Peter J. Koutoujian	10th Middlesex	1/20/2011

HOUSE No. 1198

By Mr. Koutoujian of Waltham, a petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 1198) of Peter J. Koutoujian relative to confidentiality of examination reports of the Division of Banks. Financial Services.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Eleven

An Act relative to confidentiality of examination reports of the Division of Banks.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 99 of chapter 140 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2008
2 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking out section 99 and inserting in place thereof the 3 following new section:—

4 A licensee shall, when directed by the commissioner, permit the commissioner or his 5 duly authorized representative to inspect its records and evidence of compliance with this chapter 6 or any rule and regulation issued thereunder and with any other law, rule and regulation
7 applicable to the conduct of its business. The commissioner shall preserve a full record of each 8 such examination of a licensee including a statement of its condition. All records of 9 investigations and reports of examinations by the commissioner, including workpapers, 10 information derived from such reports or responses to such reports, and any copies thereof in the 11 possession of any licensee under the supervision of the commissioner, shall be confidential and 12 privileged communications, shall not be subject to subpoena and shall not be a public record 13 under clause twenty-sixth of section 7 of chapter 4. For the purpose of this paragraph, records of 14 investigation and reports of examinations shall include records of investigation and reports of 15 examinations conducted by a financial regulatory agency of the federal government and any 16 other state, and of any foreign government which are considered confidential by such agency or 17 foreign government and which are in possession of the commissioner. In any proceeding before a 18 court, the court may issue a protective order to seal the record protecting the confidentiality of 19 any such record, and other than any such record on file with the court or filed in connection with 20 the court proceeding, and the court may exclude the public from any portion of a proceeding at 21 which any such record may be disclosed. Copies of such reports of examination shall be 22 furnished to a licensee for its use only and shall not be exhibited to any other person, 23 organization or agency without prior written approval by the commissioner. The commissioner 24 may, in his discretion, furnish to regulatory agencies of the federal government, of other states, 25 or of foreign countries, and any law enforcement agency, such information, reports, inspections 26 and statements relating to the licensees under his supervision.

27 The commissioner, or his examiners or such others of his assistants as he may designate,
28 may summon the directors, officers or agents of a licensee, or any other witnesses, and examine
29 them relative to the affairs, transactions and condition of the licensee, and, for that purpose, may 30 administer oaths. Whoever, without justifiable cause, refuses to appear and testify when so 31 required or obstructs the person making such examination in the performance of his duty, shall 32 be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars or by imprisonment for not more
33 than one year.

34 SECTION 2. Section 4 of Chapter 167F, as so appearing, is hereby amended by inserting 35 after the fourth paragraph the following two paragraphs:—

36 The commissioner shall examine any such person, to whom any such certificate to 37 engage in the business of selling, issuing or registering checks or money orders has been issued, 38 as he deems necessary and in a manner he deems appropriate. The commissioner shall preserve a 39 full record of each such examination of a check seller including a statement of its condition. All 40 records of investigations and reports of examinations by the commissioner, including 41 workpapers, information derived from such reports or responses to such reports, and any copies 42 thereof in the possession of any licensee under the supervision of the commissioner, shall be 43 confidential and privileged communications, shall not be subject to subpoena and shall not be a 44 public record under clause twenty-sixth of section 7 of chapter 4. For the purpose of this 45 paragraph, records of investigation and reports of examinations shall include records of 46 investigation and reports of examinations conducted by a financial regulatory agency of the 47 federal government and any other state, and of any foreign government which are considered 48 confidential by such agency or foreign government and which are in possession of the 49 commissioner. In any proceeding before a court, the court may issue a protective order to seal
50 the record protecting the confidentiality of any such record, other than any such record on file
51 with the court or filed in connection with the court proceeding, and the court may exclude the 52 public from any portion of the proceeding at which any such record may be disclosed. Copies of 53 such reports of examination shall be furnished to a licensee for its use only and shall not be 54 exhibited to any other person, organization or agency without prior written approval by the 55 commissioner. The commissioner may, in his discretion, furnish to regulatory agencies of the 56 federal government, of other states, or of foreign countries, and any law enforcement agency, 57 such information, reports, inspections and statements relating to the licensees under his 58 supervision.

59 The commissioner, or his examiners or such others of his assistants as he may designate,
60 may summon the directors, officers or agents of a licensee, or any other witnesses, and examine
61 them relative to the affairs, transactions and condition of the licensee, and, for that purpose, may 62 administer oaths. Whoever, without justifiable cause, refuses to appear and testify when so 63 required or obstructs the person making such examination in the performance of his duty, shall 64 be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars or by imprisonment for not more
65 than one year.

66 SECTION 3. Section 10 of chapter 169, as so appearing, is hereby amended by inserting 67 after the second paragraph the following two paragraphs:—

68 The commissioner shall preserve a full record of each such examination of a licensee
69 including a statement of its condition. All records of investigations and reports of examinations
70 by the commissioner, including workpapers, information derived from such reports or responses
71 to such reports, and any copies thereof in the possession of any licensee under the supervision of 72 the commissioner, shall be confidential and privileged communications, shall not be subject to 73 subpoena and shall not be a public record under clause twenty-sixth of section 7 of chapter 4.
74 For the purpose of this paragraph, records of investigation and reports of examinations shall 75 include records of investigation and reports of examinations conducted by a financial regulatory 76 agency of the federal government and any other state, and of any foreign government which are 77 considered confidential by such agency or foreign government and which are in possession of the 78 commissioner. In any proceeding before a court, the court may issue a protective order to seal 79 the record protecting the confidentiality in appropriate circumstances to protect the 80 confidentiality of any such record, other than any such record on file with the court or filed in 81 connection with the court proceeding, and the court may exclude the public from any portion of the proceeding at which any such record may be disclosed. Copies of such reports of examination shall be furnished to a licensee for its use only and shall not be exhibited to any other person, organization or agency without prior written approval by the commissioner. The commissioner may, in his discretion, furnish to regulatory agencies of the federal government, of other states, or of foreign countries, and any law enforcement agency, such information, reports, inspections and statements relating to the licensees under his supervision.

The commissioner, or his examiners or such others of his assistants as he may designate, may summon the directors, officers or agents of a licensee, or any other witnesses, and examine them relative to the affairs, transactions and condition of the licensee, and, for that purpose, may administer oaths. Whoever, without justifiable cause, refuses to appear and testify when so required or obstructs the person making such examination in the performance of his duty, shall be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars or by imprisonment for not more than one year.

SECTION 4. Section 10 of chapter 169A, as so appearing, is hereby amended by adding the following two paragraphs:—

The commissioner shall preserve a full record of each such examination of a licensee including a statement of its condition. All records of investigations and reports of examinations by the commissioner, including workpapers, information derived from such reports or responses to such reports, and any copies thereof in the possession of any licensee under the supervision of the commissioner, shall be confidential and privileged communications, shall not be subject to subpoena and shall not be a public record under clause twenty-sixth of section 7 of chapter 4. For the purpose of this paragraph, records of investigation and reports of examinations shall include

104 records of investigation and reports of examinations conducted by a financial regulatory agency 105 of the federal government and any other state, and of any foreign government which are 106 considered confidential by such agency or foreign government and which are in possession of the 107 commissioner. In any proceeding before a court, the court may issue a protective order to seal
108 the record protecting the confidentiality of any such record, other than any such record on file
109 with the court or filed in connection with the court proceeding, and the court may exclude the 110 public from any portion of the proceeding at which any such record may be disclosed. Copies of 111 such reports of examination shall be furnished to a licensee for its use only and shall not be 112 exhibited to any other person, organization or agency without prior written approval by the 113 commissioner. The commissioner may, in his discretion, furnish to regulatory agencies of the 114 federal government, of other states, or of foreign countries, and any law enforcement agency, 115 such information, reports, inspections and statements relating to the licensees under his 116 supervision.

118 The commissioner, or his examiners or such others of his assistants as he may designate,
119 may summon the directors, officers or agents of a licensee, or any other witnesses, and examine
120 them relative to the affairs, transactions and condition of the licensee, and, for that purpose, may 121 administer oaths. Whoever, without justifiable cause, refuses to appear and testify when so 122 required or obstructs the person making such examination in the performance of his duty, shall 123 be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars or by imprisonment for not more
124 than one year.

SECTION 5. Section 3 of Chapter 255B, as so appearing, is hereby amended by inserting after the first paragraph the following two paragraphs:—

The commissioner shall preserve a full record of each such examination of a licensee including a statement of its condition. All records of investigations and reports of examinations by the commissioner, including workpapers, information derived from such reports or responses to such reports, and any copies thereof in the possession of any licensee under the supervision of the commissioner, shall be confidential and privileged communications, shall not be subject to subpoena and shall not be a public record under clause twenty-sixth of section 7 of chapter 4. For the purpose of this paragraph, records of investigation and reports of examinations shall include records of investigation and reports of examinations conducted by a financial regulatory agency of the federal government and any other state, and of any foreign government which are considered confidential by such agency or foreign government and which are in possession of the commissioner. In any proceeding before a court, the court may issue a protective order to seal the record protecting the confidentiality of any such record, other than any such record on file with the court or filed in connection with the court proceeding, and the court may exclude the public from any portion of the proceeding at which any such record may be disclosed. Copies of such reports of examination shall be furnished to a licensee for its use only and shall not be exhibited to any other person, organization or agency without prior written approval by the commissioner. The commissioner may, in his discretion, furnish to regulatory agencies of the federal government, of other states, or of foreign countries, and any law enforcement agency, such information, reports, inspections and statements relating to the licensees under his supervision.

The commissioner, or his examiners or such others of his assistants as he may designate, may summon the directors, officers or agents of a licensee, or any other witnesses, and examine

148 them relative to the affairs, transactions and condition of the licensee, and, for that purpose, may 149 administer oaths. Whoever, without justifiable cause, refuses to appear and testify when so 150 required or obstructs the person making such examination in the performance of his duty, shall 151 be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars or by imprisonment for not more 152 than one year.

153 SECTION 6. Section 6 of chapter 255C, as so appearing, is hereby amended by striking 154 out the second paragraph and inserting in place thereof the following two paragraphs:—

155 The commissioner shall preserve a full record of each such examination of a licensee
156 including a statement of its condition. All records of investigations and reports of examinations
157 by the commissioner, including workpapers, information derived from such reports or responses
158 to such reports, and any copies thereof in the possession of any licensee under the supervision of 159 the commissioner, shall be confidential and privileged communications, shall not be subject to 160 subpoena and shall not be a public record under clause twenty-sixth of section 7 of chapter 4.
161 For the purpose of this paragraph, records of investigation and reports of examinations shall 162 include records of investigation and reports of examinations conducted by a financial regulatory 163 agency of the federal government and any other state, and of any foreign government which are 164 considered confidential by such agency or foreign government and which are in possession of the 165 commissioner. In any proceeding before a court, the court may issue a protective order to seal the 166 record protecting the confidentiality of any such record, other than any such record on file with 167 the court or filed in connection with the court proceeding, and the court may exclude the public 168 from any portion of the proceeding at which any such record may be disclosed. Copies of such 169 reports of examination shall be furnished to a licensee for its use only and shall not be exhibited 170 to any other person, organization or agency without prior written approval by the commissioner.

The commissioner may, in his discretion, furnish to regulatory agencies of the federal government, of other states, or of foreign countries, and any law enforcement agency, such information, reports, inspections and statements relating to the licensees under his supervision.

The commissioner, or his examiners or such others of his assistants as he may designate, may summon the directors, officers or agents of a licensee, or any other witnesses, and examine them relative to the affairs, transactions and condition of the licensee, and, for that purpose, may administer oaths. Whoever, without justifiable cause, refuses to appear and testify when so required or obstructs the person making such examination in the performance of his duty, shall be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars or by imprisonment for not more than one year.

SECTION 7. Section 3 of chapter 255D of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby amended by inserting after the first paragraph the following two paragraphs:—

The commissioner shall preserve a full record of each such examination of a licensee including a statement of its condition. All records of investigations and reports of examinations by the commissioner, including workpapers, information derived from such reports or responses to such reports, and any copies thereof in the possession of any licensee under the supervision of the commissioner, shall be confidential and privileged communications, shall not be subject to subpoena and shall not be a public record under clause twenty-sixth of section 7 of chapter 4. For the purpose of this paragraph, records of investigation and reports of examinations shall include records of investigation and reports of examinations conducted by a financial regulatory agency of the federal government and any other state, and of any foreign government which are considered confidential by such agency or foreign government and which are in possession of the commissioner. In any proceeding before a court, the court may issue a protective order to seal the record protecting the confidentiality of any such record, other than any such record on file with the court or filed in connection with the court proceeding, and the court may exclude the public from any portion of the proceeding at which any such record may be disclosed. Copies of such reports of examination shall be furnished to a licensee for its use only and shall not be exhibited to any other person, organization or agency without prior written approval by the commissioner. The commissioner may, in his discretion, furnish to regulatory agencies of the federal government, of other states, or of foreign countries, and any law enforcement agency, such information, reports, inspections and statements relating to the licensees under his supervision.

The commissioner, or his examiners or such others of his assistants as he may designate, may summon the directors, officers or agents of a licensee, or any other witnesses, and examine them relative to the affairs, transactions and condition of the licensee, and, for that purpose, may administer oaths. Whoever, without justifiable cause, refuses to appear and testify when so required or obstructs the person making such examination in the performance of his duty, shall be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars or by imprisonment for not more than one year.

SECTION 8. Section 8 of chapter 255E, as so appearing, is hereby amended by adding the following paragraph:--

The commissioner, or his examiners or such others of his assistants as he may designate, may summon the directors, officers or agents of a licensee, or any other witnesses, and examine them relative to the affairs, transactions and condition of the licensee, and, for that purpose, may

215 administer oaths. Whoever, without justifiable cause, refuses to appear and testify when so 216 required or obstructs the person making such examination in the performance of his duty, shall 217 be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars or by imprisonment for not more 218 than one year.
