The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Eleven

An Act relative to employee references.

Whereas, The deferred operation of this act would tend to defeat its purpose, which is to provide immunity from liability for reference disclosure , therefore it is hereby declared to be an emergency law, necessary for the immediate preservation of the public convenience.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 149 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after 2 Section 52D the following section:- Section 52E. (A) Unless otherwise provided by law, an 3 employer, or an employer’s designee, who discloses information about a current or former 4 employee to a prospective employer of the employee shall be absolutely immune from civil 5 liability if the disclosed information includes any or all of the following: (1) date of employment; 6 (2) pay level; (3) job description and duties; and (4) wage history. An employer who responds in 7 writing to a written request concerning a former employee from a prospective employer of that 8 employee shall be absolutely immune from civil liability if the disclosed information includes

9 either or both of the following: (1) written employee evaluations which were conducted prior to 10 the employee's separation from the employer; and (2) whether the employee was voluntarily or 11 involuntarily released from service and the reasons for the separation.

12 (B) This section shall apply to causes of action accruing on and after the effective date of 13 this act.
