32 or a work in mixed media including collage, assemblage or any combination of the 33 aforementioned art media. “Disaster:” a naturally occurring catastrophic event such as – but not 34 limited to – a hurricane, flood, fire, earthquake, or a man-made or caused event such as but not 35 limited to a fire, explosion, terrorist attack or war-related catastrophe. “Emergency:” a major 36 accident such as but not limit to a car crash, bike, a fall, an animal attack; or any other type of 37 major accident causing the loss of wages or a job; a health care emergency; an unexpected loss

38 of employment, an unexpected loss of housing; an unexpected loss of studio or practice space;
39 unexpected loss of childcare or eldercare; an act of violence perpetrated against a Massachusetts 40 Artist causing them to forgo earning their income; a temporary sickness of a physical or 41 psychological nature; a temporary disability; the theft of a Massachusetts Artist's work,
42 equipment, instrument(s), or materials; the inability of a Massachusetts Artist to afford health 43 insurance; or any other situation that will cause unanticipated financial hardship and threaten 44 their livelihood and artistic practice.

45 SECTION 2. (a) There shall be established and set up on the books of the 46 Commonwealth a separate fund to be known as the Massachusetts Artists Disaster and 47 Emergency Aid Fund, hereinafter "the fund," for the purposes of ensuring the safety and vitality 48 of artists residing in the Commonwealth. Any such amounts expended will be dispersed to 49 Massachusetts Artists who have endured an emergency or disaster as defined in Section 1.

50 (b) The fund shall be held in trust by the State Treasurer exclusively for the purposes 51 established herein. The fund shall be administered by the State Treasurer, who will serve as 52 treasurer and custodian of the fund and shall have the custody of its monies and securities.

53 (c) The State Treasurer may invest any monies held for the credit of the fund instruments
54 permitted under Sections 38, 38A, 38C and 49 of Chapter 29 of the General Laws.

55 Section 3. (a) As custodian of the fund, the State Treasurer may accept monetary 56 donations to the fund from individuals, museums, organizations, associations, nonprofits, 57 businesses, estates, foundations or other entities.

58 (b) Section 6 (c) of Chapter 353 of the Acts of 2006 is hereby amended by inserting after 59 the phrase "The consignee shall keep on file a record of attempts to contact the consignor," the 60 following sentence: “The consignee may sell or auction any forfeited artwork in a manner the 61 consignee considers appropriate for the purpose of donating the proceeds of said transaction to 62 the Disaster and Emergency Aid Fund for Massachusetts Artists.”

63 (c) Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, the State Treasurer may 64 auction “creative and individual works” collected and held by the Abandoned Property Division 65 of the Commonwealth to raise revenues for said fund. Any transfer from sale proceeds into the 66 newly created Artist Trust Fund is subject to subsequent AP claim. Such property will be 67 auctioned in conjunction with tangible property not classified as “creative and individual works” 68 possessed by the Abandoned Property Division of the Commonwealth. At the discretion of the 69 State Treasurer, proceeds from auctioned items classified as “creative and individual works” as 70 defined in Section 1 alternately may be deposited in the General Fund of the Commonwealth.
71 The proceeds from auctioned items not classified as “creative and individual works” will be 72 dedicated to the General Fund of the Commonwealth in accordance with Section 9 of Chapter 73 200a of the General Laws.

74 (d) All monies obtained by the State Treasurer on behalf of the fund for the purposes
75 established herein will be received either through donation or auction, and any amounts obtained 76 and subject to dispersal from said fund will not be the result of Legislative appropriation.

77 Section 4. All applicants to receive monies from said fund would be required to meet the 78 definition of “Massachusetts Artist” as defined in Section 1. Any additional criteria regarding 79 qualification for funds and amounts dispersed are to be established by the State Treasurer or his 80 designee. The State Treasurer or his designee may work with nonprofit arts organizations, state 81 offices or agencies, or with State Legislative Committees including – but not limited to – the

82 Joint Committee on Tourism, Arts, and Cultural Development to establish a process and 83 criteria for distributing funds to Massachusetts Artists. The State Treasurer may at his discretion 84 form a three-member commission to provide approval for fund dispersal and to oversee the 85 administrative functions of said fund.
