6 investigating the use and effectiveness of the “comprehensive permit law”, sections 20 to 23, 7 inclusive of chapter 40B of the General Laws. The commission shall consist of the secretary of 8 administration and finance or his designee; the secretary of housing and economic development 9 or his designee; the secretary of transportation and construction or his designee; 2 members 10 appointed by the president of the senate, including the senate chair of the joint committee on 11 municipalities and regional government, the senate chair of the joint committee housing; 1 12 member appointed by the senate minority leader; 2 members appointed by the speaker of the 13 house of representatives, including the house chair of the joint committee on municipalities and

14 regional government, the house chair of the joint committee housing; and 1 member appointed 15 by the house minority leader.

16 The commission shall study the effectiveness of the “comprehensive permit law” as a 17 mechanism for promoting the construction of affordable housing units in the Commonwealth and 18 its impact on regional and municipal planning. The commission shall hold 14 public hearings, 19 one in each county in the Commonwealth, to solicit public testimony and evidence of the 20 positive and negative aspects of the “comprehensive permit law”. The commission shall issues a 21 report that shall include the history of the “comprehensive permit law; a summary of the 22 testimony presented at the public hearings; and any legislative or regulatory amendments it 23 deems necessary to ensure the “comprehensive permit law” effectively promotes the best 24 interests of the Commonwealth and its municipalities.

25 The commission shall file its report with the clerk of the senate and the clerk of house of 26 representatives on or before December 31, 2011
