

SENATE No. 2073

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Nine

An Act establishing the Sandwich Economic Initiative Corporation..

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. (a) The general court finds that:

2 (1) in the town of Sandwich unused, underused, undeveloped or underdeveloped 3 areas exist;

4 (2) redevelopment of these areas in accordance with locally-approved community 5 and economic development, capital improvement or other plans, including the town's local 6 comprehensive plan and master plan, if any, is necessary to attract new commercial, industrial 7 or residential development and to promote the sound and orderly growth of the town;

8 (3) these unused, underused or underdeveloped areas is beyond remedy and 9 control solely by the regulatory process in the exercise of the police powers and cannot be dealt 10 with effectively by the ordinary operations of private enterprise without the assistance provided 11 in this act;

12 (4) the improvement of sites for commercial, industrial or residential uses or for 13 necessary public facilities in the areas, the disposition of property for redevelopment incidental

14 to these improvements, the exercise of powers by the corporation, and any assistance which may 15 be given by the town or any other public body in connection with these actions, are public uses 16 and purposes for which public money may be expended; and

17 (5) the acquisition, planning, clearance, development, rehabilitation or rebuilding 18 of these unused, underused and undeveloped areas for commercial, industrial, residential, 19 institutional and public facility purposes are public benefits for which public funds may be 20 expended for the welfare of the town and the commonwealth.

21 (b) The general court further finds that:

22 (1) the town of Sandwich has a need to develop or redevelop public facilities and 23 infrastructure to stimulate and support economic growth;

24 (2) without these public facilities and services the town cannot develop a sound, 25 vibrant economic base; and 26 (3) the development, management and operation of public facilities in support of 27 economic development are essential to the preservation and enhancement of the town's tax base, 28 economy and jobs.

29 (c) The general court further finds that:

30 (1) the town of Sandwich has developed, as part of its local comprehensive plan, a 31 plan to protect and preserve open space and to develop affordable housing in order to support 32 the objectives of balanced growth;

33 (2) without sufficient open space and housing affordable to a broad range of 34 incomes, the town cannot develop and sustain a vibrant economic base; and 35 (3) the protection of open space and the provision of affordable housing are 36 essential to the preservation and enhancement of the town's tax base and economy.

37 (d) The general court further finds that the purpose of the corporation shall be to serve as 38 a catalyst for stimulating projects that improve the quality of life and help achieve Sandwich's 39 vision for its future as an attractive community for its residences in which to live and work, while 40 also being a catalyst for positive change and an advocate of solutions and opportunities for the 41 town's business and economic development through programs, including but not limited to, 42 cultural, historical, economic, housing, educational, industrial, professional, tourism and sports 43 growth.

44 (e) The general court further finds that the purpose of the corporation shall also be to 45 create a suitable living environment and to strengthen partnerships between all levels of 46 government and non-profit and for-profit organizations in an effort to maximize social and 47 economic opportunities available to the citizens of the town.

48 (f) The general court further finds that the purpose of the corporation shall also be to 49 enhance the position, image and perception of the town as a desirable place to live, work, visit 50 and invest by providing increased revenue and jobs to the town through programs of planned 51 cultural, historical, economic, housing, educational, industrial, professional, and tourism and 52 sports growth.

53 (g) The general court further finds a public corporation is necessary to address these and 54 related public purposes. It is the purpose of the corporation created by this act to aid the town, 55 other public agencies, private enterprises and non-profit organizations in the speedy and orderly 56 development or redevelopment of unused, obsolete, underused or underdeveloped areas and in 296 A member of the board of directors may be removed for cause after a hearing by a 297 majority vote of all of the members of the board of selectmen and the remaining members of the 298 board of directors. The members of the board of directors shall be deemed to be special municipal 299 employees for the purposes of chapter 268A of the General Laws.

300 There shall be elected by and from the board of directors a president, treasurer, 304 corporation for expenses actually incurred in the performance of his duties.

305 SECTION 10. The board of directors shall adopt a corporate seal for the corporation and 306 designate the custodian thereof. The board of directors shall cause at all times accurate accounts 307 to be kept of all receipts and expenditures of the funds of the corporation and shall make a report 308 annually to the board of selectmen, containing an abstract of such accounts and detailed 309 information of all receipts and expenditures, including prices paid for property acquisition,

311 information as may be helpful. Upon request of the Board of Selectmen, the Corporation shall 312 make available to the Town its books and records and shall reasonably cooperate with the 313 Finance Committee of the Town in any investigation of the books and records of the Corporation

314 by the Finance Committee or its designee. The corporation shall cause an audit of its books and 315 accounts to be made biannually by certified public accountants and the cost thereof shall be 316 treated as a current expense. Except as otherwise provided in this act, the corporation shall have 317 the full power to exercise care of its property and the management of its business and affairs.
318 The treasurer shall give bond for the faithful performance of his duties, with a surety company 319 authorized to do business in the commonwealth as surety, in such sum as the board of directors 320 may determine, the premium of which shall be paid by the corporation.

321 SECTION 11. The corporation, from time to time, may provide by resolution for the 322 issuance of revenue bonds of the corporation for the purposes of paying all or any part of the cost 323 of a development project or projects. The principal of and interest on the bonds shall be payable 324 solely from the funds herein provided for the payment. The bonds of each issue shall be dated, 325 shall bear interest at the rates and shall mature at the time or times not exceeding 20 years from 326 their date or dates, as determined by the corporation, and may be redeemable before maturity, at 327 the option if the corporation, at the price or prices and under the terms and conditions fixed by 328 the corporation before the issuance of the bonds. The corporation shall determine the form of the 329 bonds, including any interest coupons to be attached thereto, and the manner of execution of the 330 bonds, and shall fix the denomination or denominations of the bonds and the place or places of 331 payment of principal and interest, which may be at any bank or trust company within the 332 commonwealth. In case any officer whose signature, or a facsimile thereof, shall appear on any 333 bonds or coupons shall cease to be an officer before the delivery of the bonds, the signature or 334 facsimile shall nevertheless be valid and sufficient for all purposes as if that officer had remained 335 in office until the delivery. The bonds may be issued in coupon or registered form or both, as the 336 corporation may determine, and provision may be made for the registration of any coupon bonds

337 as to principal alone and also as to both principal and interest. The corporation may sell the 338 bonds in a manner and for a price, either at public or private sale, as it may determine to be for 339 the best interests of the corporation.

340 The proceeds of the bonds shall be used solely for the payment of the cost of a 341 development project and shall be disbursed in a manner and under such restrictions, if any, as the 342 corporation may provide. Before the preparation of definitive bonds, the corporation may, under 343 like restrictions, issue interim receipts or temporary bonds, with or without coupons, 344 exchangeable for definitive bonds when the bonds have been executed and are available for 345 delivery. The corporation may also provide for the replacement of any bonds which shall 346 become mutilated or shall be destroyed or lost. Revenue bonds may be issued under this act 347 subject only to those proceedings, conditions or things which are specifically required by this act.

348 The corporation may provide by resolution for the issuance of revenue refunding bonds 349 of the corporation for the purpose of refunding any revenue bonds then outstanding and issued 350 under this act, including the payment of any redemption premium thereon on any interest 351 accrued or to accrue to the date of redemption of the bonds and, if deemed advisable by the 352 corporation, for the additional purpose of construction or reconstructing and extensions or 353 improvements of the development project. The issue of the bonds, the maturities, and other 354 details thereof, the rights of the holders thereof, and the duties of the corporation relative thereto 355 shall be governed by this act insofar as it is applicable.

356 While any bonds issued by the corporation remain outstanding, the powers, duties or 357 existence of the corporation shall not be diminished or impaired in any way that will adversely 358 affect the interests and rights of the holders of the bonds.

359 Revenue and revenue refunding bonds issued under this act, unless otherwise authorized 360 by law, shall not constitute a debt of the commonwealth or the town, or a pledge of the full faith 361 and credit of the commonwealth or of the town, but the bonds shall be payable solely from the 362 funds herein provided therefore from revenues generated by the corporation. If the corporation 363 or the town or commonwealth is not obliged to pay the revenue or revenue refunding bonds, all 364 the revenue and revenue refunding bonds shall contain on the face thereof a statement to the 365 effect that neither the corporation nor the commonwealth nor the town shall be obliged to pay the 366 same or the interest thereon except from revenues, and that neither the faith and credit nor taxing 367 power of the commonwealth or of the town is pledged to the payment on the bonds.

368 All revenue and revenue refunding bonds issued under this act shall have all the qualities 369 and incidents of negotiable instruments as defined in section 3-104 of chapter 106 of the General 370 Laws.

371 SECTION 12. In the discretion of the corporation, the revenue bonds or revenue 372 refunding bonds may be secured by a trust agreement by and between the corporation and a 373 corporate trustee, which may be any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust 374 company within the commonwealth. The trust agreement may pledge or assign the revenues to 375 be received, but shall not convey or mortgage any development project or part thereof.

376 Either the resolution providing for the issuance of bonds or the trust agreement may 377 contain provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the bondholders, 378 including, without limitation, provisions defining defaults and providing for remedies in the 379 event thereof, which may include the acceleration of maturities, and covenants setting forth the 380 duties of and limitations on the corporation in relation to the acquisition, construction,

381 improvement, enlargement, alteration, equipping, furnishing, maintenance, operation, repair, 382 insurance and disposition of property, the custody, safeguarding, investment and application of 383 moneys, the use of any surplus bond or note proceeds and the establishment of reserves. The 384 resolution or trust agreement may also contain covenants by the corporation in relation to:

385 (1) the establishment, revision and collection of rents and charges for services of facilities 386 furnished or supplied by the corporation that provide revenues sufficient with other revenues of 387 the development project, if any, to pay

388 (i) the cost of maintaining, repairing and operating the development project and of 389 making renewals and replacements in connection therewith,

390 (ii) the principal of and the interest on the revenue bonds as they become due and 391 payable,

392 (iii) payments in lieu of taxes, betterment and special assessments, and (iv) 393 reserves for such purposes;

394 (2) the purpose or purposes for which the proceeds of the sale of the bonds will be 395 applied and the use and disposition thereof;

396 (3) the use and disposition of the gross revenues of the corporation from the development 397 project, any additions thereto and extensions and improvements thereof, including the creation 398 and maintenance of funds for working capital and for renewals and replacements to the 399 development project;

400 (4) the amount, if any, of additional revenue bonds payable from the revenues of the 401 development project and the limitations, terms and conditions on which the additional revenue 402 bonds may be issued; and

403 (5) the operation, maintenance, management, accounting and auditing of the development 404 project and of the income and revenues of the corporation.

405 It shall be lawful for any bank or trust company incorporated under the laws of the 406 commonwealth to act as depository of the proceeds of the bonds or of revenues and to furnish 407 indemnifying bonds or to pledge securities as required by the corporation. The trust agreement 408 may set forth the rights and remedies of the bondholders and of the trustees and may restrict the 409 individual right of action by bondholders as is customary in trust agreements or trust indentures 410 securing bonds and debentures of corporations. The trust agreement may contain other 411 provisions as the corporation considers reasonable and proper for the security of the 412 bondholders. All expenses incurred in carrying out the trust agreement may be treated as a part 413 of the cost of the operation of the development project. The pledge by any trust agreement or 414 resolution shall be valid and binding from the time when the pledge is made; the revenues or 415 other moneys so pledged and then held or later received by the corporation shall immediately be 416 subject to the lien of the pledge without any physical delivery thereof or further act; and the lien 417 of the pledge shall be valid and binding as against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, 418 contract or otherwise against the corporation, irrespective of whether the parties have notice 419 thereof. Neither the resolution nor any trust agreement by which pledge it is created need be 420 filed or recorded except in the records of the corporation, and no filing need be made under 421 chapter 106 of the General Laws.

422 SECTION 13. Revenue bonds and revenue refunding bonds issued under this act are 423 hereby made securities in which all public officers and public bodies of the commonwealth and 424 its political subdivisions, all insurance companies, trust companies in their commercial 425 departments and within the limits set by section 6 of chapter 167E of the General Laws, banking 426 associations, investment companies, executors, trustees and other fiduciaries, and all other 427 persons who are now or may hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of a 428 similar nature may properly and legally invest funds, including capital in their control and 429 belonging to them; and the bonds are hereby made obligations which may properly and legally 430 be made eligible for the investment of savings deposits and income thereof in the manner 431 provided by section 2 of said chapter 167F. The bonds are hereby made securities which may 432 properly and legally be deposited with and received by any state or municipal officer or any 433 agency or political subdivision of the commonwealth for any purpose for which the deposit of 434 bonds or other obligations of the commonwealth is now or may hereafter be authorized by law.

435 SECTION 14. To provide funds for the general purposes of the corporation, including 436 working capital, the corporation may, from time to time, issue debentures which, unless 437 otherwise authorized by law, shall not constitute a debt of the commonwealth or of the town, or a 438 pledge of the full faith and credit of the commonwealth or of the town, and shall be subordinated 439 to all other obligations of the corporation and shall be payable at the time and in installments, if 440 any, as the corporation shall determine, but solely out of the net assets of the corporation; and the 441 holders thereof shall be entitled to interest thereon, but only out of the net earnings of the 442 corporation, and in no event at a rate higher than the rate specified therein.

443 The debentures may be secured by a trust agreement by and between the corporation and 444 a corporate trustee, which shall be a trust company or bank located within the commonwealth

445 having the powers of a trust company. The trust agreement shall contain provisions for 446 protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the debenture holder. It shall be lawful for 447 any bank or trust company incorporated under the laws of the commonwealth which may act as a 448 depository under the trust agreement to furnish indemnifying bonds or to pledge securities as 449 required by the corporation. The trust agreement shall set forth the rights and remedies of the 450 debenture holders and of the trustee, and may restrict individual right of action by debenture 451 holders. The trust agreement may contain such other provisions as the corporation may consider 452 reasonable and proper for the security of the debenture holders. All expenses incurred in 453 carrying out the trust agreement may be treated as an item of current expense.

454 Debentures may be issued under this act without obtaining the consent of any department, 455 division, office, commission, board, bureau or agency of the commonwealth or the town, and 456 without any other proceedings or the happenings of any other condition or things other than 457 those proceedings, conditions or things which are specifically required by this act.

458 SECTION 15. Any holder of bonds or debentures issued under this act or of any coupons 459 appertaining thereto, and the trustee, except to the extent the rights herein given may be 460 restricted by the trust agreement, may, either at law or in equity, by suit, action, mandamus or 461 other proceeding, protect and enforce all rights under the laws of the commonwealth or granted 462 hereunder or under the trust agreement, and may enforce and compel the performance of all 463 duties required by this act or by the trust agreement, to be performed by the corporation or by 464 any officer thereof.

465 SECTION 16. The corporation shall not deposit any of its funds in a banking institution 466 not authorized to provide banking services in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. The 467 designation of a banking institution as a depository shall be subject to a vote of a majority of the 468 directors present at an authorized meeting of the board of directors, exclusive of any director 469 who is an officer or director of the depository so designated. Said corporation shall not receive 470 money on deposit.

471 SECTION 17. The corporation shall be liable in contract and in tort in the same manner 472 as a municipal corporation. The directors, employees, officers and agents of the corporation 473 shall be liable in contracts and tort, in the same manner as municipal employees under the 474 General Laws. The corporation shall indemnify the directors, officers, employees and agents of 475 the corporation under sections 9 and 13 of chapter 258 of the General Laws as public 476 employees. The property or funds of the corporation shall not be subject to attachment or to levy 477 and sale on execution, but if the corporation refuses to pay a judgment entered against it in any 478 court of competent jurisdiction, the superior court may direct the treasurer of the corporation to 479 pay the judgment. The real estate owned by the corporation shall not be subject to liens under 480 chapter 254 of the General Laws, but sections 28 and 29 of chapter 149 of the General Laws 481 shall be applicable to any construction work by the corporation.

482 SECTION 18. The corporation shall file annual reports with the state secretary and the 483 board of selectmen. These annual reports shall also be published in a newspaper of general 484 circulation in the town within 60 days after the close of the corporation's fiscal year. The state 485 secretary shall make copies of such reports available to the commissioner of insurance and to the 486 commissioner of banks, and the corporation shall also furnish such other information as may, 487 from time to time, be required by the state secretary

488 SECTION 19. The corporation is hereby designated as a community-based development 489 organization for purposes of carrying out community or economic development projects with 490 federal financial assistance.

491 SECTION 20. The corporation is hereby designated as a non profit organization that 492 may act as a land trust for purposes of carrying out preservation projects as defined in section 2 493 and for receiving assignment of the town's first refusal options under chapter 61, chapter 61A or 494 chapter 61B of the General Laws.

495 SECTION 21. The corporation may, upon the affirmative vote of two-thirds of its 496 members and upon an authorization vote of town meeting, petition for its dissolution by order of 497 the supreme judicial or superior court, in the manner provided in section 11A of chapter 180 of 498 the General Laws.

499 SECTION 22. If the corporation shall fail to commence operations within 6 years after 500 the effective date of this act, then the provisions of this act shall cease to be effective.

501 SECTION 23. This act shall take effect upon its passage.
