

SENATE No. 2659

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Ten

An Act Text of the Senate amendment (Ways and Means) to the House Resolve establishing a special commission on gender-responsive programming for system-involved girls H.4931.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 RESOLVED, That a special commission be established to investigate and study methods 2 of instituting gender-responsive programming for juvenile justice system involved girls and to 3 improve the effectiveness of services therefor. The commission shall consist of 2 members of the 4 senate, 1 of whom shall be appointed by the senate president, 1 of whom shall be appointed by 5 the minority leader; 2 members of the house of representatives, 1 of whom shall be appointed by 6 the speaker, 1 of whom shall be appointed by the minority leader; the secretary of health and 7 human services or a designee thereof; the commissioner of elementary and secondary education 8 or a designee thereof; the commissioner of probation or a designee thereof; the commissioner of 9 youth services or a designee thereof; the commissioner of children and families or a designee
10 thereof; the commissioner of mental health or a designee thereof; the commissioner of public 11 health or a designee thereof; the chief counsel for the committee for public counsel services or a 12 designee thereof; the chief justice of the juvenile court department or a designee thereof; and 8 13 persons to be appointed by the governor who are current state vendors that provide direct 14 services to high-risk girls and who, collectively, serve or reside in each major geographic area of 15 the commonwealth or representatives thereof. The governor shall designate a chairperson or 2 16 co-chairpersons from the aforementioned members.

17 The commission shall: (i) conduct a review of gender-responsive programming 18 implementation successes and challenges in the commonwealth and in other states' juvenile 19 justice systems; (ii) conduct a review of the published reports, curricula and best practices for 20 gender-specific programming by government, foundations and non-profit organizations; (iii) 21 conduct a review of leading indicators that statistically result in girls becoming involved in 22 juvenile justice systems; (iv) review relevant state training curricula; (v) review relevant state 23 agencies' methods of data collection and aggregation by gender and race; (vi) analyze and 24 evaluate relevant state contracts with private or community-based vendors for the purpose of 25 determining whether these vendors utilize a comprehensive approach when providing 26 programming for girls involved in juvenile justice systems; (vii) analyze and report the rates of 27 recidivism amongst juvenile justice system involved girls; (viii) analyze and report the rates of 28 non-juvenile justice system executive agency service utilization by juvenile justice system
29 involved girls; (ix) track and analyze educational attainment of juvenile justice system involved 30 girls; (x) hold at least 3 regional meetings across the commonwealth to solicit the input of 31 community members and agencies serving high-risk girls; and (xi) establish a mechanism for 32 incorporating the opinions of juvenile justice system involved girls into the commission's 33 findings.

34 The commission shall meet at least 6 times per year at the call of the chair or 35 chairpersons or at the call of a majority of the commission's members. The commission may 36 seek assistance from other organizations or individuals on a pro bono basis. The commission 37 shall file periodic reports that shall include recommendations relative to gender-responsive

38 programming, both community-based and state-wide, for serving high-risk and juvenile justice 39 system involved girls with the clerks of the senate and the house of representatives who shall 40 forward the same to the joint committee on children, families and persons with disabilities. The 41 initial report of the commission shall be filed on or before January 31, 2012 and biennially 42 thereafter.
