By Mr. Hill of Ipswich, a petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 1316) of Bradford Hill relative to post conviction DNA access. The Judiciary.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Eleven

An Act relative to post conviction DNA access.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

- 1 SECTION 1. The General Laws are hereby amended by inserting after chapter 278 the
- 2 following chapter: --
- 3 Chapter 278A
- 4 Post Conviction Access to Forensic and Scientific Analysis
- 5 Section 1. Definitions
- 6 As used in this chapter, the following words shall have the following meanings, unless
- 7 the context clearly requires otherwise:-
- 8 "Analysis" shall mean the process by which a forensic or scientific technique is applied 9 to evidence or biological material to identify the perpetrator of a crime.
- 10 "Conviction" shall mean any verdict or finding of guilty, a plea of guilty, or a plea of
- 11 nolo contendere , entered by the trial court.

12	"Criminal offender databases" shall include: the State DNA Database, G. L. c. 22E; the
13	Sex Offender Registry, G. L. c. 6, §§ 178C-N; and the Criminal Offender Record Information
14	System, G. L. c. 6, § 168-178A.
15	"Factually innocent" shall describe a person convicted of a criminal offense who did not
16	commit that offense.
17	"Governmental entity" shall mean any official body of the commonwealth, or of any
18	county, city, or town within the commonwealth.
19	"Inventory" shall mean a detailed listing, including a particularized description of each
20	listed item.
21	"Moving party" shall mean a person who files a motion pursuant to this Chapter.
22	"Post conviction" shall indicate any time after which a conviction has been entered.
23	"Prosecuting attorney" shall mean the District Attorney for the district in which the
24	moving party was convicted, or the Attorney General of the commonwealth.
25	"Replicate analysis" shall mean the duplication of an analysis performed on a particular
26	item of evidence or biological material.
27	"Underlying case" shall mean the trial court proceedings that resulted in the conviction of
28	the moving party.
29	"Victim" shall mean any natural person who suffered direct or threatened physical,
30	emotional, or financial harm as the result of the commission or attempted commission of the
31	crime that is the subject of the underlying case, and shall also include the parent, guardian, legal

32 representative, or administrator or executor of the estate of such person if that person is a minor,33 incompetent, or deceased.

34 "Victim and witness assistance board" shall mean the entity established by section 4 of 35 chapter 258B.

36 Section 2. Any person who has been convicted of a criminal offense in a court of the 37 commonwealth, and is in custody or whose liberty is restrained as the result of that conviction, 38 and asserts that he is factually innocent of that criminal offense, may file a motion pursuant to 39 this Chapter.

40 Section 3. Requirements and procedures for filing.

41 (a) A person seeking relief pursuant to this Chapter shall file a motion in the court in 42 which the conviction was entered, using the same caption and docket number as identified the 43 underlying case.

(b) The motion shall include the following information, and when relevant, shall include specific references to the record in the underlying case, or to affidavits that are filed in support of the motion that are signed by a person with personal knowledge of the factual basis of the motion:

48 (1) The name and a description of the requested forensic or scientific analysis; and

49 (2) Information demonstrating that the requested analysis is admissible as evidence in50 courts of the commonwealth; and

51 (3) A description of the evidence or biological material on which the analysis may be 52 conducted, including its location if known; and

53	(4) Information demonstrating that the evidence or biological material was obtained in
54	relation to the underlying case; and
55	(5) Information demonstrating that the analysis has the potential to result in evidence
56	that is material to the moving party's identification as the perpetrator of the crime in the
57	underlying case; and
58	(6) Information demonstrating that the evidence or biological material has not been
59	subjected to the requested analysis because:
60	1. The requested analysis had not yet been developed at the time of the conviction; or
61	2. The results of the requested analysis were not admissible in courts of the
62	commonwealth at the time of the conviction; or
63	3. The moving party and his attorney were not aware of and did not have reason to be
64	aware of the existence of the evidence or biological material at the time of the underlying case
65	and conviction; or
66	4. The moving party's attorney in the underlying case was aware at the time of the
67	conviction of the existence of the evidence or biological material, the results of the requested
68	analysis were admissible as evidence in courts of the commonwealth, and a reasonably effective
69	attorney would have sought the analysis; or
70	5. The evidence or biological material was otherwise unavailable at the time of the
71	conviction.
72	(c) The moving party shall file with the motion copies of all reports, documents,
73	memoranda, and notes from forensic or scientific analysis that has been conducted on any evidence or biological material that was obtained in relation to the underlying case. The moving party shall include these reports with the motion regardless of whether the moving party has previously provided them to the prosecuting attorney, whether they were offered or admitted as evidence in the underlying case, or whether they would have been admissible as evidence in the underlying case.
	4 of 15

(d) The moving party shall provide copies of those portions of the transcripts of the trial, if applicable, during which the results of forensic or scientific analysis was offered as evidence by either the moving party or prosecuting attorney.

(e) The moving party shall identify all court proceedings that are currently pending and that relate to the underlying case, including the name of the court, docket number, and status of each such proceeding. The moving party shall also certify that each party to those proceedings has received notice of the proceedings under this Chapter.

(f) If the moving party is unable to include for filing with the motion any of the items or information described in (b), (c), and (d), the moving party shall include a description of efforts made to obtain such items and information.

(e) A person who pleaded guilty or nolo contendere in the underlying case may file a motion under this Chapter. A judge shall not find that identity was not or could not have been a material issue in the underlying case because of the plea. A person who is alleged to have, or admits to having, made a statement that is or could be incriminating may file a motion under this Chapter. A judge shall not find that identity was not or should not have been a material issue in the underlying case because the moving party made, or is alleged to have made, an incriminating statement.

96 (f) The court may deny, without prejudice, any motion which fails to include all the97 information required by this Section.

98 Section 4. Service of process and response to motion.

(a) The moving party shall file the motion with the court which adjudicated theunderlying case and shall serve a copy of the motion on the prosecuting attorney.

(b) The prosecuting attorney shall have 60 days to file a response with the court and shall simultaneously serve the response on the moving party. The prosecuting attorney may request one 30 day extension in which to file the response, which the court shall allow only for good cause shown.

105 (c) The prosecuting attorney's response shall include:

106 (1) An inventory of all evidence or biological material that was obtained in relation to 107 the underlying case, regardless of whether it was introduced at trial or would be admissible;

108 (2) The current location of all evidence or biological material that was obtained in109 relation to the underlying case; and

(3) A detailed chain of custody for the evidence or biological material that is the subjectof the motion.

(d) The response shall also include copies of all reports, documents, memoranda, and notes from forensic or scientific analysis that has been conducted on any evidence or biological material that was obtained in relation to the underlying case. The prosecuting attorney shall include these documents with the response regardless of whether the prosecuting attorney has earlier provided them to the moving party or defense counsel, or whether such documents were offered or admitted as evidence in the underlying case, or whether such documents would havebeen admissible.

(e) The response shall also include any specific legal or factual objections that theprosecuting attorney has to the requested analysis.

121 (f) The response may include evidence or other information relating to the guilt of the122 moving party.

123 Section 5. Appointment of counsel.

124 The judge in his discretion may assign or appoint counsel to represent a moving party in 125 the preparation and presentation of motions filed under this Chapter.

126 Section 6. Hearing.

127 (a) The court shall order a hearing on the motion if it conforms with the requirements of128 section 3.

(b) The judge who conducted the trial or accepted the moving party's plea of guilty ornolo contendere in the underlying case shall conduct the hearing if possible.

(c) The moving party may file a motion requesting that he be present at the hearing onthe motion. If the judge allows such a motion, the judge shall order the commonwealth to 133 produce the moving party at the hearing.

134 Section 7. Ruling on the Motion.

135 (a) The judge shall state findings of fact and conclusions of law on the record, or shall 136 make written findings of fact and conclusions of law, that support the decision to allow or deny a 137 motion brought under this Chapter. 138 (b) The judge shall allow the motion if each of the following has been demonstrated by 139 a preponderance of the evidence: 140 (1) that the evidence or biological material exists; 141 (2) that the evidence or biological material has been subject to a chain of custody that is 142 sufficient to establish that it has not been substituted, tampered with, replaced, or altered in any 143 material respect; 144 (3) that the evidence or biological material has not been subjected to the requested 145 analysis; 146 (4) that the requested analysis has the potential to result in evidence that is material to 147 the moving party's identification as the perpetrator of the crime in the underlying case; 148 (5) that the purpose of the motion is not the obstruction of justice or delay; 149 (6) that the results of the particular type of analysis being requested have been found to 150 be admissible in courts of the commonwealth; and 151 (7) that, if the results of the requested analysis are favorable to the moving party, justice 152 may not have been done in the underlying case. 153 (c) The judge may order the production of information and materials in whatever form, 154 from the commonwealth or any person or entity, by subpoena or other legal process.

Section 8. Laboratory.

(a) In allowing a motion under this Chapter, a judge may impose reasonable conditions on the analysis designed to protect the interests of the commonwealth in the integrity of the evidence or biological material and the analysis.

(b) The prosecuting attorney and the moving party shall agree on a laboratory to conductthe analysis.

(c) If the prosecuting attorney and the moving party are unable to agree on a laboratory, the judge shall designate a laboratory that is accredited by the American Society of Crime Laboratory Directors Laboratory Accreditation Board and has the capability to perform the requested analysis.

(d) The laboratory shall be provided with a copy of all of the filings relating to the motion, including all of the judge's orders. The laboratory shall also be provided with a copy of this Chapter in its entirety.

(e) The laboratory shall only communicate with the prosecuting attorney and the movingparty simultaneously and in writing.

(f) Neither the prosecuting attorney nor the moving party shall communicate with thelaboratory without simultaneously communicating with the other party.

(g) The laboratory shall endeavor to retain and maintain the integrity of a sufficient portion of the evidence or biological material for replicate analysis. If, after initial examination of the evidence or biological material, but before the actual analysis, the laboratory determines that there is insufficient material for replicate analysis, it shall simultaneously notify in writing the prosecuting attorney, the moving party, and the judge. In the event that there is insufficient material to perform replicate analysis, upon request of either party, the judge shall make such orders to ensure that representatives of the moving party and the prosecuting attorney have the opportunity to observe the analysis. Such analysis shall be subject to the rules and practices of the laboratory.

(h) The moving party shall cooperate with the laboratory. At the laboratory's request and upon court order, the moving party shall provide biological samples to the laboratory. If the moving party unreasonably fails to cooperate with the laboratory, the judge may deny the motion with prejudice.

185 Section 9. Timeliness of analysis.

186 Upon allowance of a motion under this Chapter, analysis shall take place as soon as187 practicable.

188 Section 10. Costs.

189 The costs of the analysis shall be borne:

(a) by the moving party if the moving party is not indigent and has sufficient means tomake such payment; or

- 192 (b) by the commonwealth; or
- (c) by both the moving party and the commonwealth, in shares as the court deemsequitable.
- 195 Section 11. Effect on other proceedings.

(a) A motion may be filed under this Chapter even if an appeal of the conviction orother post-conviction proceedings in the underlying case are pending.

(b) A judge shall consider a motion filed pursuant to this Chapter even if there is anappeal or other post conviction proceedings pending.

(c) If the judge allows a motion filed pursuant to this Chapter, the court in which the appeal or post conviction proceedings are pending shall be notified if different from the court in which the motion was filed. When a court receives notice under this section, it shall stay any appeal or post conviction proceedings pending the final outcome of proceedings pursuant to this Chapter.

(d) Proceedings pursuant to this chapter shall not stay or otherwise interfere with a termof incarceration, parole, probation, or other sentence imposed.

207 Section 12. Disclosure of results of analysis.

(a) The results of the analysis shall be simultaneously disclosed to the moving party, theprosecuting attorney, and the judge.

(b) At the request of any party, or on its own initiative, the judge shall order productionof the underlying laboratory data, documents, and notes.

Section 13. Effect of analysis.

(a) If the analysis confirms that the factual findings for the verdict or judgment in the underlying case were correct, and that the moving party was properly convicted and sentenced,

215 the court shall deny the motion with prejudice. The court may also order:

216	(1) The prosecuting attorney to provide copies of the report of the analysis to the
217	Superintendent of the Department of Correction and the Chairperson of the Parole Board;
218	(2) The prosecuting attorney to provide copies of the report of the analysis to relevant
219	criminal offender databases; or
220	(3) The moving party to assume the cost of the analysis.
221	(b) If the analysis neither confirms nor contradicts the factual findings for the verdict or
222	judgment in the underlying case, the court shall:
223	(1) Order any additional analysis requested if the court concludes that the requirements
224	of § are met, or
225	(2) If no additional analysis is requested that would meet the requirements of § deny
226	the motion with prejudice if either:
227	A. No additional analysis is requested, or
228	B. Additional analysis is requested but the requirements of § are not met.
229	(c) If the analysis demonstrates that the factual findings for the verdict or judgment in
230	the underlying case were incorrect, and that the moving party was not properly convicted or
231	sentenced, notwithstanding any rule or law that would bar a new trial, the court shall:
232	(1) On motion of the prosecuting attorney and good cause shown, order replicate
233	analysis of the evidence or biological material and a stay of further proceedings pending the
234	result of the replicate analysis, with the cost of such replicate testing to be borne by the
235	prosecuting attorney;

236	(2) Order the release of the moving party from custody;
237	(3) On motion of the moving party, order a new trial; or
238	(4) Order any other relief that serves the interest of justice.
239	Section 14. Notice to victims.
240	(a) If a motion is filed under this Chapter, the prosecuting attorney may notify the victim
241	of the crime in the underlying case pursuant to G. L. c. 258B.
242	(b) The prosecuting attorney shall promptly notify the victim and the victim and witness
243	assistance board if a judge allows the motion.
244	(c) The prosecuting attorney shall promptly notify the victim and the victim and witness
245	assistance board of the result of the analysis.
