

SENATE No. 2035

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Nine

An Act to study and expand charitable gaming..

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 10 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2004 Official Edition,
2 by inserting after section 39A the following:-

3 Section 39B. The commission shall by July 31 of each year complete a report which 4 reviews the effectiveness of the commonwealth’s charitable gaming program, which includes,
5 but is not limited to, beano, bazaars, pull tabs, poker, Texas hold’em, so-called, and raffles; 6 provided, that, said study and review shall include information about the number and types of 7 organizations that conduct charitable gaming, the number of the different types of charitable 8 gaming authorized, the amount and types of prizes awarded on each type of charitable gaming, 9 the amount of revenue the commonwealth receives from charitable gaming, the types and 10 amounts collected in charitable gaming in surrounding states, the impact charitable gaming has 11 on charitable organizations and the communities they are located in, the impact of out of state
12 gaming on in-state charitable gaming, the impact on compulsive gaming or other possible 13 negative community effects, and provide regulatory and legislative recommendations on whether 14 to improve and expand the program. The commission may implement rules and regulations to 15 modify the current charitable gaming program under the law, which may include, but is not 16 limited to, the licensure process, changing the prize structure, establishing days and hours of 17 operation, defining and setting rules for the charitable games, establishing a licensure system for 18 individuals operating charitable games, promulgating information to charitable organizations and 19 municipal licensing boards, providing technical assistance to charitable organizations, setting 20 licensing fees and establishing penalties for violations of the rules and regulations. The 21 commission shall submit said report, changes to the rules and regulations, and recommendations 22 for legislative changes to the House and Senate Committees on Ways and Means and Joint 23 Committee on Consumer Protection and Professional Licensure by August 15 of each year.
