An Act relative to physician services provided by physician assistants.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 175 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after 2 section 47U, inserted by section 8 of chapter 141 of the acts of 2000, the following section:-

3 Section 47V. No individual or group accident and health insurance policies and health 4 service contracts can refuse to reimburse a physician at the full rate for necessary medical or 5 surgical services provided by a physician assistant practicing under the supervision of a 6 physician if the policy or contract would have paid for the same services when provided by a 7 physician.

8 Individual or group accident and health insurance policies and health service contracts 9 cannot impose a practice or supervision restriction which is inconsistent or more restrictive than 10 state law. Provided, however, that the following conditions are met:(1) the service rendered is 11 within the scope of practice of physician assistants pursuant to section 9E of said chapter 112; (2) 12 such service is provided in compliance with all other requirements of law, including a formal

13 supervisory arrangement with a physician as provided for by said section 9E (3) the policy or 14 contract provides benefits for such service if rendered by a registered physician in the 15 commonwealth

16 SECTION 2. Chapter 176A of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after 17 SECTION 8Z, the following section:-

18 Section 8V. No contract or subscription certificate between an insured and the 19 corporation can refuse to reimburse a physician at the full rate for necessary medical or surgical
20 services provided by a physician assistant, certified by the board of registration of physician
21 assistants pursuant to the provisions of section 9F of chapter 112, practicing under the 22 supervision of a physician if the contract or subscription certificate would have paid for the same
23 services when provided by a physician. A contract or subscription certificate between an insured 24 and the

25 corporation cannot impose a practice or supervision restriction which is inconsistent or 26 more restrictive than state law; provided, however, that the following conditions are met: (1) the 27 service rendered is within the scope of practice of physician assistants pursuant to section 9E of 28 said chapter 112; (2) such service is provided in compliance with all other requirements of law,
29 including a formal supervisory arrangement with a physician as provided for by said section 9E;
30 and (3) the contract or subscription certificate provided benefits for such service if rendered by a 31 registered physician in the commonwealth.

32 SECTION 3. Chapter 176B of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after 33 SECTION 4U, inserted by section 4R the following section:-

34 Section 4V. No contract or subscription certificate between an insured and the 35 corporation can refuse to reimburse a physician at the full rate for necessary medical or surgical
36 services provided by a physician assistant, certified by the board of registration of physician
37 assistants pursuant to the provisions of section 9F of chapter 112, practicing under the 38 supervision of a physician if the contract or subscription certificate would have paid for the same
39 services when provided by a physician. A contract or subscription certificate between an insured
40 and the

41 corporation cannot impose a practice or supervision restriction which is inconsistent or 42 more restrictive than state law; provided, however, that the following conditions are met: (1) the 43 service rendered is within the scope of practice of physician assistants pursuant to section 9E of 44 said chapter 112; (2) such service is provided in compliance with all other requirements of law,
45 including a formal supervisory arrangement with a physician as provided for by said section 9E;
46 and (3) the contract or subscription certificate provides benefits for such service if rendered by a 47 registered physician in the commonwealth. No such contract or subscription certificate shall 48 deny payment for such services solely on the basis that the service was provided by a physician 49 assistant.

50 SECTION 4. The first paragraph of section 4 of chapter 176G of the General Laws is 51 hereby amended by adding the following sentence:-

52 Such health maintenance contract shall also provide coverage for the services rendered by 53 a certified registered physician assistant, as set forth in section 47V of chapter 175, subject to the 54 provisions of said section.
