 149 institutions and staff and community agencies for the purpose of promoting mental health and 150 facilitating learning. Such services may be preventative, developmental or remedial and include 151 psychological and psychoeducational assessment, therapeutic intervention, program planning and 152 evaluation, research, teaching in the field of educational psychology, consultation and referral to 153 other psychiatric, psychological, medical and educational resources when necessary.

154 “Practice of marriage and family therapy”, the rendering of professional services to 155 individuals, family groups, couples, or organizations, either public or private for compensation, 156 monetary or otherwise. Said professional services shall include, but not be limited to, applying 157 principles, methods and therapeutic techniques for the purpose of resolving emotional conflicts, 158 modifying perceptions and behavior, enhancing communications and understanding among all 159 family members and the prevention of family and individual crisis. Individual marriage and 160 family therapists may also engage in psychotherapy of a nonmedical nature with appropriate 161 referrals to psychiatric resources and research and teaching in the overall field of human 162 development and interpersonal relationships.

163 “Practice of mental health counseling”, the rendering of professional services to 164 individuals, families, or groups for compensation, monetary or otherwise. These professional 165 services include: applying the principles, methods and theories of counseling, human 166 development, learning theory, group and family dynamics, the etiology of mental illness and 167 dysfunctional behavior and psychotherapeutic techniques to define goals and develop treatment 168 plans aimed toward the prevention, treatment and resolution of mental and emotional 169 dysfunction and intra or interpersonal disorders in all persons irrespective of diagnosis. The 170 practice of mental health counseling shall include, but not be limited to, diagnosis and treatment, 171 counseling and psychotherapy, of a nonmedical nature of mental and emotional disorders and the 172 psychoeducational techniques aimed at prevention of such disorders and consultations to 173 individuals, couples, families, groups, organizations and communities. Practice of mental health 174 counseling in independent practice with individuals diagnosed with psychosis may be undertaken 175 by a licensed mental health counselor: (a) who is licensed under section 165 on or after March 1, 176 1992; or (b) who was licensed prior to March 1, 1992 and who meets the certification criteria for 177 independent practice with individuals diagnosed with psychosis as established by the board of 178 registration of allied mental health and human services professions.

179 “Practice of psychoanalysis”, the rendering of professional services to individuals, 180 families, groups of individuals, organizations or members of the public, for compensation, 181 monetary or otherwise. These professional services shall include, but not be limited to, applying 182 the principles, methods, and theories of psychoanalysis to the prevention, observation, 183 identification, evaluation, interpretation, or resolution of mental, emotional, family, or social 184 dysfunction in all persons, irrespective of diagnosis. Psychoanalytic principles and methods 185 address dynamic conscious and unconscious mental processes to facilitate modifications in 186 character, behavior, and affect that lead to more constructive or satisfactory functioning through 187 the use of verbal and non-verbal, cognitive and emotional communication, including an in depth 188 exploration of the unconscious aspects of the client's relationship with the analyst, the 189 unconscious meaning of communications, and the way current problems relate to early conflicts 190 and feelings. The practice of psychoanalysis shall include, but not be limited to, the use of 191 psychotherapy and counseling to diagnose and treat dysfunctions and disorders.

192 “Practice of psychoanalytic psychotherapy”, the rendering of professional services to 193 individuals, families, groups of individuals, organizations or members of the public, for 194 compensation, monetary or otherwise. These professional services shall include, but not be 195 limited to, applying modified psychoanalytic principles and theories and psychotherapeutic 196 techniques to the prevention, observation, identification, evaluation, interpretation, or resolution 197 of mental, emotional, family, or social dysfunction in all persons, irrespective of diagnosis.
198 Psychoanalytic psychotherapy addresses conscious and unconscious mental processes to 199 facilitate modifications in behavior, work and life adaptation, and mental health through the use 200 of verbal and non-verbal communication, including an emphasis on the way current problems 201 relate to early experience. The practice of psychoanalytic psychotherapy shall include, but not be 202 limited to, the use of psychotherapy and counseling to diagnose and treat dysfunctions and 203 disorders.

204 “Practice of rehabilitation counseling”, the rendering of professional services for 205 compensation, monetary or otherwise. These professional services include the application of 206 principles, methods and techniques of the rehabilitation counseling profession such as client 207 assessment, job analysis, vocational assessment, counseling and job development for the purpose 208 of maximizing or restoring the capacities of physically or mentally handicapped individuals for

209 self-sufficiency and independent living including vocational and social functioning and creating 210 those conditions favorable to this goal. The practice of rehabilitation counseling shall include, 211 but not be limited to: assisting individuals in the coordination of appropriate services; counseling 212 with individuals, families or groups; serving an advocacy role with communities or groups 213 toward the provision or implementation of rehabilitation services; research and teaching in the 214 field of rehabilitation counselor education.

215 “Psychoanalyst”, an individual who is licensed as an autonomous psychoanalyst or is a 216 recognized mental health professional who has received a post-master’s certificate or doctoral 217 degree in psychoanalysis from a recognized psychoanalytic training institution.

218 “Psychoanalytic Psychotherapist”, an individual who is licensed as an autonomous 219 psychoanalytic psychotherapist or is a recognized mental health professional engaged in the 220 practice of psychoanalytic psychotherapy.

221 “Recognized educational institution”, any degree-granting educational institution which 222 is recognized by the board and by a nationally or regionally recognized educational or 223 professional accrediting organization; provided, however, that such organization is also approved 224 by the United States Department of Education. In its discretion, the board may recognize 225 additional educational institutions.

226 “Recognized psychoanalytic training institution”, any psychoanalytic training institution 227 which grants a post-master’s certificate or doctoral degree in psychoanalysis and is accredited by 228 an accrediting organization recognized by the board.

229 “Recognized mental health professional”, a licensed alcohol and drug counselor, a 230 licensed allied mental health and human services professional, a licensed physician who has

231 completed training in psychiatry, a licensed psychiatric nurse mental health clinical specialist, a 232 licensed psychologist, or a licensed social worker.

233 “Rehabilitation counselor”, a person so licensed under section one hundred and sixty-234 five.

235 “Use a title or description of”, means to hold oneself out to the public as having a 236 particular status by means of statements on signs, mailboxes, address plates, stationery, 237 announcement, calling cards, web pages, or other instruments of professional identification.

238 Section 164. Except as otherwise provided in sections one hundred and sixty-three to one 239 hundred and seventy-two, inclusive, no individual who is not licensed or exempted from 240 licensure under said sections shall practice, advertise the performance of, or use a title or 241 description of:

242 (1) psychoanalytic psychotherapist, psychoanalytic therapist;

243 (2) educational psychologist, specialist, advisor or consultant;

244 (3) mental health counselor, advisor or consultant;

245 (4) marital or marriage and family therapist, advisor or consultant;

246 (5) psychoanalyst, analyst (when used in conjunction with mental health services); or 247 (6) rehabilitation counselor, specialist, advisor or consultant.

248 Except as otherwise provided in section 65F, the following shall be exempt from this 249 section:

250 (1) recognized mental health professionals;

251 (2) students in the discipline of a recognized mental health professional so long as they 252 are following the statutes and regulations of that profession.

253 (3) students, interns, or other trainees in an allied mental health and human services 254 profession receiving qualified supervision approved by the board, and whose training status is 255 designated by titles such as “mental health counseling student” or “marriage and family therapy 256 intern”.

257 Except as otherwise provided in section 65F, nothing in this section shall be construed to 258 prevent qualified members of other professions including Christian Science practitioners, 259 registered nurses, physicians, attorneys, or members of the clergy from doing the work consistent 260 with the accepted standards of their respective professions; provided, however, that no such 261 person shall use a title stating or implying that they are an allied mental health and human 262 services professional.

263 Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent members of peer groups or self-help 264 groups from performing peer counseling or self-help activities which may be, wholly or in part, 265 included as a defined professional service in section one hundred and sixty-three; provided, 266 however, that no members of peer groups or self-help groups shall use a title stating or implying 267 that they are an allied mental health or human services professional.

268 SECTION 7. Said chapter 112 as appearing in the 2008 Official Edition is hereby 269 amended by adding Sections 165A and 165B following Sections 165, as follows:

270 Section 165A. The board may issue a license to an applicant as an autonomous 271 psychoanalytic psychotherapist provided that each such applicant shall provide satisfactory 272 evidence to the board that such applicant: (1) is of good moral character; (2) has not engaged or 273 is not engaging in any practice or conduct which would be grounds for refusing to issue a license 274 under section one hundred and sixty-nine; (3) has successfully completed a master's degree, or 275 higher, from a recognized educational institution; (4) has successfully completed a program in 276 psychoanalytic psychotherapy that includes a minimum of 1200 clock hours of training from a 277 recognized psychoanalytic training institution chartered by the Commonwealth to offer a 278 master's degree or higher. Such hours may also fulfill requirements for (3) of this Section.
279 Within the 1200 clock hours, the applicant shall have completed at least 600 clock hours of 280 academic work, in such courses as the board shall specify, and shall have completed at least 600 281 clock hours in an internship with such direct client contact and supervision as the board shall 282 specify, so long as 50% of such supervision is with a psychoanalyst; (5) additionally, the 283 applicant shall complete supervised clinical experience of not less than 1500 hours, which 284 includes such direct client contact, supervision, and personal analysis as the board shall specify,
285 so long as 50% of such supervision is with a psychoanalyst, and so long as the applicant
286 completes a minimum of 150 hours of personal analysis with a psychoanalyst; and (6) the 287 applicant shall successfully pass a written or oral examination overseen by the board to 288 determine the applicant's qualifications for licensure pursuant to this section.

289 Individuals formerly practicing legally as psychoanalytic psychotherapists in other 290 jurisdictions may be licensed in the Commonwealth without examination if, in the opinion of the 291 board, their academic and experiential training is substantially equivalent to that required by this 292 section and the regulations of the board.

293 For a period of one year following the enactment of regulations in support of this act, 294 individuals engaged in the practice of psychoanalytic psychotherapy shall be grandfathered and 295 exempted from the foregoing items (3) through (6) provided that they are of good moral 296 character and have not been engaging in practice or conduct that would otherwise disqualify 297 them from licensure.

298 Section 165B. The board may issue a license to an applicant as an autonomous 299 psychoanalyst provided that each such applicant shall provide satisfactory evidence to the board 300 that such applicant: (1) is of good moral character; (2) has not engaged or is not engaging in any 301 practice or conduct which would be grounds for refusing to issue a license under section one 302 hundred and sixty-nine; (3) has successfully completed a master's degree, or higher, from a 303 recognized educational institution; (4) has successfully completed a program in psychoanalysis 304 which includes a minimum of 2250 clock hours of training from a recognized psychoanalytic 305 training institution chartered by the Commonwealth to offer a master's degree or higher. Such 306 hours may also fulfill requirements for (3) of this Section. Within the 2250 clock hours, the 307 applicant shall have completed at least 1100 clock hours of academic work in such courses as the 308 board shall specify, shall have completed at least 600 clock hours in an internship with such 309 direct client contact and supervision as the board shall specify, so long as 50% of such 310 supervision is with a psychoanalyst, and shall have completed supervised psychoanalytic 311 practice totaling not less than 550 hours, with such direct client contact and supervision as the 312 board shall specify, so long as such supervision is with a psychoanalyst; (5) additionally, the 313 applicant shall complete supervised clinical experience totaling not less than 1700 hours, which 314 includes such direct client contact, supervision, and personal analysis as the board shall specify,
315 so long as 50% of such supervision is with a psychoanalyst, and so long as the applicant

316 completes a minimum of 350 hours of personal analysis with a psychoanalyst; and (6) the 317 applicant shall successfully pass a written or oral examination overseen by the board to 318 determine the applicant's qualifications for licensure pursuant to this section.

319 Individuals formerly practicing legally as psychoanalysts in other jurisdictions may be 320 licensed in the Commonwealth without examination if, in the opinion of the board, their 321 academic and experiential training is substantially equivalent to that required by this section and 322 the regulations of the board.

323 For a period of one year following the enactment of regulations in support of this act, 324 individuals engaged in the practice of psychoanalysis shall be grandfathered and exempted from 325 the foregoing items (3) through (6) provided that they are of good moral character and have not 326 been engaging in practice or conduct that would otherwise disqualify them from licensure.
