HOUSE No. 1080

By Ms. Walz of Boston, a petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 1080) of Martha Walz and others for legislation to provide for the implementation of personal financial literacy curriculum in schools. Education.

[SIMILAR MATTER FILED IN PREVIOUS SESSION
SEE SENATE, NO. 2275 OF 2009-2010.]

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Eleven

An Act concerning personal financial literacy curriculum in schools.

Whereas, The deferred operation of this act would tend to defeat its purpose, which is to increase the personal financial literacy of students in the Commonwealth, therefore it is hereby declared to be an emergency law, necessary for the immediate preservation of the public convenience.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 69 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2008 Official Edition,
2 is hereby amended by inserting after section 1N the following section:-

3 Section 1O. To equip students with the knowledge and skills they need to become self-4 supporting and to enable students to make critical decisions regarding personal finances, the 5 department of elementary and secondary education shall authorize and assist in the 6 implementation of curriculum on personal financial literacy. The components of personal 7 financial literacy covered in the curriculum shall include the following: understanding loans,

8 borrowing money, interest, credit card debt, and online commerce; rights and responsibilities of 9 renting or buying a home; saving, investing and planning for retirement; banking and financial 10 services; bankruptcy; balancing a checkbook; state and federal taxes; charitable giving; and 11 identity theft and fraud.

12 The department shall develop standards and objectives for personal financial literacy, for 13 grades pre-kindergarten to 12, inclusive, within the existing mathematics curriculum. The 14 department shall make available to school districts a list of resources to aid in the selection of 15 materials and resources on personal financial literacy.

16 SECTION 2. The department shall establish an advisory committee to consist of 10 17 members: a representative from the department of elementary and secondary education, to be 18 appointed by the commissioner of elementary and secondary education, who shall be designated 19 as chair of the committee; 2 educators, 1 of whom shall be appointed by the Massachusetts
20 Teachers Association and 1 of whom shall be appointed by the American Federation of Teachers
21 Massachusetts; a superintendent appointed by the Massachusetts Association of School
22 Superintendents; a representative from the Massachusetts office of consumer affairs and business
23 regulation, to be appointed by the undersecretary of the Massachusetts office of consumer affairs 24 and business regulation; a representative appointed by the state treasurer and receiver general; a 25 representative appointed by the Massachusetts Bankers Association; a representative appointed 26 by the Massachusetts Credit Union League; a representative appointed by the Massachusetts
27 Council on Economic Education; and a professor from a Massachusetts college who teaches 28 financial literacy or personal finance, to be appointed by the commissioner of higher education.

29 The advisory committee shall meet no less than 3 times annually. The advisory 30 committee shall assess the trends and needs in personal financial literacy and make an 31 investigation and study relative to the development of curriculum, high quality materials, and 32 guidelines that public and nonpublic schools may use to implement a program of instruction on 33 personal financial literacy. The advisory committee shall submit a report annually to the clerks of 34 the senate and the house who shall forward the same to the chairs of the joint committee on 35 education on or before December 31. The advisory committee shall consult with individuals with 36 relevant experience including representatives from insurance and investment firms, real estate 37 firms, and bankruptcy attorneys.

38 SECTION 3. The department of elementary and secondary education shall conduct a 39 study concerning the feasibility of inclusion of personal financial literacy in the Massachusetts 40 Comprehensive Assessment System and in the Massachusetts Curriculum Frameworks. The 41 department shall submit a report with its conclusions and recommendations, including a 42 timetable for implementation, to the chairs of the house and senate committees on ways and 43 means and the chairs of the joint committee on education on or before December 31, 2011.
