

SENATE No. 1629

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Nine

An Act relative to the indigent court costs statute..

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 261 of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out section
2 27(C)(4) and inserting in place thereof the following section:-

3 Section 27(C)(4). If the court makes a finding of indigency:

4 (a) In criminal cases, juvenile delinquency proceedings and youthful offender cases, and 5 in cases arising under chapter one-hundred and twenty-three A, any request for normal and/or 6 extra fees and costs shall first be submitted to the committee for public counsel services which 7 shall be authorized to approve those requests. The committee shall authorize any request with 8 respect to normal fees and costs, and it shall authorize any request with respect to extra fees and 9 costs if the document, service, or object is reasonably necessary to assure the applicant as 10 effective a prosecution, defense or appeal as he would have if he were financially able to pay. If 11 the committee recommends that such an application be denied, in whole or in part, the request 12 shall be referred for prompt hearing to the court in which the action is pending at the request of 13 the applicant. The committee shall make reasonable efforts to act on the application within 10
14 business days. If the committee fails to act within 10 business days of the date the application

15 was filed, the applicant may file a motion with the court in which the action is pending. The 16 court shall not deny any request or motion filed pursuant to this section if the document, service 17 or object is reasonably necessary to assure the applicant as effective a prosecution, defense or 18 appeal as he would have if he were financially able to pay. The court shall not deny any request 19 without first holding a hearing thereon.

20 (b) In all other cases, any request for normal and/or extra fees shall be submitted to the 21 court in which the action is pending. The court shall not deny any request with respect to normal 22 fees and costs, and it shall not deny any request with respect to extra fees and costs if it finds the 23 document, service or object is reasonably necessary to assure the applicant as effective a 24 prosecution, defense or appeal as he would have if he were financially able to pay. The court 25 shall not deny any request without first holding a hearing thereon.

26 (c) If there is an appeal pursuant to section twenty-seven D following a denial, the court 27 shall, within three days, set forth its written findings and reasons justifying such denial, which 28 document shall be part of the record on appeal.

29 SECTION 2. Chapter 261 of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out 30 section 27(G) and inserting in place thereof the following section:-

31 Section 27(G). The committee for public counsel services shall receive from any indigent 32 party or his attorney all bills and vouchers for any document, service or object rendered to said 33 party for which payment by the commonwealth has been authorized pursuant to subsection 4(a)
34 of section 27C of this chapter, and shall make prompt payment thereon. The clerk shall receive 35 from any indigent party or his attorney all bills and vouchers for any document, service or object 36 rendered to said party for which an order for payment by the commonwealth has been issued

37 pursuant to subsection 4(b) of section 27C of this chapter, and shall transmit said bills and 38 vouchers and an attested copy of said order to the committee for public counsel services, which 39 shall make prompt payment thereon.
