

SENATE No. 163

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Nine

An Act establishing the home improvement contractor council..

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 1 of chapter 143 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2000
2 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking out, in lines 3 and 4, the word "one hundred" and 3 inserting in place thereof the following word:— one hundred and one.

4 SECTION 2. Chapter 143 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 5 adding the following section:— Section 101. There shall be an advisory board to be known 6 as the home improvement contractor council, to assist in and make recommendations to the 7 board relative to the registration of any contractor or subcontractor who undertakes, agrees to 8 undertake, or agrees to perform residential contracting services. The council shall consist of 9 seven members: the chief of inspections of the division of inspection of the department of public
10 safety or his designee; the fund administrator of the residential contractor’s guaranty fund
11 established by chapter 142A; a representative of the attorney general; a representative of a 12 consumer group appointed by the director of the office of consumer affairs and business 13 regulation; and three members to be appointed by the governor, one of whom shall be a 14 representative of the Home Builders Association of Massachusetts who is a registered home

15 improvement contractor or subcontractor, one of who shall be an owner and principal resident of 16 a one or two-family residence, and one of who shall be a representative of the National 17 Association of the Remodeling Industry who is a registered home improvement contractor or 18 subcontractor. The governor shall from time to time designate one member as chairman. The 19 council shall be convened regularly by the chairman and shall establish its own rules for the 20 conduct of its business. The members of the council shall not be compensated for their services, 21 but they shall be reimbursed for travel and other expenses necessary for the performance of their 22 duties. The board may provide technical and clerical assistance to the council.
