The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Eleven

An Act regulating secondary metals dealings.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. The General Laws are hereby amended by inserting after chapter 140B, the 2 following chapter:-

3 CHAPTER 140B½ SECONDARY METAL DEALING

4 For the purposes of this chapter, the following terms shall have the following meanings
5 unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

6 “Engaging in a business”, a regular occupation or constant employment; not an isolated 7 or occasional transaction.

8 “Licensing authority”, the chief of police or the board or officer having control of the 9 police in a city or town, or persons authorized by them.

10 “Metal” or “metal article”, any substance or article consisting of metal or a metal alloy 11 but excluding aluminum beverage containers if such containers have a refund value pursuant to 12 section 322 of chapter 94.

13 “Secondary metals dealer”, any business, individual, corporation, association or 14 organization engaged in secondary metals dealing for profit, whether or not licensed pursuant to 15 section 2.

16 “Secondary metals dealing”, engaging in a business , from a fixed location or otherwise, 17 of gathering or obtaining metal or metal articles that are no longer in use and the economic value 18 thereof is based upon the metal or article’s potential for re-use or upon the worth of the raw 19 material of which such article is made.

20 Section 2. (a) In accordance with Section 4 of Chapter 140 of the General Laws, no 21 person shall carry on the business of being a scrap metal processor, collector of, dealer in or 22 keeper of a shop for the purchase, sale, and barter of junk, scrap metal commodities, old metals
23 or second hand articles without a license issued by the licensing authority.

24 (b) All applications for licenses under this section shall be made on a form or forms to be 25 prescribed by the licensing authority, as prescribed in Section 1 of this Act and shall set forth the 26 name of the licensee, the nature of the business and the building or place in the city or town in 27 which it is to be carried on.

28 (c) The fee for such license shall be determined by the licensing authority. Societies, 29 associations or corporations organized solely for religious or charitable purposes shall not be 30 required to pay a fee for such license. No licenses shall be transferred without prior consent of

31 the chief of police and all licenses shall be posted on the licensed premises in a conspicuous 32 place and manner.

33 (d) Every license issued under this section shall expire on May first following the date of 34 issue.

35 (e) The licensing authority may grant an exemption to any one or more of the 36 requirements in sub-section (c) for a particular transaction. A request for an exemption must be 37 made by the licensee in writing to the licensing authority stating the reason for the request. The 38 licensing authority shall approve or disapprove the request and send written notification of the 39 decision to the licensee. The licensing authority, in his/her discretion may impose any terms, 40 conditions, restrictions on any exemption granted under this section.

41 (f) Any person carrying on the business of being a collector of, dealer in or keeper of a 42 shop for the purchase, sale, barter of junk, old metals or second hand articles without a license or 43 in violation of this section shall be assessed a fine in the amount established by the Secretary of 44 Public Safety.

45 Section 3. Chapter 140 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after section
46 54A the following new section:- Section 54B. A dealer licensed under section 54 shall comply 47 with the following procedures when purchasing any metal product. 1. The Dealer shall keep a 48 daily transaction log, in the English language. The log information will include: a. Name, date of 49 birth and residence of the person with whom such a transaction was made, or company or 50 organization name and principal address with whom such a transaction was made; b. The date 51 and time when such a transaction occurred; c. The price paid for the article; d. A description of 52 the article, including type, weight and quantity; e. The license plate number and state of issue of

53 the vehicle being used by the person offering the article to transport the article to the licensee's 54 place of business. f. A written statement from the person offering the article stating that he or she 55 is in lawful possession of the article being offered. 2. A secondary metals dealer may not accept 56 or purchase new production scrap or new materials that are part of a manufacturing process, from 57 any individual, who is not company affiliated or an authorized contractor of the manufacturer,
58 municipality, government or utility. Other items that cannot be accepted by a secondary metals
