28 66 § 1 General state policy on public records

(1) It is the policy of this state that all state, county, and municipal records are open for personal inspection and copying by any person. Providing access to public records is a duty of each agency.

(2)(a) Automation of public records must not erode the right of access to those records. As each agency increases its use of and dependence on electronic recordkeeping, each agency must provide reasonable public access to records electronically maintained and must ensure that exempt or confidential records are not disclosed except as otherwise permitted by law.

(b) When designing or acquiring an electronic recordkeeping system, an agency must consider whether such system is capable of providing data in some common format such as, but not limited to, the American Standard Code for Information Interchange.

(c) An agency may not enter into a contract for the creation or maintenance of a public records database if that contract impairs the ability of the public to inspect or copy the public records of the agency, including public records that are online or stored in an electronic recordkeeping system used by the agency.

(d) Subject to the restrictions of copyright and trade secret laws and public records exemptions, agency use of proprietary software must not diminish the right of the public to inspect and copy a public record.

(e) Providing access to public records by remote electronic means is an additional method of access that agencies should strive to provide to the extent feasible. If an agency provides access to public records by remote electronic means, such access should be provided in the most cost-effective and efficient manner available to the agency providing the information.

(f) Each agency that maintains a public record in an electronic recordkeeping system shall provide to any person, pursuant to this chapter, a copy of any public record in that system which is not exempted by law from public disclosure. An agency must provide a copy of the record in the medium requested if the agency maintains the record in that medium, and the agency may charge a fee in accordance with this chapter. For the purpose of satisfying a public records request, the fee to be charged by an agency if it elects to provide a copy of a public record in a medium not routinely used by the agency, or if it elects to compile information not routinely developed or maintained by the agency or that requires a substantial amount of manipulation or programming, must be in accordance with c. 66 § 4(4).

(3) If public funds are expended by an agency in payment of dues or membership contributions for any person, corporation, foundation, trust, association, group, or other organization, all the financial, business, and membership records of that person, corporation, foundation, trust, association, group, or other organization which pertain to the public agency are public records and subject to the provisions of c. 66 § 4.

66 § 2 Definitions

maintained in a confidential manner and exempt from the provisions of c. 66 § 4(1) until released at trial if it is found that the release of such information would:

a. Be defamatory to the good name of a victim or witness or would jeopardize the safety of such victim or witness; and

b. Impair the ability of a state attorney to locate or prosecute a codefendant.

6. Informations and indictments except as ordered by the court, a grand juror, reporter, stenographer, interpreter, or officer of the court shall not disclose that an indictment for a felony has been found against a person not in custody or under recognizance, except by issuing or executing process on the indictment, until the person has been arrested.

158 66 § 3 Custodial requirements; maintenance, preservation, and retention of public records

159 (1) Public records shall be maintained and preserved as follows:

160 (a) All public records should be kept in the buildings in which they are ordinarily used.

161 (b) Insofar as practicable, a custodian of public records of vital, permanent, or archival 162 records shall keep them in fireproof and waterproof safes, vaults, or rooms fitted with 163 noncombustible materials and in such arrangement as to be easily accessible for convenient use.

164 (c)1. Record books should be copied or repaired, renovated, or rebound if worn, 165 mutilated, damaged, or difficult to read.

166 2. Whenever any state, county, or municipal records are in need of repair, restoration, or 167 rebinding, the head of the concerned state agency, department, board, or commission; the board
168 of county commissioners of such county; or the governing body of such municipality may 169 authorize that such records be removed from the building or office in which such records are 170 ordinarily kept for the length of time required to repair, restore, or rebind them.

171 3. Any public official who causes a record book to be copied shall attest and certify under 172 oath that the copy is an accurate copy of the original book. The copy shall then have the force 173 and effect of the original.

174 (2)(a) The Division of Library and Information Services of the Department of State shall 175 adopt rules to establish retention schedules and a disposal process for public records.

176 (b) Each agency shall comply with the rules establishing retention schedules and disposal
177 processes for public records which are adopted by the records and information management 178 program of the division.

179 (c) Each public official shall systematically dispose of records no longer needed, subject
180 to the consent of the records and information management program of the division Secretary of 181 State.

182 (d) The division may ascertain the condition of public records and shall give advice and 183 assistance to public officials to solve problems related to the preservation, creation, filing, and 184 public accessibility of public records in their custody. Public officials shall assist the division by 185 preparing an inclusive inventory of categories of public records in their custody. The division 186 shall establish a time period for the retention or disposal of each series of records. Upon the 187 completion of the inventory and schedule, the division shall, subject to the availability of 188 necessary space, staff, and other facilities for such purposes, make space available in its records
189 center for the filing of semicurrent records so scheduled and in its archives for noncurrent 190 records of permanent value, and shall render such other assistance as needed, including the 191 microfilming of records so scheduled.

192 (3) Agency orders that comprise final agency action and that must be indexed or listed
193 pursuant to the Secretary of State have continuing legal significance; therefore, notwithstanding 194 any other provision of this chapter, each agency shall permanently maintain records of such 195 orders pursuant to the applicable rules of the Secretary of State.

196 (4)(a) Whoever has custody of any public records shall deliver, at the expiration of his or 197 her term of office, to his or her successor or, if there be none, to the records and information
198 management program of the Secretary of State all public records kept or received by him or her 199 in the transaction of official business.

200 (b) Whoever is entitled to custody of public records shall demand them from any person
201 having illegal possession of them, who must forthwith deliver the same to him or her. Any 202 person unlawfully possessing public records must within 10 days deliver such records to the 203 lawful custodian of public records unless just cause exists for failing to deliver such records.

204 66 § 4 Inspection and copying of records; photographing public records; fees; exemptions

205 (1)(a) Every person who has custody of a public record shall permit the record to be 206 inspected and copied by any person desiring to do so, at any reasonable time, under reasonable 207 conditions, and under supervision by the custodian of the public records.

208 (b) A custodian of public records or a person having custody of public records may 209 designate another officer or employee of the agency to permit the inspection and copying of 210 public records, but must disclose the identity of the designee to the person requesting to inspect 211 or copy public records.

212 (c) A custodian of public records and his or her designee must acknowledge requests to 213 inspect or copy records promptly and respond to such requests in good faith. A good faith
214 response includes making reasonable efforts to determine from other officers or employees 215 within the agency whether such a record exists and, if so, the location at which the record can be 216 accessed.

(d) A person who has custody of a public record who asserts that an exemption applies to a part of such record shall redact that portion of the record to which an exemption has been asserted and validly applies, and such person shall produce the remainder of such record for inspection and copying.

(e) If the person who has custody of a public record contends that all or part of the record is exempt from inspection and copying, he or she shall state the basis of the exemption that he or she contends is applicable to the record, including the statutory citation to an exemption created or afforded by statute.

(f) If requested by the person seeking to inspect or copy the record, the custodian of public records shall state in writing and with particularity the reasons for the conclusion that the record is exempt or confidential.

(g) In any civil action in which an exemption to this section is asserted, if the exemption is alleged to exist under or by virtue of c. 66 § 5(1)(d) or (f), (2)(d),(e), or (f), or (4)(c), the public record or part thereof in question shall be submitted to the court for an inspection in camera. If an exemption is alleged to exist under or by virtue of c. 66 § 5(2)(c), an inspection in camera is discretionary with the court. If the court finds that the asserted exemption is not applicable, it shall order the public record or part thereof in question to be immediately produced for inspection or copying as requested by the person seeking such access.

(h) Even if an assertion is made by the custodian of public records that a requested record is not a public record subject to public inspection or copying under this subsection, the requested record shall, nevertheless, not be disposed of for a period of 30 days after the date on which a written request to inspect or copy the record was served on or otherwise made to the custodian of public records by the person seeking access to the record. If a civil action is instituted within the 30-day period to enforce the provisions of this section with respect to the requested record, the custodian of public records may not dispose of the record except by order of a court of competent jurisdiction after notice to all affected parties.

(i) The absence of a civil action instituted for the purpose stated in paragraph (g) does not relieve the custodian of public records of the duty to maintain the record as a public record if the record is in fact a public record subject to public inspection and copying under this subsection and does not otherwise excuse or exonerate the custodian of public records from any unauthorized or unlawful disposition of such record.

(2)(a) As an additional means of inspecting or copying public records, a custodian of public records may provide access to public records by remote electronic means, provided exempt or confidential information is not disclosed.

(b) The custodian of public records shall provide safeguards to protect the contents of public records from unauthorized remote electronic access or alteration and to prevent the disclosure or modification of those portions of public records which are exempt or confidential from subsection (1).

(c) Unless otherwise required by law, the custodian of public records may charge a fee for remote electronic access, granted under a contractual arrangement with a user, which fee may include the direct and indirect costs of providing such access. Fees for remote electronic access provided to the general public shall be in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(3)(a) Any person shall have the right of access to public records for the purpose of making photographs of the record while such record is in the possession, custody, and control of the custodian of public records.

(b) This subsection applies to the making of photographs in the conventional sense by use of a camera device to capture images of public records but excludes the duplication of microfilm in the possession of the clerk of the circuit court where a copy of the microfilm may be made available by the clerk.

(c) Photographing public records shall be done under the supervision of the custodian of public records, who may adopt and enforce reasonable rules governing the photographing of such records.

(d) Photographing of public records shall be done in the room where the public records are kept. If, in the judgment of the custodian of public records, this is impossible or impracticable, photographing shall be done in another room or place, as nearly adjacent as possible to the room where the public records are kept, to be determined by the custodian of public records. Where provision of another room or place for photographing is required, the expense of providing the same shall be paid by the person desiring to photograph the public record pursuant to paragraph

(4) The custodian of public records shall furnish a copy or a certified copy of the record upon payment of the fee prescribed by law. If a fee is not prescribed by law, the following fees are authorized:

(a)1. Up to 15 cents per one-sided copy for duplicated copies of not more than 14 inches by 8 1/2 inches;

2. No more than an additional 5 cents for each two-sided copy; and

3. For all other copies, the actual cost of duplication of the public record.

(b) The charge for copies of county maps or aerial photographs supplied by county constitutional officers may also include a reasonable charge for the labor and overhead associated with their duplication.

(c) An agency may charge up to $1 per copy for a certified copy of a public record.

(d) If the nature or volume of public records requested to be inspected or copied pursuant to this subsection is such as to require extensive use of information technology resources or extensive clerical or supervisory assistance by personnel of the agency involved, or both, the agency may charge, in addition to the actual cost of duplication, a special service charge, which shall be reasonable and shall be based on the cost incurred for such extensive use of information technology resources or the labor cost of the personnel providing the service that is actually incurred by the agency or attributable to the agency for the clerical and supervisory assistance required, or both.

(e)1. Where provision of another room or place is necessary to photograph public records, the expense of providing the same shall be paid by the person desiring to photograph the public records.

2. The custodian of public records may charge the person making the photographs for supervision services at a rate of compensation to be agreed upon by the person desiring to make the photographs and the custodian of public records. If they fail to agree as to the appropriate charge, the charge shall be determined by the custodian of public records.

(5) When ballots are produced under this section for inspection or examination, no persons other than the supervisor of elections or the supervisor's employees shall touch the ballots. If the ballots are being examined before the end of the contest period, the supervisor of elections shall make a reasonable effort to notify all candidates by telephone or otherwise of the time and place of the inspection or examination. All such candidates, or their representatives, shall be allowed to be present during the inspection or examination.

(6) An exemption contained in this chapter or in any other general or special law shall not limit the access of the Auditor General, the Office of Program Policy Analysis and Government Accountability, or any state, county, municipal, university, board of community college, school district, or special district internal auditor to public records when such person states in writing that such records are needed for a properly authorized audit, examination, or investigation. Such person shall maintain the exempt or confidential status of that public record and shall be subject to the same penalties as the custodian of that record for public disclosure of such record.

(7) The provisions of this section are not intended to expand or limit the provisions of Mass. Rules of Criminal Procedure, regarding the right and extent of discovery by the state or by a defendant in a criminal prosecution or in collateral postconviction proceedings. This section may not be used by any inmate as the basis for failing to timely litigate any postconviction action.

For purposes of capital collateral litigation, the Attorney General's office is entitled to claim this exemption for those public records prepared for direct appeal as well as for all

972 personal information, such individual, firm, corporation, or similar business entity must first 973 enter into a contract with the department regarding the care, custody, and control of the personal 974 information to ensure compliance with the federal Driver's Privacy Protection Act of 1994 and 975 applicable state laws.

976 2. An authorized recipient of personal information contained in a motor vehicle record,

Such conditions may include, but need not be limited to, the making and filing of a written application in such form and containing such information and certification requirements as the department requires.

(g) This subsection is subject to the Public Record Law in accordance with c. 66 § 16.

66 § 8 Local government agency exemptions from inspection or copying of public records

1002 cause, the investigation of the complaint becomes inactive, or the complaint or other record is 1003 made part of the official record of any hearing or court proceeding. This provision shall not 1004 affect any function or activity of any state or federal agency that is authorized to have access to 1005 such complaints or records by any provision of law shall be granted such access in the 1006 furtherance of such agency's statutory duties. This subsection shall not be construed to modify or 1007 repeal any special or local act.

1011 authority, consolidated city-county government, or any other local governmental body or public
1012 body corporate or politic authorized or created by general or special law. An audit becomes final 1013 when the audit report is presented to the unit of local government. Audit workpapers and notes 1014 related to such audit report are confidential and exempt from c. 66 § 4(1) until the audit is 1015 completed and the audit report becomes final.

1016 (3) Any data, record, or document used directly or solely by a municipally owned utility 1017 to prepare and submit a bid relative to the sale, distribution, or use of any service, commodity, or 1018 tangible personal property to any customer or prospective customer is exempt from c. 66 § 4(1).
1019 This exemption commences when a municipal utility identifies in writing a specific bid to which 1020 it intends to respond. This exemption no longer applies when the contract for sale, distribution, 1021 or use of the service, commodity, or tangible personal property is executed, a decision is made 1022 not to execute such contract, or the project is no longer under active consideration. The

1023 exemption in this subsection includes the bid documents actually furnished in response to the 1024 request for bids. However, the exemption for the bid documents submitted no longer applies after 1025 the bids are opened by the customer or prospective customer.

1026 66 § 9 Court files; court records; official records

1051 credit card number is included in a court file, such number may be included as part of the court 1052 record available for public inspection and copying unless redaction is requested by the holder of 1053 such number or by the holder's attorney or legal guardian.

(3) OFFICIAL RECORDS

(a) Any person who prepares or files a record for recording in the official records may not include in that record a social security number or a bank account, debit, charge, or credit card number unless otherwise expressly required by law.

(b)1. If a social security number or a bank account, debit, charge, or credit card number is included in an official record, such number may be made available as part of the official records available for public inspection and copying unless redaction is requested by the holder of such number or by the holder's attorney or legal guardian.

2. If such record is in electronic format, on January 1, 2011, and thereafter, the county recorder must use his or her best effort, as provided in paragraph (h), to keep social security numbers confidential and exempt as provided for in c. 66 § 5(5)(a), and to keep complete bank

1081 account, debit, charge, and credit card numbers exempt as provided for in c. 66 § 5(5)(b), 1082 without any person having to request redaction.

1083 3. Section 66 § 5(5)(a)7 and 8 does not apply to the county recorder with respect to 1084 official records.

1085 (c) The holder of a social security number or a bank account, debit, charge, or credit card
1086 number, or the holder's attorney or legal guardian, may request that a county recorder redact
1087 from an image or copy of an official record placed on a county recorder's publicly available
1088 Internet website or on a publicly available Internet website used by a county recorder to display
1089 public records, or otherwise made electronically available to the public, his or her social security 1090 number or bank account, debit, charge, or credit card number contained in that official record.

1091 (d) A request for redaction must be a signed, legibly written request and must be 1092 delivered by mail, facsimile, electronic transmission, or in person to the county recorder. The 1093 request must specify the identification page number of the record that contains the number to be 1094 redacted.

1095 (e) The county recorder does not have a duty to inquire beyond the written request to 1096 verify the identity of a person requesting redaction.

1097 (f) A fee may not be charged for redacting a social security number or a bank account,
1098 debit, charge, or credit card number.

1099 (g) A county recorder shall immediately and conspicuously post signs throughout his or 1100 her offices for public viewing, and shall immediately and conspicuously post on any Internet
1101 website or remote electronic site made available by the county recorder and used for the ordering

1103 substantially similar form, the following:

1104 1. On or after October 1, 2002, any person preparing or filing a record for recordation in 1105 the official records may not include a social security number or a bank account, debit, charge, or 1106 credit card number in such document unless required by law.

1107 2. Any person has a right to request a county recorder to remove from an image or copy
1108 of an official record placed on a county recorder's publicly available Internet website or on a 1109 publicly available Internet website used by a county recorder to display public records, or 1110 otherwise made electronically available to the general public, any social security number 1111 contained in an official record. Such request must be made in writing and delivered by mail, 1112 facsimile, or electronic transmission, or delivered in person, to the county recorder. The request

1117 county recorder must use his or her best efforts to redact all social security numbers and bank 1118 account, debit, charge, or credit card numbers from electronic copies of the official record. The 1119 use of an automated program for redaction shall be deemed to be the best effort in performing 1120 the redaction and shall be deemed in compliance with the requirements of this subsection.

1121 (i) The county recorder is not liable for the inadvertent release of social security numbers, 1122 or bank account, debit, charge, or credit card numbers, filed with the county recorder.

1123 66 § 10 Copyright of data processing software created by governmental agencies; sale
1124 price and licensing fee

1125 (1) As used in this section, "agency" has the same meaning as in c. 66 § 2(2), except that 1126 the term does not include any private agency, person, partnership, corporation, or business entity.

1129 agency complies with the requirements of this subsection.

1130 (a) An agency that has acquired a copyright for data processing software created by the 1131 agency may sell or license the copyrighted data processing software to any public agency or 1132 private person. The agency may establish a price for the sale and a licensing fee for the use of 1133 such data processing software that may be based on market considerations. However, the prices
1134 or fees for the sale or licensing of copyrighted data processing software to an individual or entity 1135 solely for application to information maintained or generated by the agency that created the 1136 copyrighted data processing software shall be determined pursuant to c. 66 § 4(4).

1137 (b) Proceeds from the sale or licensing of copyrighted data processing software shall be 1138 deposited by the agency into a trust fund for the agency's appropriate use for authorized 1139 purposes. Counties, municipalities, and other political subdivisions of the state may designate 1140 how such sale and licensing proceeds are to be used.

1141 (c) The provisions of this subsection are supplemental to, and shall not supplant or repeal, 1142 any other provision of law that authorizes an agency to acquire and hold copyrights.

1143 66 § 11 Registration by federal employer's registration number

1144 Each state agency which registers or licenses corporations, partnerships, or other business
1145 entities shall include, by July 1, 1978, within its numbering system, the federal employer's 1146 identification number of each corporation, partnership, or other business entity registered or 1147 licensed by it. Any state agency may maintain a dual numbering system in which the federal 1148 employer's identification number or the state agency's own number is the primary identification 1149 number; however, the records of such state agency shall be designed in such a way that the 1150 record of any business entity is subject to direct location by the federal employer's identification
1151 number. The Department of State shall keep a registry of federal employer's identification 1152 numbers of all business entities, registered with the Division of Corporations, which registry of 1153 numbers may be used by all state agencies.

1154 66 § 12 Violation of chapter; penalties

1156 (a) Violates any provision of this chapter commits a noncriminal infraction, punishable 1157 by fine not exceeding $500.

1158 (b) Knowingly violates the provisions of c. 66 § 4(1) is subject to suspension and removal 1159 or impeachment and, in addition, commits a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable by law.

1160 (2) Any person who willfully and knowingly violates:

1161 (a) Any of the provisions of this chapter commits a misdemeanor of the first degree, 1162 punishable by law.

1163 Section 66 § 13 commits a felony of the third degree, punishable by law.

1164 66 § 13 Protection of victims of crimes or accidents

1165 Police reports are public records except as otherwise made exempt or confidential. Every 1166 person is allowed to examine nonexempt or nonconfidential police reports. A person who comes 1167 into possession of exempt or confidential information contained in police reports may not use 1168 that information for any commercial solicitation of the victims or relatives of the victims of the 1169 reported crimes or accidents and may not knowingly disclose such information to any third party 1170 for the purpose of such solicitation during the period of time that information remains exempt or 1171 confidential. This section does not prohibit the publication of such information to the general 1172 public by any news media legally entitled to possess that information or the use of such 1173 information for any other data collection or analysis purposes by those entitled to possess that 1174 information.

1175 66 § 14 Accelerated hearing; immediate compliance

1176 (1) Whenever an action is filed to enforce the provisions of this chapter, the court shall 1177 set an immediate hearing, giving the case priority over other pending cases.

1178 (2) Whenever a court orders an agency to open its records for inspection in accordance 1179 with this chapter, the agency shall comply with such order within 48 hours, unless otherwise 1180 provided by the court issuing such order, or unless the appellate court issues a stay order within 1181 such 48-hour period.

1182 (3) A stay order shall not be issued unless the court determines that there is a substantial 1183 probability that opening the records for inspection will result in significant damage.

1184 (4) Upon service of a complaint, counterclaim, or cross-claim in a civil action brought to 1185 enforce the provisions of this chapter, the custodian of the public record that is the subject matter
1186 of such civil action shall not transfer custody, alter, destroy, or otherwise dispose of the public

1187 record sought to be inspected and examined, notwithstanding the applicability of an exemption 1188 or the assertion that the requested record is not a public record subject to inspection and 1189 examination under c. 66 § 4(1), until the court directs otherwise. The person who has custody of 1190 such public record may, however, at any time permit inspection of the requested record as 1191 provided in c. 66 § 4(1) and other provisions of law.

1192 66 § 15 Attorney's fees

1193 If a civil action is filed against an agency to enforce the provisions of this chapter and if 1194 the court determines that such agency unlawfully refused to permit a public record to be 1195 inspected or copied, the court shall assess and award, against the agency responsible, the 1196 reasonable costs of enforcement including reasonable attorneys' fees.

1197 66 § 16 Legislative review of exemptions from public meeting and public records
1198 requirements

1199 (1) This section may be cited as the "Public Record Law."

1200 (2) This section provides for the review and repeal or reenactment of an exemption from 1201 c. 66 § 4(1). This act does not apply to an exemption that:

1202 (a) Is required by federal law; or

1203 (b) Applies solely to the Legislature or the State Court System.

1204 (3) In the 5th year after enactment of a new exemption or substantial amendment of an 1205 existing exemption, the exemption shall be repealed on October 2nd of the 5th year, unless the 1206 Legislature acts to reenact the exemption.

1207 (4)(a) A law that enacts a new exemption or substantially amends an existing exemption 1208 must state that the record or meeting is:

1209 1. Exempt from the State Constitution;

1210 2. Exempt from c. 66 § 4(1); and

1211 3. Repealed at the end of 5 years and that the exemption must be reviewed by the 1212 Legislature before the scheduled repeal date.

1213 (b) For purposes of this section, an exemption is substantially amended if the amendment
1214 expands the scope of the exemption to include more records or information or to include
1215 meetings as well as records. An exemption is not substantially amended if the amendment 1216 narrows the scope of the exemption.

1217 (c) This section is not intended to repeal an exemption that has been amended following 1218 legislative review before the scheduled repeal of the exemption if the exemption is not 1219 substantially amended as a result of the review.

1220 (5)(a) As part of the review process, the Legislature shall consider the following:

1221 1. What specific records or meetings are affected by the exemption?

1222 2. Whom does the exemption uniquely affect, as opposed to the general public?

1223 3. What is the identifiable public purpose or goal of the exemption?

1224 4. Can the information contained in the records or discussed in the meeting be readily 1225 obtained by alternative means? If so, how?

1226 5. Is the record or meeting protected by another exemption?

1227 6. Are there multiple exemptions for the same type of record or meeting that it would be 1228 appropriate to merge?

1229 (b) An exemption may be created, revised, or maintained only if it serves an identifiable
1230 public purpose, and the exemption may be no broader than is necessary to meet the public 1231 purpose it serves. An identifiable public purpose is served if the exemption meets one of the 1232 following purposes and the Legislature finds that the purpose is sufficiently compelling to 1233 override the strong public policy of open government and cannot be accomplished without the 1234 exemption:

1235 1. Allows the state or its political subdivisions to effectively and efficiently administer a 1236 governmental program, which administration would be significantly impaired without the 1237 exemption;

1238 2. Protects information of a sensitive personal nature concerning individuals, the release 1239 of which information would be defamatory to such individuals or cause unwarranted damage to 1240 the good name or reputation of such individuals or would jeopardize the safety of such 1241 individuals. However, in exemptions under this subparagraph, only information that would 1242 identify the individuals may be exempted; or

1243 3. Protects information of a confidential nature concerning entities, including, but not 1244 limited to, a formula, pattern, device, combination of devices, or compilation of information 1245 which is used to protect or further a business advantage over those who do not know or use it, the 1246 disclosure of which information would injure the affected entity in the marketplace.

1247 (6) Records made before the date of a repeal of an exemption under this section may not 1248 be made public unless otherwise provided by law. In deciding whether the records shall be made 1249 public, the Legislature shall consider whether the damage or loss to persons or entities uniquely 1250 affected by the exemption of the type specified in subparagraph (6)(b)2.or subparagraph (6)(b)3 1251 would occur if the records were made public.

1252 (7) Notwithstanding any other law, neither the state or its political subdivisions nor any 1253 other public body shall be made party to any suit in any court or incur any liability for the repeal 1254 or revival and reenactment of an exemption under this section. The failure of the Legislature to 1255 comply strictly with this section does not invalidate an otherwise valid reenactment.
