40 SECTION 3. Chapter 66 is hereby amended by inserting after section 1 the following:—

41 Section 2. The supervisor of public records, in this chapter called the supervisor of 42 records, shall take necessary measures to put the records of the commonwealth, counties, cities 43 or towns in the custody and condition required by law and to secure their preservation. He shall 44 see that the records of churches, parishes or religious societies are kept in the custody and 45 condition contemplated by the various laws relating to churches, parishes or religious societies, 46 and for these purposes he may expend from the amount appropriated for expenses such amount 47 as he considers necessary. The supervisor of records shall adopt regulations pursuant to the 48 provisions of chapter thirty A to implement the provisions of this chapter.

49 SECTION 4. Section 10 of chapter 66 is hereby amended by deleting paragraph (b) and 50 inserting in place thereof the following:—

51 (b) A custodian of a public record shall, within ten days following receipt of a request for 52 inspection or copy of a public record, comply with such request. Such request may be delivered 53 in hand to the office of the custodian or mailed via first class mail or sent electronically if the 54 office has designated a secure means of receiving such requests electronically that allows the 55 requester to obtain a written receipt of said request. If the record is maintained electronically, the 56 custodian shall provide the requested public record in electronic form if so requested. If the 57 custodian refuses or fails to comply with such a request, the person making the request may 58 petition the supervisor of records for a determination whether the record requested is public.

59 Upon the determination by the supervisor of records that the record is public, he shall order the 60 custodian of the public record to comply with the person's request. If the custodian refuses or 61 fails to comply with any such order, the supervisor of records shall, within five days, notify the 62 attorney general or the appropriate district attorney thereof who shall take whatever measures he 63 deems necessary to insure compliance with the provisions of this section. The supervisor of 64 records may also seek compliance with his order pursuant to section 10A where neither the 65 attorney general nor the appropriate district attorney has achieved enforcement of the order
66 within sixty days of notification. The administrative remedy provided by this section shall in no 67 way limit the availability of the administrative remedies provided by the commissioner of 68 administration and finance with respect to any officer or employee of any agency, executive 69 office, department or board; nor shall the administrative remedy provided by this section in any 70 way limit the availability of judicial remedies otherwise available to any person requesting a 71 public record. If a custodian of a public record refuses or fails to comply with the request of any 72 person for inspection or copy of a public record or with an administrative order under this 73 section, the supreme judicial or superior court shall have jurisdiction to order compliance. The 74 person making the request shall be entitled to an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs if 75 the custodian withholding the public record was in violation of this chapter.

76 SECTION 5. Chapter 66 is hereby amended by inserting after section 10 the 77 following:—

78 Section 10A. The supervisor of records is hereby authorized to conduct adjudicatory 79 proceedings and promulgate regulations relative to conducting said proceedings. There shall be

81 administrative magistrate who shall be appointed by the supervisor of records. Said chief 82 administrative magistrate, shall be a resident of the commonwealth at the time of his 83 appointment and shall be a person with substantial experience as a trial attorney. He shall hear, 84 or assign for hearing, appeals filed pursuant to this chapter or regulations promulgated thereof 85 and may, subject to appropriation, appoint and make available presiding officers who serve as 86 administrative magistrates or the equivalent thereof, to hear appeals assigned pursuant to this 87 chapter. Said presiding officers shall serve under the direction, supervision and control of the 88 supervisor of records and shall be utilized to expedite appeals of the public records division. The 89 chief administrative magistrate, shall, when necessary, promulgate regulations governing the 90 proceedings or appeals to be so conducted or heard prior to conducting or hearing any 91 proceedings or appeals.

92 It shall be the responsibility of said chief administrative magistrate to organize his 93 division to provide speedy and fair disposition of all appeals and to establish policies that will 94 encourage and aid parties in their compliance with this chapter. The division may summon 95 witnesses, administer oath and require the production of books, records, papers, electronic 96 records and any other document at any hearing before the division, upon any matter within its 97 jurisdiction. Witnesses may be summoned by any party to the proceeding in the same manner, be 98 paid the same fees and be subject to the same penalties as witnesses in civil cases before the 99 courts of the commonwealth.

100 The division may institute by its own initiative appropriate proceedings in the court with 101 appropriate jurisdiction for enforcement of its final orders or decisions. Any party aggrieved by a 102 final order or decision of the division following a hearing pursuant to any section of this chapter 103 or chapter thirty-one A may institute proceedings for judicial review in the superior court within 104 thirty days after receipt of such order or decision. Any proceedings in the court with appropriate 105 jurisdiction shall, insofar as applicable, be governed by the provisions of section fourteen of 106 chapter thirty A, and may be instituted in the court with appropriate jurisdiction.

107 SECTION 6. Chapter 66 of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking Section 15
108 in its entirety and inserting in place thereof the following:-
