

HOUSE No. 976

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Nine

An Act to limit retroactive denials of health insurance claims..

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 38 of chapter 118E, as appearing in the 2006 Official Edition of the 2 General Laws, is hereby amended by adding the following new paragraph:—

3 In this paragraph, "retroactive denial of a previously paid claim" means any attempt by 4 the Division to retroactively collect payments already made to a health care provider with respect
5 to a claim by requiring repayment of such payments, reducing other payments currently owed to
6 the provider, withholding or setting off against future payments, or reducing or affecting the 7 future claim payments to the provider in any other manner. The Division shall not impose on any 8 health care provider any retroactive denial of a previously paid claim or any part thereof unless:

9 (a) The Division has provided the reason for the retroactive denial in writing to the health
10 care provider; and (b) The time which has elapsed since the date of payment of the 11 challenged claim does not exceed 12 months. The retroactive denial of a previously paid claim
12 may be permitted beyond 12 months from the date of payment only for the following reasons:

13 (1) The claim was submitted fraudulently; (2) The claim payment was incorrect
14 because the provider or the insured was already paid for the health care services identified in the claim; (3) The health care services identified in the claim were not delivered by the physician/provider;

(4) The claim payment is the subject of adjustment with another insurer, administrator, or payor; or (5) The claim payment is the subject of legal action. The Division shall notify a health care provider at least 15 days in advance of the imposition of any retroactive denials of previously paid claims. The health care provider shall have 6 months from the date of notification under this paragraph to determine whether the insured has other appropriate insurance, which was in effect on the date of service. Notwithstanding the contractual terms between the Division and provider, the Division shall allow for the submission of a claim that was previously denied by another insurer due to the insured's transfer or termination of coverage.

SECTION 2. Subsection 4(c) of section 108 of chapter 175, as appearing in the 2006 Official Edition of the General Laws, is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:—

4(d) In this section "retroactive denial of a previously paid claim" means any attempt by an insurer to retroactively collect payments already made to a health care provider with respect to a claim by requiring repayment of such payments, reducing other payments currently owed to the provider, withholding or setting off against future payments, or reducing or affecting the future claim payments to the provider in any other manner. No insurer shall impose on any health care provider any retroactive denial of a previously paid claim or any part thereof unless:

(a) The insurer has provided the reason for the retroactive denial in writing to the health care provider; and (b) The time which has elapsed since the date of payment of the challenged claim does not exceed 12 months. The retroactive denial of a previously paid claim may be permitted beyond 12 months from the date of payment only for the following reasons: (1) The claim was submitted fraudulently; (2) The claim payment was incorrect because the provider or the insured was already paid for the health care services identified in the claim; (3) The health care services identified in the claim were not delivered by the physician/provider; (4) The claim payment was for services covered by Title XVIII, Title XIX, or Title XXI of the Social Security Act; (5) The claim payment is the subject of adjustment with another insurer, administrator, or payor; or (6) The claim payment is the subject of legal action. An insurer shall notify a health care provider at least 15 days in advance of the imposition of any retroactive denials of previously paid claims. The health care provider shall have 6 months from the date of notification under this paragraph to determine whether the insured has other appropriate insurance, which was in effect on the date of service. Notwithstanding the contractual terms between the insurer and provider, the insurer shall allow for the submission of a claim that was previously denied by another insurer due to the insured's transfer or termination of coverage.

SECTION 3. Section 8 of chapter 176A, as appearing in the 2006 Official Edition of the General Laws, is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following new clause:—

(h) In this section "retroactive denial of a previously paid claim" means any attempt by a corporation to retroactively collect payments already made to a health care provider with respect to a claim by requiring repayment of such payments, reducing other payments currently owed to the provider, withholding or setting off against future payments, or reducing or affecting the future claim payments to the provider in any other manner. The corporation shall not impose on any health care provider any retroactive denial of a previously paid claim or any part thereof

60 unless: (a) The corporation has provided the reason for the retroactive denial in writing to 61 the health care provider; and (b) The time which has elapsed since the date of payment of the
62 challenged claim does not exceed 12 months. The retroactive denial of a previously paid claim
63 may be permitted beyond 12 months from the date of payment only for the following reasons:

64 (1) The claim was submitted fraudulently; (2) The claim payment was incorrect
65 because the provider or the insured was already paid for the health care services identified in the 66 claim; (3) The health care services identified in the claim were not delivered by the 67 physician/provider; (4) The claim payment was for services covered by Title XVIII, Title
68 XIX, or Title XXI of the Social Security Act; (5) The claim payment is the subject of 69 adjustment with another insurer, administrator, or payor; or (6) The claim payment is the 70 subject of legal action. A corporation shall notify a health care provider at least 15 days in 71 advance of the imposition of any retroactive denials of previously paid claims. The health care
72 provider shall have 6 months from the date of notification under this paragraph to determine
73 whether the insured has other appropriate insurance, which was in effect on the date of service.
74 Notwithstanding the contractual terms between the corporation and provider, the corporation
75 shall allow for the submission of a claim that was previously denied by another insurer due to the
76 insured's transfer or termination of coverage.

77 SECTION 4. Section 7 of chapter 176B, as appearing in the 2006 Official Edition of the 78 General Laws, is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:—

79 In this paragraph "retroactive denial of a previously paid claim" means any attempt by a
80 corporation to retroactively collect payments already made to a health care provider with respect
81 to a claim by requiring repayment of such payments, reducing other payments currently owed to
82 the provider, withholding or setting off against future payments, or reducing or affecting the future claim payments to the provider in any other manner. The corporation shall not impose on any health care provider any retroactive denial of a previously paid claim or any part thereof unless: (a) The corporation has provided the reason for the retroactive denial in writing to the health care provider; and (b) The time which has elapsed since the date of payment of the challenged claim does not exceed 12 months. The retroactive denial of a previously paid claim may be permitted beyond 12 months from the date of payment only for the following reasons:

- (1) The claim was submitted fraudulently;
- (2) The claim payment was incorrect because the provider or the insured was already paid for the health care services identified in the claim;
- (3) The health care services identified in the claim were not delivered by the physician/provider;
- (4) The claim payment was for services covered by Title XVIII, Title XIX, or Title XXI of the Social Security Act;
- (5) The claim payment is the subject of adjustment with another insurer, administrator, or payor; or
- (6) The claim payment is the subject of legal action.

A corporation shall notify a health care provider at least 15 days in advance of the imposition of any retroactive denials of previously paid claims. The health care provider shall have 6 months from the date of notification under this paragraph to determine whether the insured has other appropriate insurance, which was in effect on the date of service. Notwithstanding the contractual terms between the corporation and provider, the corporation shall allow for the submission of a claim that was previously denied by another insurer due to the insured's transfer or termination of coverage.

SECTION 5. Section 6 of chapter 176G, as appearing in the 2006 Official Edition of the General Laws, is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:—

“In this paragraph "retroactive denial of a previously paid claim" means any attempt by a health maintenance organization to retroactively collect payments already made to a health care

106 provider with respect to a claim by requiring repayment of such payments, reducing other 107 payments currently owed to the provider, withholding or setting off against future payments, or 108 reducing or affecting the future claim payments to the provider in any other manner. A health
109 maintenance organization shall not impose on any health care provider any retroactive denial of a
110 previously paid claim or any part thereof unless: (a) The health maintenance organization
111 has provided the reason for the retroactive denial in writing to the health care provider; and 112 (b) The time which has elapsed since the date of payment of the challenged claim does not 113 exceed 12 months. The retroactive denial of a previously paid claim may be permitted beyond 12
114 months from the date of payment only for the following reasons: (1) The claim was 115 submitted fraudulently; (2) The claim payment was incorrect because the provider or the 116 insured was already paid for the health care services identified in the claim; (3) The health
117 care services identified in the claim were not delivered by the physician/provider; (4) The 118 claim payment was for services covered by Title XVIII, Title XIX, or Title XXI of the Social 119 Security Act; (5) The claim payment is the subject of adjustment with another insurer,
120 administrator, or payor; or (6) The claim payment is the subject of legal action. A health
121 maintenance organization shall notify a health care provider at least 15 days in advance of the 122 imposition of any retroactive denials of previously paid claims. The health care provider shall 123 have 6 months from the date of notification under this paragraph to determine whether the 124 insured has other appropriate insurance, which was in effect on the date of service.
125 Notwithstanding the contractual terms between the health maintenance organization and 126 provider, the health maintenance organization shall allow for the submission of a claim that was 127 previously denied by another insurer due to the insured's transfer or termination of coverage.”

SECTION 6. Section 2 of chapter 176I, as appearing in the 2006 Official Edition of the General Laws, is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:—

“In this paragraph "retroactive denial of a previously paid claim" means any attempt by an organization to retroactively collect payments already made to a health care provider with respect to a claim by requiring repayment of such payments, reducing other payments currently owed to the provider, withholding or setting off against future payments, or reducing or affecting the future claim payments to the provider in any other manner. An organization shall not impose on any health care provider any retroactive denial of a previously paid claim or any part thereof unless: (a) The organization has provided the reason for the retroactive denial in writing to the health care provider; and (b) The time which has elapsed since the date of payment of the challenged claim does not exceed 12 months. The retroactive denial of a previously paid claim may be permitted beyond 12 months from the date of payment only for the following reasons:

(1) The claim was submitted fraudulently; (2) The claim payment was incorrect because the provider or the insured was already paid for the health care services identified in the claim; (3) The health care services identified in the claim were not delivered by the physician/provider; (4) The claim payment was for services covered by Title XVIII, Title XIX, or Title XXI of the Social Security Act; (5) The claim payment is the subject of adjustment with another insurer, administrator, or payor; or (6) The claim payment is the subject of legal action. An organization shall notify a health care provider at least 15 days in advance of the imposition of any retroactive denials of previously paid claims. The health care provider shall have 6 months from the date of notification under this paragraph to determine whether the insured has other appropriate insurance, which was in effect on the date of service. Notwithstanding the contractual terms between an organization and provider, the organization

151 shall allow for the submission of a claim that was previously denied by another insurer due to the
152 insured's transfer or termination of coverage.
