The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Eleven

An Act providing limited immunity from prosecution for a person who seeks to obtain medical assistance for a drug related overdose.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 94C of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2006 Official
2 Edition, is hereby amended by inserting, after section 41, the following new section:-

3 Section 41A.

4 A person who, in good faith, seeks medical assistance for someone experiencing a drug-5 related overdose shall not be charged or prosecuted for possession of a controlled substance
6 pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, or any other General Law, if the evidence for the 7 charge of possession of a controlled substance was gained as a result of the seeking of medical 8 assistance

9 A person who experiences a drug-related overdose and is in need of medical assistance 10 shall not be charged or prosecuted for possession of a controlled substance, pursuant to the 11 provisions of this chapter, or any other General Law, if the evidence for the charge of possession 12 of a controlled substance was gained as a result of the overdose and the need for medical 13 assistance.

14 The act of seeking medical assistance for someone who is experiencing a drug-related 15 overdose may be used as a mitigating factor in a criminal prosecution for a drug related offense.
