The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Nine

An Act to promote tolerance and reduce violence in schools.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 71, Section 37H of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after the second paragraph thereof the following paragraphs: -

3 "The Department of Education shall develop guidelines for the development of policies regarding acts by students motivated by hatred or intolerance in such cases where these acts violate the provisions of law and in those cases where they do not violate the provisions of any particular law but nonetheless have the potential to negatively impact the learning environment.

7 Said guidelines shall be developed in consultation with the Massachusetts Commission Against Discrimination, the Massachusetts Association of School Superintendents, the Massachusetts

Principal's Association, the Massachusetts Association of School Committees, the Attorney

General of the Commonwealth and the Massachusetts Association of Chiefs of Police. Said guidelines shall provide the basis for preventing and eliminating any such acts of hatred or intolerance and for appropriate action in response to any such acts by a particular school. Such guidelines shall be promulgated to all school districts in the Commonwealth not later than 18 14 months following the passage of this Act.
