6 absent from the dwelling for safety reasons, shall be considered an occupant."owner" shall have 7 the same meaning as "owner" as set forth at 105 C.M.R. 410.036"rape" shall mean the 8 commission of any act as set forth in section 22, 22A, 23, 24 or 24B of chapter 265 or sections 2, 9 3 or 17 of chapter 272. "sexual assault" shall mean the commission of any act as set forth in 10 sections 13B, 13F, 13H of chapter 265 or section 35A of chapter 272. "stalking" shall mean the 11 commission of any act as set forth in section 43 of chapter 265."qualified third party" shall mean 12 a police officer, licensed medical care provider, an employee of a court of the state acting in the 13 course of his or her duties, member of the clergy, attorney, social worker, licensed mental health

14 professional or other licensed counselor, or advocate working at an agency that assists victims of 15 domestic violence, rape, sexual assault, or stalking.

16 “Quitting date” shall mean the date upon which the tenant or occupant actually vacates 17 the unit and removes all her or his belongings and/or vacates the unit and notifies the owner that 18 she or he is abandoning the unit.2.(a ) If a tenant or occupant notifies the owner in writing that he 19 or she or a member of her or his household is a victim of domestic violence, rape, sexual assault 20 or stalking, and any one of the following applies, then subsection (3) of this subsection applies:i.
21 The tenant or occupant or a member of her or his household has a valid order for protection
22 under chapter 209A;ii. The tenant or occupant or a member of her or his household has notified
23 a law enforcement officer of an act or acts of domestic violence, rape, sexual assault or stalking;
24 oriii. The tenant or occupant or member of her or his household has consulted with a qualified 25 third party and reported the domestic violence, rape, sexual assault or stalking to the qualified 26 third party.(b) When a copy of the order for protection, police report, or verification of 27 consultation with or report to a qualified third party as provided by herein, is made available to 28 the owner, the tenant or occupant may terminate the rental agreement as provided in section 3 29 and quit the premises. However, the request to terminate the rental agreement must occur within 30 six months of the most recent acts, events, or circumstances that gave rise to the protective order, 31 report to a law enforcement officer, or consultation with or report to a qualified third party.

32 Verification of consultation with or reporting to a qualified third party may consist of a 33 signed statement of the qualified third party or a form routinely provided by the qualified third 34 party for completion by clients. This form must be in substantially the following form:

54 Signature of authorized officer/employee of (Organization, agency, clinic, professional 55 service provider)<sup>3</sup>. A tenant or occupant who terminates a rental agreement under this section is

56 discharged from the payment of rent for any period following the month of the quitting date, and 57 is entitled to a refund of any prepaid rent for any period following the month of the quitting date,
58 and shall receive a full and specific statement of the basis for retaining any of security deposit
59 together with any refund due in compliance with G.L. c. 186 section 15B. Other tenants who are 60 parties to the rental agreement are not released from their obligations under the rental agreement
61 or other obligations under this chapter.4. (a) An owner may not terminate a tenancy, fail to renew 62 a tenancy, or refuse to enter into a rental agreement based on the tenant or occupant's or 63 applicant's or a member of his or her household's status as a victim of domestic violence, rape, 64 sexual assault or stalking, or based upon actions or failure to act that resulted from domestic 65 violence, rape, sexual assault or stalking directed at the tenant's or a member of his or her 66 household. . An owner shall not terminate a tenancy of a tenant who has provided temporary 67 shelter to a victim of domestic violence, rape, sexual assault or stalking based upon alleged 68 unauthorized occupants. An owner may not refuse to enter into a rental agreement based on the 69 tenant or applicant having terminated or having a history of having terminated a rental agreement
70 under subsection 2 of this section nor shall an owner cause to be made any written or oral inquiry
71 or record concerning an applicant's status as a victim of domestic violence, rape, sexual assault
72 or stalking or history of such status provided that if an applicant seeks a priority or preference
73 from a housing provider based upon the applicant's status as a victim of domestic violence, rape, 74 sexual assault, or stalking , or, if an occupant seeks assistance from a housing provider based 75 upon the preceding status, the provider may request documentation of the domestic violence, 76 rape, sexual assault, or stalking.. (b) An owner who refuses to enter into a rental agreement or 77 who terminates a tenancy or refuses to enter into a new tenancy or who makes inquiry into an 78 applicant's status as a victim of domestic violence, rape, sexual assault or stalking or history of

79 such status in violation of this section shall be liable to the tenant or applicant in a civil action
80 for damages sustained by the tenant or applicant. The tenant or applicant may also recover court 81 costs and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred in association with actions resulting from this 82 section..( c ) This section does not prohibit adverse housing decisions based upon other lawful 83 factors within the owner's knowledge. 5. In any new action brought for possession of premises 84 occupied for dwelling purposes involving domestic violence, rape, sexual assault, or stalking, the 85 court, consistent with its existing equitable authority, shall have the authority to craft an 86 equitable solution which protects the legitimate concerns of all parties.6.(a) Neither a tenant 87 screening service provider nor an owner may include information in a written or oral report to an 88 owner pertaining to domestic violence, rape, sexual assault or stalking; pertaining to the fact that 89 the subject of the report is a victim of domestic violence, rape, sexual assault or stalking; or that 90 the subject of the report has terminated a rental agreement under subsection 2 of this section.(b)
91 A tenant screening service provider or an owner who violates this section shall be liable in a civil 92 action for damages sustained by the subject of the report. The subject of the report may recover 93 court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred as a result of violations of this section.7. (a)
94 An owner shall, upon the request of a tenant or occupant of a residential dwelling unit, change 95 the exterior locks of the dwelling unit in which the tenant or occupant lives if one or more of the 96 tenants or occupants reasonably believes that one of the tenants or occupants or a member of the 97 tenant or occupant's household is under a credible imminent threat of domestic violence, rape,
98 sexual assault, or stalking at the premises. The owner shall have the right to request, in good 99 faith, evidence to support a claim of domestic violence, rape, sexual assault or stalking.
100 However, no owner is required to request such evidence and can change the locks as requested 101 upon receipt of the written request of the tenant or occupant alone. If the threat of

102 domestic violence, rape, sexual assault or stalking is from a person who is also a tenant or 103 occupant of the leased dwelling unit, notice to the owner requesting a change of exterior locks
104 shall be accompanied by evidence to support a claim of domestic violence, rape, sexual assault,
105 or stalking including but not limited to orders pursuant to G.L.c. 209A, police reports, or court 106 records indicating which tenant or occupant is posing the threat of domestic violence, rape, 107 sexual assault, or stalking. The tenant or occupant requesting a change of exterior locks shall not 108 be required to obtain written notice from or give notice to the person posing a threat regardless of 109 which tenant is the lessee or head of household under a written lease or tenancy at will.

110 Notwithstanding the preceding two paragraphs, where a court of the Commonwealth has issued
111 an order pursuant to G.L. c. 209A or any other provision of law, vacating a tenant or occupant
112 from the dwelling unit, the owner shall do nothing to interfere with this order and upon a request 113 to change the exterior locks as described in this section, shall comply with this request.

114 An owner complying with this section or with the requirements of a G.L. c. 209A or other order, 115 shall be relieved of any liability to the vacated tenant or occupant or to any other third party on 116 account of the owner's good faith compliance with the court order and/or the owner's good faith
117 changing the exterior locks as provided in this section.(b) An owner who has received notice of 118 a request for change of exterior locks as provided in paragraph a. above, shall, within 48 hours,
119 change the exterior locks or give the tenant or occupant the permission to change the exterior
120 locks. If the owner changes the exterior locks, the owner shall give a key to the new exterior 121 locks to the tenant or occupant requesting the exterior lock change as soon as possible or not 122 more than 48 hours of the exterior locks being changed.( c) An owner may charge a fee for the 123 expense of changing the exterior locks. That fee must not exceed the reasonable price 124 customarily charged for changing an exterior lock in that community.(d) If an owner fails to

125 change the exterior locks within 48 hours after being provided with the notice described in 126 paragraph a. above, along with evidence if required by paragraph a. above, the tenant or 127 occupant may change the exterior locks without the owner's permission. Where the lease or 128 tenancy agreement requires that the owner retain a key to the leased residential premises, where 129 the tenant or occupant changes the exterior locks, the tenant or occupant shall make a good faith
130 effort to give a key to the new exterior locks to the owner within 48 hours of the exterior locks 131 being changed. In the case where a tenant or occupant changes the exterior locks without the 132 owner's permission, the tenant or occupant shall do so in a workmanlike manner with exterior
133 locks of similar or better quality than the original exterior locks.(e) Any owner who takes action 134 to prevent the tenant or occupant who has complied with paragraph a, above from changing his 135 or her exterior locks or any owner who changes the exterior locks and does not make a good faith
136 effort to provide a key to the tenant or occupant as provided in paragraph b above, shall be liable
137 for actual and consequential damages or three months' rent, whichever is greater, and the costs 138 of the action including a reasonable attorney's fee, all of which may be applied in setoff or 139 recoupment against any claim for rent owed or owing for use and occupancy. The superior and 140 district courts shall have jurisdiction in equity to restrain violations of this section. The 141 provisions of section 18 of chapter 186 and section 2A of chapter 239 shall apply to any act 142 taken as a reprisal against any person for requesting the exterior locks be changed in accordance 143 with this section and/or for proceeding against violations of this section. Any waiver of this 144 provision in any lease or other rental agreement, except with respect to any restriction specified 145 or imposed by the United States or any agency thereof or the commonwealth or any agency or 146 political division, shall be void and unenforceable. 8. No owner shall refuse to sell or negotiate 147 for sale or lease or otherwise to deny or withhold from any person or group of persons

148 accommodations or land because of the person or group or persons status as a victims of 149 domestic violence, rape, sexual assault or stalking or history of such status.
