The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Eleven
—————

An Act establishing uniform enforcement provisions and making other changes applicable to certain licensees under the jurisdiction of the Division of Banks.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 24B of chapter 93, as appearing in the 2008 Official Edition, is 2 hereby amended by striking out subsection (b) and inserting in place thereof the following:—

3 (b) Each license shall state the address at which the business is to be conducted and shall 4 state the name of the licensee. If a licensee intends to carry on such business at any place in 5 addition to the address on the license, he shall so notify the commissioner, in writing, at least 30 6 days prior thereto, and he shall pay a fee for such additional location at a reasonable cost as 7 determined by the commissioner. Such notice shall contain the address of any such additional 8 location and such other information as the commissioner may require; provided, however, that 9 any such business shall at all times be conducted in the name of the licensee as it appears on the 10 license. A copy of such license shall be posted as determined by the Commissioner. Such 11 copies for places of business at addresses other than that appearing on the license may be

12 obtained at a reasonable cost, as determined by the commissioner. Such license shall not be 13 transferable or assignable and shall expire annually on a date determined by the commissioner.

14 SECTION 2. Chapter 93 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 15 striking out section 24F and inserting in place thereof the following section:—

16 Section 24F. The commissioner, or such other of his assistants as he may designate, may 17 summon a licensee, or any of his agents or employees, and other witnesses as he considers 18 necessary, and examine them relative to their transactions, may require the production of books 19 and papers and, for those purposes may administer oaths. Whoever, without justifiable cause, 20 fails or refuses to appear and testify or to produce books and papers when so required, or 21 obstructs the commissioner or his representatives in the performance of their duties, shall be 22 punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than 6 months, or 23 both. Each day a violation occurs or continues shall be considered a separate offense. The 24 penalty provision of this section shall be in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other provision of 25 law applicable to a licensee or other person for violating section 24A or any rule or regulation 26 made thereunder.

27 SECTION 3. Chapter 93 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 28 adding after section 24K the following two sections:—

29 Section 24L. (a) Whenever the commissioner finds that any licensee or exempt 30 person under section 24A of this chapter has violated any provision of this chapter or any rule or 31 regulation adopted thereunder, or any other law of the Commonwealth applicable to the conduct 32 of the business of a debt collector or a third party loan servicer, the commissioner may, by order, 33 in addition to any other action authorized under this chapter or any rule or regulation made

34 thereunder, impose a penalty upon such person which shall not exceed five thousand dollars for 35 each violation, up to a maximum of one hundred thousand dollars for such violation plus the 36 costs of investigation. The commissioner may impose a penalty which shall not exceed five 37 thousand dollars for each violation of this chapter, or any rule or regulation adopted thereunder, 38 by a person other than a licensee or exempt person under section 24A of this chapter, plus the 39 costs of investigation.

40 (b) Nothing in this section shall limit the right of any individual or entity who has 41 been injured as a result of any violation of this chapter by a licensee, or any person other than a 42 licensee or exempt person under section 24A of this chapter, to bring an action to recover 43 damages or restitution in a court of competent jurisdiction.

44 (c) Any findings or order issued by the commissioner pursuant to this section shall be 45 subject to review as provided in chapter thirty A.

46 Section 24M. (a) Whenever the commissioner determines that any person has, directly or 47 indirectly, violated any section of this chapter or any rule or regulation adopted thereunder, 48 applicable to the conduct of the business of a debt collector or a third party loan servicer; or any 49 order issued by the commissioner under this chapter or any written agreement entered between 50 such licensee and the commissioner; the commissioner may serve upon such person a written 51 notice of intention:

52 (1) to prohibit such person from performing in the capacity of a principal employee on 53 behalf of any licensee for such period of time that the commissioner deems necessary;

54 (2) to prohibit the person from applying for or obtaining a license from the commissioner 55 for a period up to thirty-six months following the effective date of an order issued under 56 subsection (b) or (c); or

57 (3) to prohibit such person from any further participation, in any manner, in the conduct 58 of the affairs of a debt collector or a third party loan servicer in Massachusetts or to prohibit such 59 person from being employed by, an agent of, or operating on behalf of a licensee under this 60 chapter or any other business which requires a license from the commissioner.

61 (b) A written notice issued under subsection (a) shall contain a written statement of the 62 facts that support the prohibition and shall give notice of an opportunity for a hearing to be held
63 thereon. Such hearing shall be fixed for a date not more than thirty days after the date of service 64 upon the commissioner of such request for a hearing. If such person fails to submit a request for 65 a hearing within twenty days of service of notice under subsection (a), or otherwise fails to 66 appear in person or by a duly authorized representative, such party shall be deemed to have 67 consented to the issuance of an order of such prohibition in accordance with the notice.

68 (c) In the event of such consent under subsection (b), or if after a hearing the 69 commissioner finds that any of the grounds specified in such notice have been established, the 70 commissioner may issue an order of prohibition in accordance with subsection (a) as the 71 commissioner finds appropriate.

72 (d) An order issued under subsection (b) or (c) shall be effective upon service upon the 73 person. The commissioner shall also serve a copy of the order upon the licensee of which the 74 person is an employee or on whose behalf the person is performing. The order shall remain in

75 effect and enforceable until it is modified, terminated, suspended, or set aside by the 76 commissioner or a court of competent jurisdiction.

77 (e) Except as consented to in writing by the commissioner, any person who, pursuant to 78 an order issued under subsection (b) or (c), has been prohibited from participating in whole or in 79 part in the conduct of the affairs of a debt collector or a third party loan servicer in Massachusetts 80 may not, while such order is in effect, continue or commence to perform in the capacity of a 81 principal employee, or otherwise participate in any manner, if so prohibited by order of the 82 commissioner, in the conduct of the affairs of:

83 (1) any licensee under this chapter;

84 (2) any other business which requires a license from the commissioner; and

85 (3) any bank, as defined under section one of chapter one hundred sixty-seven, or any 86 subsidiary thereof.

87 SECTION 4. Chapter 140 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 88 striking out section 96 and inserting in place thereof the following section:—

89 Section 96. No person shall directly or indirectly engage in the business of making loans 90 of nine thousand dollars or less, adjusted to the average annual rate of inflation as measured by 91 the Consumer Price Index released for the previous year and announced each year as of March 1 92 by the commissioner, if the amount to be paid on any such loan for interest and expenses exceeds 93 in the aggregate an amount equivalent to twelve per cent per annum upon the sum loaned, 94 without first obtaining from the commissioner of banks, in sections ninety-six to one hundred

95 and fourteen, inclusive, called the commissioner, a license to carry on the said business in the 96 town where the business is to be transacted.

97 When an application for a loan or for an endorsement or guarantee or for the purchase of 98 a note is made by any person within this commonwealth, and the money is advanced or the 99 endorsement or guarantee is made or furnished by any person without this commonwealth, the 100 transaction shall be deemed a loan made within this commonwealth, and such a loan and the 101 parties making it shall be subject to sections ninety-six to one hundred and thirteen, inclusive.
102 The buying or endorsing of notes or the furnishing of guarantee or security for compensation 103 shall be considered to be engaging in the business of making small loans within said sections, but 104 the foregoing provisions of this sentence shall not apply in the case of any transaction which 105 involves any note or other instrument evidencing the indebtedness of a buyer to the seller of 106 goods, services or insurance for a part or all of the purchase price; provided, however, that any 107 advance of money by such seller or, by a person acting on his behalf for the purpose of paying an 108 existing indebtedness of such buyer or for any other purpose shall constitute a loan of money
109 subject to the provisions of this section. For the purposes of said sections, the amount to be paid 110 upon any such loan for interest or expenses shall include all sums paid or to be paid by or on 111 behalf of the borrower for interest, brokerage, recording fees, commissions, services, extension 112 of loan, forbearance to enforce payment, and all other sums charged against or paid or to be paid 113 by the borrower for making or securing directly or indirectly the loan, and shall include all such 114 sums when paid by or on behalf of or charged against the borrower for or on account of making 115 or securing the loan, directly or indirectly, to or by any person, other than the lender, if such 116 payment or charge was known to the lender at the time of making the loan, or might have been 117 ascertained by reasonable inquiry. Any person directly or indirectly engaging, for a fee,

118 commission, bonus or other consideration, in the business of negotiating, arranging, aiding or 119 assisting the borrower or lender in procuring or making such loans, for which the amount paid or 120 to be paid for interest and expenses, including all amounts paid or to be paid to any other party 121 therefor, exceeds in the aggregate an amount equivalent to twelve per cent per annum, whether 122 such loans are actually made by such person or by another party, shall be deemed to be engaged 123 in the business of making small loans, and shall be subject to sections ninety-six to one hundred 124 and twelve, inclusive. If, after all deductions or payments, whether on account of interest, 125 expenses or principal made substantially contemporaneously with the making of the loan, the 126 amount retained by the borrower be nine thousand dollars or less, as so adjusted, as provided 127 herein, the transaction shall be deemed to be a loan in the amount of the sum so retained by the 128 borrower after such deductions or payments, notwithstanding that the loan be nominally for a 129 greater sum.

130 This section shall not apply to loans that are subject to section 90A or section 28B of 131 chapter 183.

132 The provisions of this section and sections ninety-six A to one hundred and fourteen A, 133 inclusive, shall apply only to loans made primarily for personal, family or household purpose;
134 provided, however, that the provisions of this section and said sections ninety-six A to one 135 hundred and fourteen, inclusive, shall not apply to loans to any student, or to any parent, legal 136 guardian or sponsor of a student, made by any nonprofit, public or independent post-secondary 137 educational institution within the commonwealth authorized by law to grant degrees, by the 138 commonwealth or by any agency or instrumentality thereof; and provided, further, that such 139 institutions may not take, receive, reserve, or charge interest, expenses and other consideration 140 for making or securing such loan in excess of those permitted by section one hundred, except in

141 the event of prepayment or refinancing, in whole or in part, of any existing loans by such 142 institution to any such student, or to any such parent, legal guardian or sponsor of a student, 143 which refinancing or prepayment occurs within eighteen months of the date such loan was made.

144 SECTION 5. Section 98 of chapter 140 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 145 amended by striking out the words “the fifteenth day of April” in line 3 and inserting in place 146 thereof the words:— a date to be determined by the commissioner.

147 SECTION 6. Section 99 of chapter 140 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 148 amended by striking out section 99 and inserting in place thereof the following section:—

149 Section 99. The commissioner may summon said licensees, companies or associations, 150 or any of their agents or employees, and such other witnesses as he deems necessary, and 151 examine them relative to their transactions and to the condition of their business, and for that 152 purpose may administer oaths. Whoever without justifiable cause refuses to appear and testify 153 when so required, or obstructs the commissioner or his representatives in the performance of 154 their duties, shall be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars or by 155 imprisonment for not more than six months, or both. The penalty provision of this section shall 156 be in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other provision of law applicable to a licensee or other 157 person for violating section 96 or any rule or regulation made thereunder.

158

159 SECTION 7. Chapter 140, as so appearing, is hereby amended by striking out section 160 101 and inserting in place thereof the following section:—

161 Section 101. Each license shall state the address at which the business is to be conducted 162 and shall state the name of the licensee. If a licensee intends to carry on such business at any 163 place in addition to the address on the license, he shall so notify the commissioner, in writing, at 164 least 30 days prior thereto, and he shall pay a fee for such additional location at a reasonable cost 165 as determined by the commissioner. Such notice shall contain the address of any such additional 166 location and such other information as the commissioner may require; provided, however, that 167 any such business shall at all times be conducted in the name of the licensee as it appears on the 168 license. A copy of such license shall be posted as determined by the Commissioner. Such 169 copies for places of business at addresses other than that appearing on the license may be 170 obtained at a reasonable cost, as determined by the commissioner. Such license shall not be 171 transferable or assignable and shall expire annually on a date determined by the commissioner.

172 SECTION 8. Chapter 140 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 173 striking out section 103, and inserting in place thereof the following three sections:—

174 Section 103. Whoever, being duly licensed as provided in section ninety-six, violates 175 any provision of sections ninety-seven, ninety-eight, one hundred and one, one hundred and two, 176 one hundred and four or one hundred and nine, or any regulation, rule or order made by the 177 commissioner under sections ninety-seven or one hundred and six, shall be punished by a fine of 178 not more than one thousand dollars, and his license may be suspended or revoked by the 179 commissioner. Each day such violation occurs or continues shall be deemed a separate offense.

180 Whoever, being so licensed, violates the provisions of section one hundred shall be 181 punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars or by imprisonment for not more than 182 one year, or both. Each day such violation occurs or continues shall be deemed a separate

183 offense. Any loan made by any person so licensed in violation of said section one hundred may 184 be declared void by the supreme judicial or superior court in equity upon petition by the person 185 to whom the loan was made.

186 The commissioner may also suspend or revoke any license issued pursuant to section 187 ninety-six if said commissioner finds that:

188 (i) the licensee has violated any provision of sections ninety-six to one hundred and 189 fourteen, inclusive, or any rule or regulation made by the commissioner under any provision of 190 sections ninety-six to one hundred and fourteen, inclusive, or any other law applicable to the 191 conduct of the business; or

192 (ii) any fact or condition exists which, if it had existed at the time of the original 193 application for such license, would have warranted the commissioner in refusing to issue such 194 license.

195 Except as provided in section one hundred and three A, no license shall be revoked or 196 suspended except after notice and a hearing thereon pursuant to chapter thirty A.

197 A licensee may surrender a license by delivering to the commissioner written notice that
198 it thereby surrenders such license, but such surrender shall not affect the civil or criminal liability
199 of the licensee for acts committed before such surrender.

200 No revocation, suspension or surrender of any license shall impair or affect the obligation
201 of any pre-existing lawful contract between the licensee and any person.

202 The penalty provision of this section shall be in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other 203 provision of law applicable to a licensee or other person for violating section ninety-six, ninety-

204 seven, ninety-eight, one hundred, one hundred and one, one hundred and two, one hundred and 205 four, one hundred and six, and one hundred and nine or any rule or regulation made thereunder.

206 Section 103A. (a) If the commissioner determines, after giving notice of an opportunity 207 for a hearing, that a licensee has engaged or is about to engage in an act or practice constituting a 208 violation of a provision of sections ninety-seven, ninety-eight, one hundred, one hundred and 209 one, one hundred and two, one hundred and four or one hundred and nine, or any rule or 210 regulation made by the commissioner under section ninety-seven or one hundred and six, or any 211 other law applicable to the conduct of the business, he may order such licensee to cease and 212 desist from such unlawful act or practice and take such affirmative action as in his judgment will 213 effect the purpose of sections ninety-seven, ninety-eight, one hundred, one hundred and one, one 214 hundred and two, one hundred and four or one hundred and nine, or any rule or regulation made 215 by the commissioner under section ninety-seven or one hundred and six, or any other law 216 applicable to the conduct of the business.

217 (b) If the commissioner makes written findings of fact that the public interest will be 218 irreparably harmed by delay in issuing an order under section (a) he may issue a temporary cease 219 and desist order. Upon the entry of a temporary cease and desist order, the commissioner shall 220 promptly notify, in writing, the licensee affected thereby that such order has been so entered, the 221 reasons therefor, and that within twenty days after receipt of a written request from such 222 licensee, the matter will be scheduled for a hearing to determine whether or not such temporary 223 order shall become permanent and final. If no such hearing is requested and none is ordered by 224 the commissioner, the order shall remain in effect until it is modified or vacated by the 225 commissioner. If a hearing is requested or ordered, the commissioner, after giving notice of and 226 opportunity for a hearing to the licensee subject to said order, shall, by written finding of facts 227 and conclusions of law, vacate, modify or make permanent the order.

228 (c) No order under this section, except an order issued pursuant to subsection (b), may be 229 entered without prior notice of and opportunity for a hearing. The commissioner may vacate or 230 modify an order under this section upon finding that the conditions which required such an order 231 have changed and that it is in the public interest to so vacate or modify.

232 Any order issued pursuant to this section shall be subject to review as provided in chapter
233 thirty A.

234 Section 103B. The commissioner may enforce the provisions of section ninety-six 235 through one hundred and fourteen A, or restrain any violations thereof, by filing a civil action in 236 any court of competent jurisdiction.

237 SECTION 9. Section 110 of chapter 140, as so appearing, is hereby amended by striking 238 out, in line 14, the words “six thousand dollars or less”, and inserting in place thereof the 239 following words:— nine thousand dollars or less.

240 SECTION 10. Chapter 140 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 241 adding after section 113 the following two sections:—

242 Section 113A. (a) Whenever the commissioner finds that any licensee or exempt 243 person under section ninety-six of this chapter has violated any provision of this chapter or any 244 rule or regulation adopted thereunder, or any other law of the Commonwealth applicable to the 245 conduct of the business of making small loans, the commissioner may, by order, in addition to 246 any other action authorized under this chapter or any rule or regulation made thereunder, impose

247 a penalty upon such person which shall not exceed five thousand dollars for each violation, up to 248 a maximum of one hundred thousand dollars for such violation plus the costs of investigation.
249 The commissioner may impose a penalty which shall not exceed five thousand dollars for each 250 violation of this chapter, or any rule or regulation adopted thereunder, by a person other than a 251 licensee or exempt person under section ninety-six of this chapter, plus the costs of investigation.

252 (b) Nothing in this section shall limit the right of any individual or entity who has 253 been injured as a result of any violation of this chapter by a licensee, or any person other than a 254 licensee or exempt person under section ninety-six of this chapter, to bring an action to recover 255 damages or restitution in a court of competent jurisdiction.

256 (c) Any findings or order issued by the commissioner pursuant to this section shall be 257 subject to review as provided in chapter thirty A.

258 Section 113B. (a) Whenever the commissioner determines that any person has, directly or 259 indirectly, violated any section of this chapter or any rule or regulation adopted thereunder, 260 applicable to the conduct of the business of making small loans; or any order issued by the 261 commissioner under this chapter or any written agreement entered between such licensee and the 262 commissioner; the commissioner may serve upon such person a written notice of intention:

263 (1) to prohibit such person from performing in the capacity of a principal employee on 264 behalf of any licensee for such period of time that the commissioner deems necessary;

265 (2) to prohibit the person from applying for or obtaining a license from the commissioner 266 for a period up to thirty-six months following the effective date of an order issued under 267 subsection (b) or (c); or

268

269 (3) to prohibit such person from any further participation, in any manner, in the conduct 270 of the affairs of a business making small loans in Massachusetts or to prohibit such person from 271 being employed by, an agent of, or operating on behalf of a licensee under this chapter or any 272 other business which requires a license from the commissioner.

273 (b) A written notice issued under subsection (a) shall contain a written statement of the 274 facts that support the prohibition and shall give notice of an opportunity for a hearing to be held
275 thereon. Such hearing shall be fixed for a date not more than thirty days after the date of service 276 upon the commissioner of such request for a hearing. If such person fails to submit a request for 277 a hearing within twenty days of service of notice under subsection (a), or otherwise fails to 278 appear in person or by a duly authorized representative, such party shall be deemed to have 279 consented to the issuance of an order of such prohibition in accordance with the notice.

280 (c) In the event of such consent under subsection (b), or if after a hearing the 281 commissioner finds that any of the grounds specified in such notice have been established, the 282 commissioner may issue an order of prohibition in accordance with subsection (a) as the 283 commissioner finds appropriate.

284 (d) An order issued under subsection (b) or (c) shall be effective upon service upon the 285 person. The commissioner shall also serve a copy of the order upon the licensee of which the 286 person is an employee or on whose behalf the person is performing. The order shall remain in 287 effect and enforceable until it is modified, terminated, suspended, or set aside by the 288 commissioner or a court of competent jurisdiction.

289 (e) Except as consented to in writing by the commissioner, any person who, pursuant to 290 an order issued under subsection (b) or (c), has been prohibited from participating in whole or in 291 part in the conduct of the affairs of a business making small loans in Massachusetts may not, 292 while such order is in effect, continue or commence to perform in the capacity of a principal 293 employee, or otherwise participate in any manner, if so prohibited by order of the commissioner, 294 in the conduct of the affairs of:

295 (1) any licensee under this chapter;

296 (2) any other business which requires a license from the commissioner; and

297 (3) any bank, as defined under section one of chapter one hundred sixty-seven, or any 298 subsidiary thereof.

299 SECTION 11. Chapter 140 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 300 striking section 114A and inserting in place thereof the following section:—

301 Section 114A. A bank as defined in section one of chapter one hundred sixty-seven, a 302 national banking association, a federally chartered credit union, a federal savings and loan
303 association, a federal savings bank, or any subsidiary of the above, or any bank, trust company, 304 savings bank, savings and loan association, or credit union organized under the laws of any other 305 state, or any subsidiary of the above, shall not be subject to the provisions of sections ninety-six 306 to one hundred fourteen, inclusive; provided, that such institutions may not take, receive, reserve 307 or charge interest, expenses and other considerations for making or securing any loan subject to 308 the provisions of section ninety-six in excess of those permitted by section one hundred. Any 309 loan subject to the provisions of section ninety-six made by any bank as defined in section one of 310 chapter one hundred sixty-seven, a national banking association, a federally-chartered credit

311 union, a federal savings and loan association, a federal savings bank, or any subsidiary of the 312 above, or any bank, trust company, savings bank, savings and loan association, or credit union 313 organized under the laws of any other state on which charges for interest, expenses and other 314 considerations exceed those permitted by section one hundred may be declared void by the 315 supreme judicial court or superior court in equity upon petition by the person to whom the loans 316 were made, and any such bank as defined section one of chapter one hundred sixty-seven, a 317 national banking association, a federally chartered credit union, a federal savings and loan
318 association, a federal savings bank, or any subsidiary of the above, or any bank, trust company,
319 savings bank, savings and loan association, or credit union organized under the laws of any other 320 state making such a loan shall be subject to a fine of not more than one thousand dollars.

321 This section shall not be construed as preventing a rate of charge for interest, expenses 322 and other consideration on one or more portions of a loan in excess of the permitted maximum 323 rate of charge applicable to said portion or portions, provided, that the composite rate of charge 324 on the whole loan produces an amount equal to or less than that which would be produced were 325 said maximum rate of charge applied to said loan. Extension, default or deferment charges shall 326 not be deemed to be interest, expenses and other considerations in determining the maximum 327 rate of charge that may be taken, received, reserved or charged for said loan.

328 SECTION 12. Section 4 of chapter 167F of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 329 amended by striking out the first paragraph and inserting in place thereof the following 330 paragraph:—

331 Any bank as defined in section one of chapter one hundred sixty-seven, a national 332 banking association, a federally-chartered credit union, a federal savings and loan association, a

333 federal savings bank, or any subsidiary of the above, any bank, trust company, savings bank, 334 savings and loan association, or credit union organized under the laws of any other state or any 335 subsidiary of the above, may engage directly in the business of selling, issuing or registering 336 checks or money orders for use primarily for personal, family, or household purposes, except all 337 of the institutions described above may engage in such business through agents who shall not be 338 deemed to be branches of such institutions. No person, other than the foregoing, shall engage in 339 such business directly or indirectly unless he files annually, as of a date determined by the 340 commissioner, a sworn statement setting forth his name and address, the names and business 341 addresses of his agents, other than the financial institutions described above, authorized to 342 receive money and transact such business on his behalf.

343 SECTION 13. Said section 4 of chapter 167F of the General Laws, as so appearing, is 344 hereby further amended by striking out the fifth paragraph and inserting in place thereof the 345 following paragraph:—

346 Whoever violates any provision of this section or any rule or regulation established 347 hereunder shall be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars for each day during 348 which such violation continues. The penalty provision of this section shall be in addition to, and 349 not in lieu of, any other provision of law applicable to a licensee or other person for violating

391 appear in person or by a duly authorized representative, such party shall be deemed to have 392 consented to the issuance of an order of such prohibition in accordance with the notice.

714 (3) to prohibit such person from any further participation, in any manner, in the conduct
715 of the affairs of a sales finance company in Massachusetts or to prohibit such person from being 716 employed by, an agent of, or operating on behalf of a licensee under this chapter or any other 717 business which requires a license from the commissioner.

718 (b) A written notice issued under subsection (a) shall contain a written statement of the 719 facts that support the prohibition and shall give notice of an opportunity for a hearing to be held 720 thereon. Such hearing shall be fixed for a date not more than thirty days after the date of service 721 upon the commissioner of such request for a hearing. If such person fails to submit a request for 722 a hearing within twenty days of service of notice under subsection (a), or otherwise fails to 723 appear in person or by a duly authorized representative, such party shall be deemed to have 724 consented to the issuance of an order of such prohibition in accordance with the notice.

725 (c) In the event of such consent under subsection (b), or if after a hearing the 726 commissioner finds that any of the grounds specified in such notice have been established, the 727 commissioner may issue an order of prohibition in accordance with subsection (a) as the 728 commissioner finds appropriate.

729 (d) An order issued under subsection (b) or (c) shall be effective upon service upon the 730 person. The commissioner shall also serve a copy of the order upon the licensee of which the 731 person is an employee or on whose behalf the person is performing. The order shall remain in 732 effect and enforceable until it is modified, terminated, suspended, or set aside by the 733 commissioner or a court of competent jurisdiction.

734 (e) Except as consented to in writing by the commissioner, any person who, pursuant to 735 an order issued under subsection (b) or (c), has been prohibited from participating in whole or in 736 part in the conduct of the affairs of a sales finance company in Massachusetts may not, while 737 such order is in effect, continue or commence to perform in the capacity of a principal employee, 738 or otherwise participate in any manner, if so prohibited by order of the commissioner, in the 739 conduct of the affairs of:

- 740 (1) any licensee under this chapter;
- 741 (2) any other business which requires a license from the commissioner; and
- 742 (3) any bank, as defined under section one of chapter one hundred sixty-seven, or any 743 subsidiary thereof.

744 SECTION 33. Chapter 255C of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby amended
745 by striking out section 2 and inserting in place thereof the following section:—

746 Section 2. No person, other than a bank as defined in section one of chapter one hundred 747 sixty-seven, a national banking association, a federally-chartered credit union, a federal savings 748 and loan association, a federal savings bank, or any subsidiary of the above, or a bank, a trust 749 company, savings bank, savings and loan association or credit union organized under the laws of 750 any other state, or any subsidiary of the above, a sales finance company, as defined in section 751 one of chapter two hundred fifty-five B, and a company licensed to carry on the business of 752 making small loans, shall engage in the business of premium finance agency unless licensed by 753 the commissioner, as provided in section three; provided, however, that no property and casualty 754 insurance agent or broker, including an insurance agent or insurance broker conducting an 755 insurance premium financing agency business under a subsidiary or different company name, 756 who provides premium financing only to his own customers for purposes of financing payment 757 of premiums on contracts of insurance, which contracts of insurance are exclusively limited to 758 commercial insurance policies, shall be required to be licensed pursuant to this section or any 759 other section of this chapter. The commissioner may adopt, amend or repeal rules and 760 regulations, which may include an adequate capitalization requirement for sales finance 761 companies, to aid in the administration and enforcement of this chapter.

762 Such license shall allow the holder to maintain only one office from which said business 763 may be conducted, but more than one license may be issued to any person. Any change of 764 location of an office of a licensee shall require the prior approval of the commissioner. Such 765 request for relocation shall be in writing setting forth the reason or reasons for the request, and 766 shall be accompanied by a relocation investigation fee of $50. If an applicant has more than one 767 office, he may obtain a license for each office from which he intends to conduct said business.

768 SECTION 34. Section 3 of said chapter 255C of the General Laws, as so appearing, is 769 hereby amended by striking out the last sentence and inserting in place thereof the following 770 sentence:— Each license shall be issued annually as of a date determined by the commissioner 771 and shall remain in full force and effect unless suspended, revoked or surrendered as provided in 772 section five.

773 SECTION 35. Section 4 of chapter 255C, as so appearing, is hereby amended by striking 774 out the first two sentences and inserting in place thereof the following six sentences:—

775 Each license shall state the address at which the business is to be conducted and shall 776 state the name of the licensee. If a licensee intends to carry on such business at any place in 777 addition to the address on the license, he shall so notify the commissioner, in writing, at least 30 778 days prior thereto, and he shall pay a fee for such additional location at a reasonable cost as 779 determined by the commissioner. Such notice shall contain the address of any such additional 780 location and such other information as the commissioner may require; provided, however, that 781 any such business shall at all times be conducted in the name of the licensee as it appears on the 782 license. A copy of such license shall be posted as determined by the commissioner. Such copies
783 for places of business at addresses other than that appearing on the license may be obtained at a

784 reasonable cost, as determined by the commissioner. Such license shall not be transferable or 785 assignable and shall expire annually on a date determined by the commissioner.

786 SECTION 36. Chapter 255C of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby amended 787 by striking out section 5, and inserting in place thereof the following three sections:—

788 Section 5. The commissioner may suspend or revoke any license issued pursuant to this 789 chapter if said commissioner finds that:

790 (i) the licensee has violated any provision of this chapter or any rule or regulation 791 adopted hereunder, or any other law applicable to the conduct of its business; or

792 (ii) any fact or condition exists which, if it had existed at the time of the original 793 application for such license, would have warranted the commissioner in refusing to issue such 794 license.

795 The commissioner shall have sufficient cause to suspend or revoke a license whenever he 796 learns from the commissioner of insurance or from any other source that the licensee has failed 797 to return the full amount of a return premium to the person whose insurance policy has been 798 cancelled or to his assignee, as required by section one hundred and seventy-six A of chapter one 799 hundred and seventy-five.

800 A licensee may surrender a license by delivering to the commissioner written notice that 801 it thereby surrenders such license, but such surrender shall not affect the civil or criminal liability
802 of the licensee for acts committed before such surrender. A revocation or suspension or surrender 803 of any license shall not impair or affect the obligation of an insured under any lawful premium 804 finance agreement previously acquired or held by the licensee.

805 No revocation, suspension or surrender of any license shall impair or affect the obligation
806 of any pre-existing lawful contract between the licensee and any person.

807 Whenever the commissioner revokes or suspends a license, he shall forthwith execute in 808 duplicate a written order to that effect, and shall file one copy of such order in the office of the 809 secretary of state and mail one copy to the licensee. A suspension or revocation of a license shall 810 not be subject to the provisions of chapter thirty A.

811 Section 5A. (a) If the commissioner determines, after giving notice of and opportunity for 812 a hearing, that a licensee has engaged in or is about to engage in an act or practice constituting a
813 violation of a provision of this chapter or a rule, regulation or order hereunder, he may order
814 such licensee to cease and desist from such unlawful act or practice and take such affirmative
815 action as in his judgment will effect the purposes of this chapter.

816 (b) If the commissioner makes written findings of fact that the public interest will be 817 irreparably harmed by delay in issuing an order under subsection (a) he may issue a temporary
818 cease and desist order. Upon the entry of a temporary cease and desist order, the commissioner 819 shall promptly notify, in writing, the licensee affected thereby that such order has been so 820 entered, the reasons therefor, and that within twenty days after the receipt of a written request 821 from such licensee, the matter will be scheduled for hearing to determine whether or not such 822 temporary order shall become permanent and final. If no such hearing is requested and none is 823 ordered by the commissioner, the order shall remain in effect until it is modified or vacated by 824 the commissioner. If a hearing is requested or ordered, the commissioner, after giving notice of 825 and opportunity for a hearing to the licensee subject to said order, shall, by written finding of 826 facts and conclusions of law, vacate, modify or make permanent the order.

827 (c) No order under this section, except an order issued pursuant to subsection (b), may be 828 entered without prior notice of and opportunity for a hearing. The commissioner may vacate or 829 modify an order under this section upon finding that the conditions which required such an order 830 have changed and that it is in the public interest to so vacate or modify.

831 Any order issued pursuant to this section shall be subject to review as provided in chapter
832 thirty A.

833 Section 5B. The commissioner may enforce the provisions of this chapter, or restrain any 834 violations thereof, by filing a civil action in any court of competent jurisdiction.

835 SECTION 37. Section 6 of chapter 255C of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 836 further amended by striking out the words “April fifteenth” in line 57 and inserting in place
837 thereof the words:— a date to be determined by the commissioner.

838 SECTION 38. Section 9 of chapter 255C of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 839 amended by striking out the first paragraph and inserting in place thereof the following 840 paragraph:—

841 Whoever violates any provision of this chapter, or knowingly makes any incorrect 842 statement of a material fact in any application, report or statement filed pursuant to this chapter, 843 or knowingly omits to state any material fact necessary to give the commissioner any 844 information lawfully required by him or refuses to permit any lawful investigation or 845 examination, shall be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars or by 846 imprisonment for not more than six months, or both. The penalty provision of this section shall 847 be in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other provision of law applicable to a licensee or other 848 person for violating any provision of this chapter or any rule or regulation made thereunder.

849 SECTION 39. Chapter 255C of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby amended
850 by adding after section 23 the following two sections:—

851 Section 24. (a) Whenever the commissioner finds that any licensee or exempt 852 person under section two of this chapter has violated any provision of this chapter or any rule or 853 regulation adopted thereunder, or any other law of the Commonwealth applicable to the conduct 854 of the business of a premium finance agency, the commissioner may, by order, in addition to any 855 other action authorized under this chapter or any rule or regulation made thereunder, impose a
856 penalty upon such person which shall not exceed five thousand dollars for each violation, up to a 857 maximum of one hundred thousand dollars for such violation plus the costs of investigation. The 858 commissioner may impose a penalty which shall not exceed five thousand dollars for each
859 violation of this chapter, or any rule or regulation adopted thereunder, by a person other than a 860 licensee or exempt person under section two of this chapter, plus the costs of investigation.

861 (b) Nothing in this section shall limit the right of any individual or entity who has 862 been injured as a result of any violation of this chapter by a licensee, or any person other than a 863 licensee or exempt person under section two of this chapter, to bring an action to recover
864 damages or restitution in a court of competent jurisdiction.

865 (c) Any findings or order issued by the commissioner pursuant to this section shall 866 be subject to review as provided in chapter thirty A.

867 Section 25. (a) Whenever the commissioner determines that any person has, directly or 868 indirectly, violated any section of this chapter or any rule or regulation adopted thereunder, 869 applicable to the conduct of the business of a premium finance agency; or any order issued by

870 the commissioner under this chapter or any written agreement entered between such licensee and 871 the commissioner; the commissioner may serve upon such person a written notice of intention:

872 (1) to prohibit such person from performing in the capacity of a principal employee on 873 behalf of any licensee for such period of time that the commissioner deems necessary;

874 (2) to prohibit the person from applying for or obtaining a license from the commissioner 875 for a period up to thirty-six months following the effective date of an order issued under 876 subsection (b) or (c); or

877

878 (3) to prohibit such person from any further participation, in any manner, in the conduct 879 of the affairs of a premium finance agency in Massachusetts or to prohibit such person from 880 being employed by, an agent of, or operating on behalf of a licensee under this chapter or any 881 other business which requires a license from the commissioner.

882 (b) A written notice issued under subsection (a) shall contain a written statement of the 883 facts that support the prohibition and shall give notice of an opportunity for a hearing to be held
884 thereon. Such hearing shall be fixed for a date not more than thirty days after the date of service 885 upon the commissioner of such request for a hearing. If such person fails to submit a request for 886 a hearing within twenty days of service of notice under subsection (a), or otherwise fails to 887 appear in person or by a duly authorized representative, such party shall be deemed to have 888 consented to the issuance of an order of such prohibition in accordance with the notice.

889 (c) In the event of such consent under subsection (b), or if after a hearing the 890 commissioner finds that any of the grounds specified in such notice have been established, the

891 commissioner may issue an order of prohibition in accordance with subsection (a) as the 892 commissioner finds appropriate.

893 (d) An order issued under subsection (b) or (c) shall be effective upon service upon the 894 person. The commissioner shall also serve a copy of the order upon the licensee of which the 895 person is an employee or on whose behalf the person is performing. The order shall remain in 896 effect and enforceable until it is modified, terminated, suspended, or set aside by the 897 commissioner or a court of competent jurisdiction.

898 (e) Except as consented to in writing by the commissioner, any person who, pursuant to 899 an order issued under subsection (b) or (c), has been prohibited from participating in whole or in 900 part in the conduct of the affairs of a premium finance agency in Massachusetts may not, while 901 such order is in effect, continue or commence to perform in the capacity of a principal employee,
902 or otherwise participate in any manner, if so prohibited by order of the commissioner, in the 903 conduct of the affairs of:

904 (1) any licensee under this chapter;

905 (2) any other business which requires a license from the commissioner; and

906 (3) any bank, as defined under section one of chapter one hundred sixty-seven, or any 907 subsidiary thereof.

908 SECTION 40. Section 1 of chapter 255D of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 909 amended by striking out the definition of "Sales finance company" in lines 91 through 98, 910 inclusive, and inserting in place thereof the following definition:—

911 "Sales finance company",

912 (1) a bank as defined in section one of chapter one hundred and sixty-seven, or a national 913 banking association or a savings and loan association, federal savings bank, federal savings and 914 loan association, federal credit union, or any bank, trust company, savings bank, savings and 915 loan association or credit union organized under the laws of any other state of the United States, 916 or any subsidiary of the above,

917 (2) any person other than an installment seller engaged, in whole or in part, in the 918 business of purchasing retail installment sale agreements or revolving credit agreements of one 919 or more retail sellers. The term "sales finance company" shall not include the pledgee of an 920 aggregate number of such agreements to secure a bona fide loan thereon.

921 SECTION 41. The first paragraph of section 2 of chapter 255D, as so appearing, is 922 hereby amended by striking out the fourth and fifth sentences and inserting in place thereof the 923 following six sentences:—

924 Each license shall state the address at which the business is to be conducted and shall 925 state the name of the licensee. If a licensee intends to carry on such business at any place in 926 addition to the address on the license, he shall so notify the commissioner, in writing, at least 30
927 days prior thereto, and he shall pay a fee for such additional location at a reasonable cost as 928 determined by the commissioner. Such notice shall contain the address of any such additional 929 location and such other information as the commissioner may require; provided, however, that 930 any such business shall at all times be conducted in the name of the licensee as it appears on the 931 license. A copy of such license shall be posted as determined by the commissioner. Such copies
932 for places of business at addresses other than that appearing on the license may be obtained at a

933 reasonable cost, as determined by the commissioner. Such license shall not be transferable or 934 assignable and shall expire annually on a date determined by the commissioner.

935 SECTION 42. Section 2 of chapter 255D, as so appearing, is hereby further amended by 936 striking out the ninth sentence.

937 SECTION 43. Section 3 of chapter 255D of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 938 further amended by striking out the words “April fifteenth” in line 48 and inserting in place
939 thereof the words:— a date to be determined by the commissioner.

940 SECTION 44. Chapter 255D of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 941 striking out section 7 as so appearing, and inserting in place thereof the following section:—

942 Section 7. The commissioner may suspend or revoke any license issued pursuant to this 943 chapter if said commissioner finds that:

944 (i) the licensee has violated any provision of this chapter or any rule or regulation 945 adopted hereunder, or any other law applicable to the conduct of its business; or

946 (ii) any fact or condition exists which, if it had existed at the time of the original 947 application for such license, would have warranted the commissioner in refusing to issue such 948 license.

949 Except as provided in section eight, no license shall be revoked or suspended except after 950 notice and a hearing thereon pursuant to chapter thirty A.

951 A licensee may surrender a license by delivering to the commissioner written notice that 952 it thereby surrenders such license, but such surrender shall not affect the civil or criminal liability
953 of the licensee for acts committed before such surrender.

954 No revocation, suspension or surrender of any license shall impair or affect the obligation
955 of any pre-existing lawful contract between the licensee and any person.

956 SECTION 45. Said chapter 255D of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby further 957 amended by striking out section 8, as so appearing, and inserting in place thereof the following 958 two sections:—

959 Section 8. (a) If the commissioner determines, after giving notice of and opportunity for 960 a hearing, that a licensee has engaged in or is about to engage in an act or practice constituting a
961 violation of a provision of this chapter or a rule, regulation or order hereunder, he may order
962 such licensee to cease and desist from such unlawful act or practice and take such affirmative
963 action as in his judgment will effect the purposes of this chapter.

964 (b) If the commissioner makes written findings of fact that the public interest will be 965 irreparably harmed by delay in issuing an order under subsection (a) he may issue a temporary
966 cease and desist order. Upon the entry of a temporary cease and desist order, the commissioner
967 shall promptly notify, in writing, the licensee affected thereby that such order has been so
968 entered, the reasons therefor, and that within twenty days after the receipt of a written request 969 from such licensee, the matter will be scheduled for hearing to determine whether or not such 970 temporary order shall become permanent and final. If no such hearing is requested and none is 971 ordered by the commissioner, the order shall remain in effect until it is modified or vacated by 972 the commissioner. If a hearing is requested or ordered, the commissioner, after giving notice of 973 and opportunity for a hearing to the licensee subject to said order, shall, by written finding of 974 facts and conclusions of law, vacate, modify or make permanent the order.

975 (c) No order under this section, except an order issued pursuant to subsection (b), may be 976 entered without prior notice of and opportunity for a hearing. The commissioner may vacate or 977 modify an order under this section upon finding that the conditions which required such an order 978 have changed and that it is in the public interest to so vacate or modify.

979 Any order issued pursuant to this section shall be subject to review as provided in chapter
980 thirty A.

981 Section 8A. The commissioner may enforce the provisions of this chapter, or restrain any 982 violations thereof, by filing a civil action in any court of competent jurisdiction.

983 SECTION 46. Chapter 255D of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby amended
984 by striking out section 30 and inserting in place thereof the following section:—

985 Section 30. Whoever violates any provision of this chapter shall be punished by a fine of 986 not more than one thousand dollars or by imprisonment for not more than six months, or both.
987 The penalty provision of this section shall be in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other 988 provision of law applicable to a licensee or other person for violating section two or any rule or 989 regulation made thereunder.

990 SECTION 47. Chapter 255D of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby amended
991 by adding after section 31 the following two sections:—

992 Section 32. (a) Whenever the commissioner finds that any licensee or exempt
993 person under section two of this chapter has violated any provision of this chapter or any rule or 994 regulation adopted thereunder, or any other law of the Commonwealth applicable to the conduct 995 of the business of a sales finance company, the commissioner may, by order, in addition to any

996 other action authorized under this chapter or any rule or regulation made thereunder, impose a 997 penalty upon such person which shall not exceed five thousand dollars for each violation, up to a 998 maximum of one hundred thousand dollars for such violation plus the costs of investigation. The 999 commissioner may impose a penalty which shall not exceed five thousand dollars for each 1000 violation of this chapter, or any rule or regulation adopted thereunder, by a person other than a 1001 licensee or exempt person under section two of this chapter, plus the costs of investigation.

1002 (b) Nothing in this section shall limit the right of any individual or entity who has 1003 been injured as a result of any violation of this chapter by a licensee, or any person other than a 1004 licensee or exempt person under section two of this chapter, to bring an action to recover
1005 damages or restitution in a court of competent jurisdiction.

1006 (c) Any findings or order issued by the commissioner pursuant to this section shall be 1007 subject to review as provided in chapter thirty A.

1008 Section 33. (a) Whenever the commissioner determines that any person has, directly or 1009 indirectly, violated any section of this chapter or any rule or regulation adopted thereunder, 1010 applicable to the conduct of the business of a sales finance company; or any order issued by the 1011 commissioner under this chapter or any written agreement entered between such licensee and the 1012 commissioner; the commissioner may serve upon such person a written notice of intention:

1013 (1) to prohibit such person from performing in the capacity of a principal employee on 1014 behalf of any licensee for such period of time that the commissioner deems necessary;

1015 (2) to prohibit the person from applying for or obtaining a license from the commissioner
1016 for a period up to thirty-six months following the effective date of an order issued under 1017 subsection (b) or (c); or

1018

1019 (3) to prohibit such person from any further participation, in any manner, in the conduct
1020 of the affairs of a sales finance company in Massachusetts or to prohibit such person from being 1021 employed by, an agent of, or operating on behalf of a licensee under this chapter or any other 1022 business which requires a license from the commissioner.

1023 (b) A written notice issued under subsection (a) shall contain a written statement of the 1024 facts that support the prohibition and shall give notice of an opportunity for a hearing to be held
1025 thereon. Such hearing shall be fixed for a date not more than thirty days after the date of service 1026 upon the commissioner of such request for a hearing. If such person fails to submit a request for 1027 a hearing within twenty days of service of notice under subsection (a), or otherwise fails to 1028 appear in person or by a duly authorized representative, such party shall be deemed to have 1029 consented to the issuance of an order of such prohibition in accordance with the notice.

1030 (c) In the event of such consent under subsection (b), or if after a hearing the 1031 commissioner finds that any of the grounds specified in such notice have been established, the 1032 commissioner may issue an order of prohibition in accordance with subsection (a) as the 1033 commissioner finds appropriate.

1034 (d) An order issued under subsection (b) or (c) shall be effective upon service upon the 1035 person. The commissioner shall also serve a copy of the order upon the licensee of which the 1036 person is an employee or on whose behalf the person is performing. The order shall remain in 1037 effect and enforceable until it is modified, terminated, suspended, or set aside by the 1038 commissioner or a court of competent jurisdiction.

1039 (e) Except as consented to in writing by the commissioner, any person who, pursuant to 1040 an order issued under subsection (b) or (c), has been prohibited from participating in whole or in 1041 part in the conduct of the affairs of a sales finance company in Massachusetts may not, while 1042 such order is in effect, continue or commence to perform in the capacity of a principal employee, 1043 or otherwise participate in any manner, if so prohibited by order of the commissioner, in the 1044 conduct of the affairs of:

1045 (1) any licensee under this chapter;

1046 (2) any other business which requires a license from the commissioner; and

1047 (3) any bank, as defined under section one of chapter one hundred sixty-seven, or any 1048 subsidiary thereof.
