4 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking out, in lines 16 and 31, the words ‘criminal 5 history systems board’ and inserting in place thereof the following words:- department of 6 criminal justice information services.

7 SECTION 2. Section 167 of said chapter 6, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 8 striking out, in line 2, the words ‘one hundred and sixty eight to one hundred seventy eight’ and 9 inserting in place thereof the following words:- 168 to 178L.

10 SECTION 3. Said section 167 of said chapter 6, as so appearing, is hereby further 11 amended by inserting before the definition of ‘Criminal justice agencies’ the following 3 12 definitions:-

13 ‘All available criminal offender record information’, adult and youthful offender 14 convictions, nonconvictions and pending criminal court appearances, but excluding criminal 15 records sealed under section 34 of chapter 94C or sections 100A to 100C, inclusive, of chapter 16 276 or the existence of such records.

17 ‘Board’, the criminal record review board established pursuant to section 168.

18 ‘Commissioner’, the commissioner of the department of criminal justice information 19 services established pursuant to section 167A.

20 SECTION 4. Said section 167 of said chapter 6, as so appearing, is hereby further 21 amended by inserting after the definition of ‘Evaluative information’ the following new 22 definition:-

23 ‘Executive office’, the executive office of public safety and security.

24 SECTION 5. Said section 167 of said chapter 6, as so appearing, is hereby further 25 amended by inserting after the definition of ‘Criminal offender record information’ the following 26 definition:-

27 ‘Department’, the department of criminal justice information services established 28 pursuant to section 167A.

29 SECTION 6. Said section 167 of said chapter 6, as so appearing, is hereby further 30 amended by inserting after the definition of ‘Interstate systems’ the following definition:-

31 ‘Person’, a natural person, corporation, association, partnership or other legal entity.

SECTION 7. Said section 167 of said chapter 6, as so appearing, is hereby further amended by inserting after the definition of ‘Purge’ the following 3 definitions:-

‘Requestor’, a person, other than a criminal justice agency, submitting a request for criminal offender record information to the department.

‘Secretary’, the secretary of the executive office of public safety and security.

‘Self-audit’, an inquiry made by a subject or his legally authorized designee to obtain a log of all queries to the department by any requestor for the subject’s criminal offender record information; provided, however, that a self-audit shall not include information relative to a query conducted by a criminal justice agency.

‘Subject’, an individual for whom a request for criminal offender record information is submitted.

SECTION 8. Said chapter 6 is hereby further amended by inserting after section 167 the following section:-

Section 167A. (a) There shall be within the executive office a department of criminal justice information services which shall be under the supervision and control of a commissioner. The commissioner shall be appointed by the secretary and shall be a person of skill and experience in the field of criminal justice. The commissioner shall be the executive and administrative head of the department and shall be responsible for administering and enforcing the provisions of law relative to the department and to each administrative unit thereof. The commissioner shall serve at the pleasure of the secretary, shall receive such salary as may be determined by law, and shall devote his full time to the duties of his office. In the case of an

53 absence or vacancy in the office of the commissioner, or in the case of disability as determined 54 by the secretary, the secretary may designate an acting commissioner to serve as commissioner 55 until the vacancy is filled or the absence or disability ceases. The acting commissioner shall have 56 all the powers and duties of the commissioner and shall have similar qualifications as the 57 commissioner. The commissioner shall not be subject to the provisions of chapter 31 or section 58 9A of chapter 30.

59 (b) The commissioner may appoint such persons as he shall deem necessary to perform 60 the functions of the department, provided that the provisions of chapter 31 and section 9A of 61 chapter 30 shall not apply to any person holding any such appointment. Every person so 62 appointed to any position in the department shall have experience and skill in the field of such 63 position. So far as practicable in the judgment of the commissioner, appointments to such 64 positions in the department shall be made by promoting or transferring employees of the 65 commonwealth serving in positions which are classified under chapter 31, and such 66 appointments shall at all times reflect the professional needs of the administrative unit affected.
67 If an employee serving in a position which is classified under chapter 31 or in which an 68 employee has tenure by reason of said section 9A of said chapter 30 shall be appointed to a 69 position within the department which is not subject to the provisions of said chapter 31, the 70 employee shall upon termination of his service in such position be restored to the position which 71 he held immediately prior to such appointment; provided, however, that his service in such 72 position shall be determined by the civil service commission in accordance with the standards 73 applied by said commission in administering said chapter 31. Such restoration shall be made 74 without impairment of his civil service status or tenure under said section 9A of said chapter 30 75 and without loss of seniority, retirement or other rights to which uninterrupted service in such 76 prior position would have entitled him. During the period of such appointment, each person so 77 appointed from a position in the classified civil service shall be eligible to take any competitive 78 promotional examination for which he would otherwise have been eligible.

79 (c) The department shall provide for and exercise control over the installation, operation 80 and maintenance of data processing and data communication systems, hereinafter called the 81 public safety information system, which shall include, but shall not be limited to, the criminal 82 justice information system. The system shall be designed to ensure the prompt collection, 83 exchange, dissemination and distribution of such public safety information as may be necessary 84 for the efficient administration and operation of criminal justice agencies, and to connect such 85 systems directly or indirectly with similar systems in this or other states. The department shall be 86 responsible for all data processing, management of the public safety information system, 87 supervision of all personnel associated with the system and the appointment of all such 88 personnel.

89 (d) The department shall provide access to the public safety information system to 90 criminal justice agencies. The department may, subject to chapter 30A, hear and investigate 91 complaints pertaining to misuse of the public safety information system and issue sanctions and 92 penalties for misuse. The commissioner may refer complaints for further review to the criminal 93 record review board, any state or federal agency or prosecuting authority.

94 (e) The department may promulgate rules and regulations for: (i) the implementation, 95 administration and enforcement of this section; (ii) the control, installation and operation of the 96 public safety information system accessed and utilized by criminal justice agencies; and the collection, storage, access, dissemination, content, organization and use of criminal offender record information by noncriminal justice agencies.

SECTION 9. Section 168 of said chapter 6, as appearing in the 2008 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking out the first paragraph and inserting in place thereof the following paragraph:-

There shall be a criminal history systems board, hereinafter called the board, consisting of the following persons: the secretary of public safety and security, who shall serve as chair, the secretary of labor and workforce development, the attorney general, the chair of the Massachusetts sentencing commission, the chief counsel for the committee for public counsel services, the chair of the parole board, the commissioner of the department of correction, the commissioner of probation, the commissioner of the department of youth services and the colonel of state police, or their designees, all of whom shall serve ex officio, and 10 persons to be appointed by the governor for a term of 3 years, 1 of whom shall represent the Massachusetts District Attorneys Association, 1 of whom shall represent the Massachusetts Sheriffs' Association, 1 of whom shall represent the Massachusetts Chiefs of Police Association, 1 of whom shall represent private users of criminal offender record information, 1 of whom shall be a victim of crime, 1 of whom shall be a provider of victim services, 2 of whom shall have experience in the areas of workforce development, ex-offender rehabilitation or economic development and 2 of whom shall be persons who have experience in issues relating to personal privacy.

SECTION 10. Said section 168 of said chapter 6, as so appearing, is hereby further amended by striking out, in lines 50 and 51, the words 'five hundred dollars for each willful violation thereof, after notice and hearing as provided by applicable law' and inserting in place thereof the following words:- $5,000 for each knowing violation thereof, after notice and hearing as provided by applicable law; provided, however, that the board shall not issue any orders, sanctions or fines against a law enforcement officer who, in good faith, obtains or seeks to obtain or communicates or seeks to communicate criminal offender record information in the furtherance of the officer's official duties.

SECTION 11. Said section 168 of said chapter 6, as so appearing, is hereby further amended by striking out the fourth and sixth paragraphs.

SECTION 12. Said chapter 6 is hereby further amended by striking out section 168, as so appearing, and inserting in place thereof the following section:

Section 168. (a) There shall be a criminal record review board within the Massachusetts department of criminal justice information services consisting of the following persons: the secretary of public safety and security, who shall serve as chair, the attorney general, the secretary of labor and workforce development, the chair of the Massachusetts sentencing commission, the chief counsel for the committee for public counsel services, the chair of the parole board, the commissioner of the department of correction, the commissioner of probation, the commissioner of the department of youth services, the colonel of state police and the presidents of the Massachusetts District Attorneys Association, the Massachusetts Sheriffs' Association and the Massachusetts Chiefs of Police Association, or their designees, all of whom shall serve ex officio, and 5 persons to be appointed by the governor, 1 of whom shall represent private users of criminal offender record information, 1 of whom shall be a victim of crime, 1 of whom shall have experience in the areas of workforce development or exoffender rehabilitation and 2 of whom shall be persons who have experience in issues relating to personal privacy. Upon the expiration of the term of any appointive member, his successor shall be appointed in a like manner for a term of 3 years

The chair shall hold regular meetings, 1 of which shall be an annual meeting, and shall notify all board members of the time and place of all meetings. Special meetings may be called at any time by a majority of the board members and shall be called by the chair upon written application of 9 or more members. Members of the board shall serve without compensation but shall be reimbursed for their expenses actually and necessarily incurred in the discharge of their official duties.

(b) The board may hear complaints and investigate any allegation against a person that has requested or received criminal offender record information has failed to provide the subject with the criminal offender record information in the individual or agency's possession prior to questioning the subject about his criminal history in connection with a decision regarding employment, volunteer opportunities, housing or professional licensing or in connection with an adverse decision on such an application on the basis of the criminal offender record information. The board shall also have the authority to hear complaints and investigate any incidents alleging any other violation of sections 168 to 178A, inclusive, or board rules and regulations. The board may charge and collect a fee, established by the secretary of public safety and security, as a condition for filing a complaint, which fee may be waived upon a finding of indigency. A complaint filed with the board shall be supported by a written declaration by the complainant that it is made under the penalties of perjury. An answer filed by a responding party shall be signed under the penalties of perjury by an individual with personal knowledge of its contents. In conducting investigations or hearings the board or department, staff designated by the board shall 164 have the power to summons witnesses, compel their attendance and testimony, require the 165 production of books, records and documents, administer oaths and have access to all criminal 166 offender record information. The chair of the board may appoint a member, panel of 3 board 167 members or a hearing officer to conduct adjudicatory proceedings in accordance with chapter 168 30A or other rules that the board may promulgate. Following review of a complaint by a board 169 member, panel or hearing officer, the board, by a vote of two-thirds of the members present and 170 voting, shall issue a ruling as to the findings of the board. In accordance with its findings the 171 board may issue orders and sanctions including, but not limited to, a remand for additional fact 172 finding, the imposition of civil fines payable to the commonwealth not to exceed $5,000 for each 173 knowing violation or, conditions on continued access to criminal offender record information or 174 revocation of access; provided, however, that the board shall not issue any orders, sanctions or 175 fines against a law enforcement officer who, in good faith, obtains or seeks to obtain, or 176 communicates or seeks to communicate criminal offender record information in the furtherance 177 of the officer's official duties. The board may at any time refer a complaint for criminal 178 prosecution under section 178.

179 The board shall make an annual report of the volume and disposition of complaints, 180 without identifying data on any complainant or other information that would include criminal 181 offender record information relative to any person reviewed by the board, to the governor and 182 file a copy thereof with the state secretary, the attorney general, the clerk of the house of 183 representatives and the clerk of the senate. The annual report shall also be available to the public 184 upon request.

SECTION 13. Section 168A of said chapter 6, as so appearing, is hereby amended by striking out, in lines 3 and 4, the words ‘criminal history systems board’ and inserting in place thereof the following words:- department.

SECTION 14. Section 168B of said chapter 6, as so appearing, is hereby amended by striking out, in lines 1 and 2, the words ‘criminal history systems board’ and inserting in place thereof the following words:- department.

SECTION 15. Section 168C of said chapter 6, as so appearing, is hereby amended by striking out, in lines 4 and 5, the words ‘criminal history systems board’ and inserting in place thereof the following words:- department.

SECTION 16. Section 171 of said chapter 6, as so appearing, is hereby amended by striking out, in lines 1 and 10, the word ‘board’ and inserting in place thereof, in each instance, the following word:- department.

SECTION 17. Said section 171 of said chapter 6, as so appearing, is hereby further amended by striking out, in lines 3 to 7, inclusive, the words ‘(b) assuring the prompt and complete purging of criminal offender record information, insofar as such purging is required by any statute or administrative regulation, by the order of any court of competent jurisdiction, or to correct any errors shown to exist in such information; and (c) ‘ and inserting in place thereof the following:- ‘ ; and (b).’

SECTION 18. Said section 171 of said chapter 6, as so appearing, is hereby further amended by striking out, in lines 35 to 48, inclusive, the words ‘Any individual aggrieved by an agency’s decision denying access to evaluative information may appeal the denial in writing within thirty days thereafter to the board or to a three member panel thereof, as the board may determine, and the board or such panel or any court under section one hundred and seventy-seven shall have access to any certificate. The adoption of such regulations by each criminal justice agency shall be subject to the approval of the board, and shall be promulgated within time limits set by the board. If any criminal justice agency holding evaluative information fails to promulgate such regulations, then the board shall promulgate such regulations with respect to that criminal justice agency. Evaluative information shall be subject to the provisions of sections 172 and 178, as if such information was criminal offender record information.’.

SECTION 19. Said chapter 6 is hereby further amended by inserting after section 171 the following section:-

Section 171A. In connection with any decision regarding employment, volunteer opportunities, housing or professional licensing, a person in possession of an applicant’s criminal offender record information shall provide the applicant with the criminal history record in the person’s possession, whether obtained from the department or any other source, prior to questioning the applicant about his criminal history. If the person makes a decision adverse to the applicant on the basis of his criminal history, the person shall also provide the applicant with the criminal history record in the person’s possession, whether obtained from the department or any other source; provided, however, that if the person has provided the applicant with a copy of his criminal offender record information prior to questioning, the person shall not be required to provide the information a second time in connection with an adverse decision based on this information. Failure to provide such criminal history information to the applicant pursuant to this section may subject the offending person to investigation, hearing and sanctions by the board. Nothing in this section shall be construed to: (i) prohibit a person from making an adverse decision on the basis of an applicant’s criminal history; or (ii) to provide or permit a claim of an

230 unlawful practice under chapter 151B or an independent cause of action in a court of civil 231 jurisdiction for a claim arising out of an adverse decision based on criminal history except as 232 otherwise provided under chapter 151B.

233 A person who annually conducts 5 or more criminal background investigations, whether 234 criminal offender record information is obtained from the department or any other source, shall 235 maintain a written criminal offender record information policy providing that, in addition to any 236 obligations required by the commissioner by regulation, it will: (i) notify the applicant of the 237 potential adverse decision based on the criminal offender record information; (ii) provide a copy 238 of the criminal offender record information and the policy to the subject; and (iii) provide 239 information concerning the process for correcting a criminal record.

240 SECTION 20. Section 172 of said chapter 6, as appearing in the 2008 Official Edition, is 241 hereby amended by inserting after the word ‘privacy’, in lines 14 and 40, the following words:- 242 and the importance and value of successful reintegration of ex-offenders.

243 SECTION 21. Said chapter 6 is hereby further amended by striking out section 172, as so 244 appearing, and inserting in its place thereof the following section:-

245 Section 172. (a) The department shall maintain criminal offender record information in a 246 database, which shall exist in an electronic format and be accessible via the internet. Except as 247 otherwise provided in this chapter, access to the database shall be limited as follows:

248 (1) Criminal justice agencies may obtain all criminal offender record information, 249 including sealed records, for the actual performance of their criminal justice duties. Licensing 250 authorities, as defined in section 121 of chapter 140, may obtain all criminal offender record 251 information, including sealed records, for the purpose of firearms licensing in accordance with sections 121 to 131P, inclusive, of said chapter 140. The board may obtain all criminal offender record information, including sealed records, for the actual performance of its duties.

(2) Requestors authorized or required to obtain criminal record information other than that available under paragraph (3) to comply with a statutory, regulatory or accreditation requirement may obtain such information to the extent and for the purposes authorized to comply with said statute, regulation or accreditation requirement.

(3) Requestors or their legally designated representatives may obtain criminal offender record information for the following purposes: (a) to evaluate current and prospective employees including full-time, part-time, contract, internship employees or volunteers; (b) to evaluate applicants for rental or lease of housing; (c) to evaluate volunteers for services; and (d) to evaluate applicants for a professional or occupational license. Criminal offender record information made available under this section shall be limited to the following: (i) felony convictions for 10 years following their disposition, including termination of any period of incarceration or custody; (ii) misdemeanor convictions for 5 years following their disposition, including termination of any period of incarceration or custody; and (iii) pending criminal charges, which shall include cases that have been continued without a finding until such time as the case is dismissed pursuant to section 18 of chapter 278; provided, however, that criminal offender record information shall contain prior misdemeanor and felony conviction records that have been sealed pursuant to clauses (i) and (ii) if the subject is convicted of a misdemeanor or felony after the records are sealed under this section; and provided further that a violation of section 7 of chapter 209A and a violation of section 9 of chapter 258E shall be treated as a felony for purposes of this section.

(4) A member of the general public may, upon written request to the department and in accordance with regulations established by the department, obtain the following criminal offender record information on a subject: (i) convictions for any felony punishable by a term of imprisonment of 5 years or more; (ii) information indicating custody status and placement within the correction system for an individual who has been convicted of any crime and sentenced to any term of imprisonment, and at the time of the request is serving a sentence of probation or incarceration, or is under the custody of the parole board; (iii) felony convictions for 2 years following their disposition, including any period of incarceration or custody ; and (iv) misdemeanor convictions for 1 year following their disposition, including any period of incarceration or custody.

(5) Subjects who seek to obtain their own criminal offender record information, or their legally designated representative , may obtain all criminal offender record information pertaining to the subject pursuant to section 175.

(6) The commissioner may provide access to criminal offender record information to persons other than those entitled to obtain access pursuant to this section if the commissioner finds that such dissemination to such requestor serves the public interest. Upon such a finding, the commissioner shall also determine the extent of access to criminal offender record information necessary to sustain the public interest. The commissioner shall make an annual report to the governor and file a copy thereof with the state secretary, the attorney general, the clerk of the house of representatives and the clerk of the senate documenting access provided under this paragraph, without inclusion of identifying data on a subject. The annual report shall be available to the public upon request.

(7) Housing authorities operating pursuant to chapter 121B may obtain from the department conviction and pending criminal offender record information for the sole purpose of evaluating applications for housing owned by such housing authority, in order to further the protection and well-being of tenants of such housing authorities.

(8) The department public utilities established pursuant to chapter 25 may obtain from the department all available criminal offender record information for the purpose of screening applicants for motor bus driver certificates and applicants who regularly transport school age children or students under chapter 71B in the course of their job duties. The department of public utilities shall not disseminate such information for any purpose other than to further the protection of children.

(9) The department of children and families and the department of youth services may obtain from the department data permitted under section 172B.

(10) A person providing services in a home or community-based setting for any elderly person or disabled person or who will have direct or indirect contact with such elderly or disabled persons or access to such persons' files may obtain from the department data permitted under section 172C.

(11) The IV-D agency as set forth in chapter 119A may obtain from the department data permitted under section 172D and section 14 of chapter 119A.

(12) A long term care facility, as defined in section 72W of chapter 111, an assisted living residence as defined in section 1 of chapter 19D, and to any continuing care facility as defined in section 1 of chapter 40D may obtain from the department data permitted under section 172E.

318 (13) The department of early education and care may obtain from the department data 319 permitted under section 172F.

320 (14) Operators of camps for children may obtain from the department data permitted 321 under section 172G.

322 (15) An entity or organization primarily engaged in providing activities or programs to 323 children 18 years of age or less that accepts volunteers may obtain from the department data 324 permitted under section 172H.

325 (16) School committees or superintendents that have contracted with taxicab companies 326 to provide transportation of pupils pursuant to section 7A of chapter 71 may obtain from the 327 department data permitted under section 172I.

328 (17) The commissioner of banks may obtain from the department data permitted under 329 section 172J, section 3 of chapter 255E and section 3 of chapter 255F.

330 (18) A children's camp or school that plans to employ or accept as a volunteer for a 331 climbing wall or challenge course program may obtain from the department data permitted under 332 section 172K.

333 (20) A victim of crime, witness or family member of a homicide victim, as defined by 334 section 1 of chapter 258B, may obtain from the department data permitted under section 178A.

335 (21) The motor vehicle insurance merit rating board may obtain from the department data 336 permitted under section 183.

337 (22) The department of early education and care, or its designee, may obtain from the 338 department data permitted under section 6 and section 8 of chapter 15D.

339 (23) The district attorney may obtain from the department data permitted under section 340 2A of chapter 38.

341 (24) A school committee and superintendent of any city, town or regional school district 342 and the principal, by whatever title the position be known, of a public or accredited private 343 school of any city, town or regional school district may obtain from the department data 344 permitted under section 38R of chapter 71.

345 (25) The Massachusetts port authority may obtain from the department data permitted 346 under section 61 of chapter 90.

347 (26) The department of social services may obtain from the department data permitted 348 under section 26A of chapter 119, section 3B of chapter 210 and item 4800-8940 of section 2A 349 of chapter 493 of the acts of 1993 as amended by section 7 of chapter 96 of the acts of 1995.

350 (27) The state racing commission may obtain from the department data permitted under 351 section 9A of chapter 128A.

352 (28) A court, office of jury commissioner, and the clerk of court or assistant clerk may 353 obtain from the department data permitted under section 33 of chapter 234A.

354 (29) The pension fraud unit within the public employee retirement administration 355 commission may obtain from the department data permitted under section 10 of chapter 427 of 356 the acts of 1996.

357 (b) Notwithstanding the foregoing, convictions for murder, voluntary manslaughter, 358 involuntary manslaughter, and sex offenses as defined in section 178C that are punishable by a 359 term of incarceration in state prison shall remain in the database permanently and shall be available to all requestors listed in paragraphs (1) to (3), inclusive of subsection (a) unless sealed under section 100A of chapter 276.

(c) The department shall specify the information that requestors must provide to query the database, including, but not limited to, the subject's name, date of birth and the last 4 digits of the subject's social security number; provided, however, that a member of the public accessing information under paragraph (4) of subsection (a) shall not be required to provide the last 4 digits of the subject's social security number. Requestors seeking to obtain criminal offender record information concerning a subject pursuant to paragraph (2) or (3) of subsection (a), shall certify under the pains and penalties of perjury that the person requesting the criminal offender record information is authorized by the requestor to receive such information, that the request is for a purpose authorized under paragraph (2) or (3) of subsection (a) and that the subject has signed an acknowledgement form authorizing the requestor to obtain the subject's criminal offender record information. The requestor shall also certify that he has verified the identity of the subject by reviewing a form of government-issued identification. Each requestor shall maintain acknowledgement forms for a period of 1 year from the date the request is submitted. Such forms shall be subject to audit by the department. The department may establish rules or regulations imposing other requirements or affirmative obligations upon requestors as a condition of obtaining access to the database.

(d) Except as authorized herein, it shall be unlawful to request or require a person to provide a copy of his criminal offender record information. Violation of this subsection is punishable by the penalties set forth in section 178.

(e) No employer or person relying on volunteers shall be liable for negligent hiring practices by reason of relying solely on criminal offender record information received from the department and not performing additional criminal history background checks on the volunteer, unless required to do so by law; provided, however, that the employer made an employment decision within 90 days of obtaining the criminal offender record information and maintained and followed policies and procedures for verification of the subject's identifying information consistent with the requirements set forth in this section and in the department's regulations.

No employer shall be liable for discriminatory employment practices for the failure to hire a person on the basis of criminal offender record information that contains erroneous information requested and received from the department if the employer would not have been liable if the information had been accurate; provided, however, that the employer made an employment decision within 90 days of obtaining the criminal offender record information and maintained and followed policies and procedures for verification of the subject's information consistent with the requirements set forth in this section and the department's regulations.

Neither the board nor the department shall be liable in any civil or criminal action by reason of any criminal offender record information or self-audit log that is disseminated by the board, including any information that is false, inaccurate or incorrect because it was erroneously entered by the court or the office of the commissioner of probation.

(f) Requestors shall not disseminate criminal offender record information except: (i) upon request by a subject; (ii) to individuals within the requesting entity that need to know the contents of the criminal offender record information to serve the purpose for which the information was obtained; and (iii) upon request by government entities charged with overseeing, supervising, or regulating them.

Requestors shall maintain a secondary dissemination log for a period of 1 year following the dissemination of a subject's criminal offender record information. The log shall include the following information: (i) name of subject; (ii) date of birth of the subject; (iii) date of the dissemination; (iv) name of person to whom it was disseminated; and (v) the purpose for the dissemination. The secondary dissemination log shall be subject to audit by the department.

Unless otherwise provided by law or court order, no requestor shall maintain a copy, electronic or otherwise, of requested criminal offender record information obtained from the department for more than 7 years from the last date of employment, volunteer service or residency or from the date of the final decision of the requestor regarding the subject.

(g) The department shall maintain a log of all queries that shall indicate the name of the requestor, the name of the subject, the date of the query and the certified purpose of the query. Upon request, the commissioner may transmit the self-audit electronically. Further, if funding is available and technology reasonably allows, the department shall establish a mechanism that will notify a subject, or an advocate or agent designated by the subject, by electronic mail or other communication mechanism whenever a query is made regarding the subject. The self-audit log and query log shall not be considered a public record.

(h) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section to the contrary, the motor vehicle insurance merit rating board may disseminate information concerning convictions of automobile law violations as defined in section 1 of chapter 90C or information concerning a charge of operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor that results in assignment to a driver alcohol program as described in section 24D of chapter 90, directly or indirectly, to an insurance company doing motor vehicle insurance business within the commonwealth, or to such insurance company's agents, independent contractors or policyholders to be used exclusively for motor vehicle insurance purposes.

(i) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section to the contrary, information indicating custody status and placement within the correction system shall be available to any person upon request; provided, however that no information shall be disclosed that identifies family members, friends, medical or psychological history, or any other personal information unless such information is directly relevant to such release or custody placement decision, and no information shall be provided if its release would violate any other provisions of state or federal law.

(j) The parole board, subject to sections 130 and 154 of chapter 127, the department of correction, a county correctional authority or a probation officer with the approval of a justice of the appropriate division of the trial court may, in its discretion, make available a summary, which may include references to criminal offender record information or evaluative information, concerning a decision to release an individual on a permanent or temporary basis, to deny such release, or to change the individual's custody status.

(k) Members of the public who are in fear of an offender may obtain from the department advance notification of the temporary or permanent release of an offender from custody, including but not limited to expiration of a sentence, furlough, parole, work release or educational release. An individual seeking access to advance notification shall verify by a written

445 declaration under the penalties of perjury that the individual is in fear of the offender and that 446 advance notification is warranted for physical safety reasons.

447 (l) A person that receives or obtains criminal offender record information from any 448 source in violation of sections 168 to 175, inclusive, whether directly or through an intermediary, 449 shall not collect, store, disseminate or use such criminal offender record information in any 450 manner or for any purpose.

451 (m) Notwithstanding this section or chapter 66A, the following shall be public records:
452 (1) police daily logs, arrest registers or other similar records compiled chronologically; (2) 453 chronologically maintained court records of public judicial proceedings; (3) published records of 454 public court or administrative proceedings, and of public judicial administrative or legislative 455 proceedings; and (4) decisions of the parole board as provided in section 130 of chapter 127.

456 (n) The commissioner, upon the advice of the board, shall promulgate rules and 457 regulations to carry out the provisions of this section.

458 SECTION 22. Said chapter 6 is hereby further amended by striking out section 172A, as 459 so appearing, and inserting in place thereof the following section:-

460 Section 172A. The commissioner shall assess a fee for each request for criminal offender 461 record information or self-audit, according to a fee structure established by the secretary of 462 public safety and security; provided, however, that a self-audit may be requested for no fee once 463 every 90 days; and provided, further, that the commissioner may impose a fee for self-audit 464 requests made more than once every 90 days. No fee shall be assessed for a request made by a 465 victim of crime, a witness or a family member of a homicide victim, as defined in section 1 of 466 chapter 258B, or for a request made by any local, state or federal government entity. The commissioner may waive the fee or a portion of the fee from such other persons as provided in the department's rules and regulations. The department may enter into contracts and agreements for reduced or bulk fees for requestors who make extensive use of the database. All fees collected pursuant to this section shall be deposited into the Criminal Justice Information Services Fund established by section 2BBBB of chapter 29.

1056 shall facilitate the orderly transfer of the employees, proceedings, rules and regulations, property 1057 and legal obligations of the criminal history systems board, as the transferor agency, to the 1058 department of criminal justice information services, as the transferee agency, as follows:

(a) Subject to appropriation, the employees of the criminal history systems board, including those who immediately before the effective date of this act hold permanent appointment in positions classified under chapter 31 of the General Laws or have tenure in their positions as provided by section 9A of chapter 30 of the General Laws or do not hold such tenure, or hold confidential positions, are hereby transferred to the department of criminal justice information services, without interruption of service within the meaning of said section 9A of said chapter 31, without impairment of seniority, retirement or other rights of the employee, and without reduction in compensation or salary grade, notwithstanding any change in title or duties resulting from such reorganization, and without loss of accrued rights to holidays, sick leave, vacation and benefits and without change in union representation or certified collective bargaining unit as certified by the state labor relations commission or in local union representation or affiliation. Any collective bargaining agreement in effect immediately before the transfer date shall continue in effect and the terms and conditions of employment therein shall continue as if the employees had not been so transferred. The reorganization shall not impair the civil service status of any such reassigned employee who immediately before the effective date of this act either holds a permanent appointment in a position classified under chapter 31 of the General Laws or has tenure in a position by reason of section 9A of chapter 30 of the General Laws.

Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, all such employees shall continue to retain their right to collectively bargain pursuant to chapter 150E of the General Laws and shall be considered employees for the purposes of said chapter 150E.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to confer upon any employee any right not held immediately before the date of said transfer, or to prohibit any reduction of salary grade, transfer,

1082 reassignment, suspension discharge layoff or abolition of position not prohibited before such 1083 date.

1084 (b) All petitions, requests, investigations and other proceedings appropriately and duly 1085 brought before or referred to the executive director of the criminal history systems board by the 1086 transferor agency and pending before the executive director before the effective date of this act, 1087 shall continue unabated and remain in force, but shall be assumed and completed by the 1088 department of criminal justice information services.

1089 (c) All orders, rules and regulations duly made and all approvals duly granted by 1090 the criminal history systems board, which are in force immediately before the effective date of 1091 this act, shall continue in force and shall thereafter be enforced by the department of criminal 1092 justice information systems until superseded, revised, rescinded or canceled, in accordance with 1093 law.

1094 (d) All books, papers, records, documents, equipment, buildings, facilities, cash and other 1095 property, both personal and real, including all such property held in trust, which immediately 1096 before the effective date of this act are in the custody of the criminal history systems board, shall 1097 be transferred to the department of criminal justice information services.

1098 (e) All duly existing contracts, leases and obligations of the criminal history systems 1099 board shall continue in effect but shall be assumed by the department of criminal justice 1100 information services. No existing right or remedy of any character shall be lost, impaired or 1101 affected by this act.

1102 SECTION 125. Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, the term of 1103 any member appointed to the criminal record review board, established by section 168 of chapter

1104 6 of the General Laws, shall expire; provided, however, that any appointed board member whose 1105 term has expired pursuant to this section shall be eligible for reappointment to the board. Such 1106 appointments shall be made in accordance with said section 168 of said chapter 6.

1107 Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, in making initial 1108 appointments to the criminal record review board established pursuant to section 168 of chapter 1109 6 of the General Laws, amended by section 12 of this act, the governor shall appoint 1 member 1110 to serve for a term of 1 year, 2 members to serve for a term of 2 years and 2 members to serve for 1111 a term of 3 years.

1112 SECTION 126. The Massachusetts department of criminal justice information systems, 1113 in consultation with the information technology division, shall regularly report on its progress in 1114 building the information technology system necessary to fulfill the requirements established in 1115 subsection (a) of section 172 of chapter 6 of the General Laws, as amended by section 21 of this 1116 act. The department shall file such reports with the joint committee on the judiciary, the joint 1117 committee on public safety and homeland security, the house and senate committees on bonding, 1118 capital expenditures and state assets and the house and senate committees on ways and means 1119 and shall post such reports on the department's publicly-accessible website. The department shall 1120 file such reports 6, 12, 15 and 18 months after the effective date of this act, and at 3-month 1121 intervals thereafter, if necessary, until the project is complete. Each report shall include a 1122 description of the progress made in the planning, design and construction of the system since the 1123 preceding report, and shall include a comparison of actual expenditures to budgeted expenditures 1124 and of budgeted timelines to actual timelines. Each report shall also include a certification as to 1125 whether the department expects the complete information technology system to be fully 1126 operational 18 months after the effective date of this act.

1127 SECTION 127. The executive office of public safety and security, the criminal systems 1128 history board, or its successor, and the department of state police shall request the cooperation of 1129 the administrative office of the trial court and the office of the commissioner of probation in 1130 conducting a pilot program or programs in selected district courts to evaluate the feasibility and 1131 cost of biometric identification of all defendants arraigned in criminal cases in the courts of the 1132 commonwealth in order to create a biometric index for criminal records. The pilot program shall 1133 be implemented on or before December 31, 2010 and shall expire on June 30, 2012. The 1134 secretary of public safety and security in consultation with the criminal history systems board, or 1135 its successor, and the department of state police, shall issue a final report, which shall include the 1136 results of its review and analysis, to the joint committee on judiciary, the joint committee on 1137 public safety and homeland security and the house and senate committees on ways and means on 1138 or before November 1, 2012.

1139 SECTION 128. Sections 1 to 8, inclusive, 12 to 19, inclusive, 21 to 25, inclusive, 27, 29 1140 to 38, inclusive, 40 to 65, inclusive, 68, 71 to 90, inclusive, 92 to 96, inclusive, 108, 111, 112,
