

SENATE No. 2003

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Nine

An Act Relative to the Home of the Brave..

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. The board of trustees of the Home of the Brave, Inc. a 5.01(c)(3) non-2 profit corporation may construct and operate public homes for veterans. Such homes shall be 3 considered “State Homes”. The construction, purchase, and operation shall be funded from 4 available federal and state funds and private funds. The primary purpose of such Homes is to 5 provide support and care for honorably discharged veterans who served in the Armed Forces of 6 the United States for no less than 180 days.

7 SECTION 2. The corporation shall have, but not be limited to the following powers:-

8 Make and execute contracts and all other instruments necessary or convenient for the 9 exercise of its powers and functions under this chapter.

10 Acquire, in the name of the home, real or personal property of any interest therein,
11 including rights or easements, on either a temporary or long-term basis by gift, purchase, 12 transfer, foreclosure, lease or otherwise.

13 Hold, sell, assign, lease, rent, encumber, mortgage or otherwise dispose of any real or 14 personal property, or any interest therein, or mortgage interest owned by it or in its control, 15 custody or possession and release or relinquish any right, title, claim, lien, interest, easement or 16 demand however acquired, including treat of foreclosure.

17 Procure insurance against any loss in connection with its property and other assets in 18 amounts and from insurers which it deems desirable.

19 Receive, on behalf of the State, bequests and donations that may be made to improve the 20 general comfort and welfare of the members of the home or for the betterment of the home.

21 Borrow funds, make and issue bonds and negotiate notes and other evidences of 22 indebtedness or obligations of the veterans' home for prudent and reasonable capital, operational 23 and maintenance purposes. The home may secure payments of all or part of the obligations by 24 pledge of part of the revenues or assets of the home that are available for pledge and that may be 25 lawfully pledged or by mortgage of part, or all, of any property owned by the home. The home
26 may do all lawful things necessary and incidental to those powers. The home may borrow 27 money from the Federal Government and its agencies, from state agencies and from any other 28 source.

29 Do other acts necessary or convenient to exercise the powers granted or reasonably 30 implied in this section.

31 SECTION 3. The corporation shall appoint an administrator who shall be an honorably 32 discharged veteran who shall administer the Home in accordance with the rules, guidelines and 33 general policies established by the board. The administrator serves an indefinite term, but may 34 be removed for cause by the board. The administrator's salary is set by the board. The

35 administrator shall hire the necessary employees to operate the home and, whenever possible, 36 give preference in hiring to war veterans. These employees shall not be employees of the 37 Commonwealth.

38 SECTION 4. Veterans desiring admission to the home shall apply on forms prescribed 39 by the administrator. Admission shall be granted only to veterans who were residents of the 40 Commonwealth at time of entry into the armed forces or at the time of application and to the 41 spouses, widows or widowers of eligible veterans, provided that suitable facilities are available.
42 Parents of armed services members who are killed in action or die as a consequence of wounds
43 received in battle are also eligible, as so called "Gold Star" parents, for admission. Admission
44 must be granted when provisions of the rules governing private payment, Medicare and Medicaid
45 eligibility to entitled persons are met. Each veteran admitted shall pay the home, as determined 46 by the board, his share of his maintenance which he can afford.

47 SECTION 5. All funds received by Home of the Brave, Inc., including federal 48 Veterans' Administration stipend funds, must be held in a permanent fund to be used as required
49 by the administrator for the support and maintenance of the Homes. A percentage of these funds
50 approved by the board of trustees must be placed in reserve for capital improvement
51 expenditures. Home of the Brave, Inc. shall operate the Homes, when constructed or purchased, 52 as self-liquidating projects until all the bonds issued as provided by this chapter are retired. The 53 Executive Office of Health and Human Services shall not modify its principles of reimbursement 54 for long-term care facilities to specifically exclude reimbursement for the depreciation of the 55 assets created with federal or state grants. The corporation shall retain as direct income revenue
56 any stipend funds they may receive from the federal Veterans' Administration for the Homes' 57 entire eligible resident population. The Executive Office of Health and Human Services shall 58 neither receive the proceeds nor require the application of stipend funds in the Medicare or 59 Medicaid rate justification submissions by Home of the Brave, Inc.

60 SECTION 6. The corporation shall make an annual report to the Governor on or before 61 November 11. The report shall contain statistics of all veterans who resided in the Home during 62 the year, recommendations to the Governor and General Court and such other matters as the 63 corporation deems pertinent.

64 SECTION 7. The corporation's fiscal year shall be the same as the Commonwealth's.
65 The corporation may apply for and receive any grants-in-aid for which the Commonwealth or the 66 corporation shall be eligible. The corporation shall adopt rules for the administration of the 67 home. Every department and agency of the Commonwealth shall upon request furnish 68 assistance, counsel and advice as the corporation shall require.
