HOUSE No. 2240

By Ms. Malia of Boston, a petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 2240) of Elizabeth A. Malia and others for legislation to authorize judicial clarification of ownership in eviction proceedings. The Judiciary.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Eleven

An Act to enable judicial clarification of ownership in evictions.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 1 of chapter 239 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2008
2 Official Edition, is hereby amended by inserting after the words “land has been” in line 6 the 3 following word:-

4 “lawfully”.

5 SECTION 2. Section 1 of chapter 239, as so appearing, is hereby further amended by 6 inserting after the first sentence the following sentence:-

7 “For purposes of this section, ‘lawfully foreclosed’ shall mean that the foreclosure was 8 initiated and carried out strictly according to the power of sale in the mortgage and chapter 244
9 of the General Laws by an entity that held both the promissory note and the mortgage at the time 10 of foreclosure; that, if the foreclosing entity is governed by a trust agreement, the assignment of 11 the note and mortgage into the trust was done in strict compliance with the terms of the trust 12 agreement; and that there are no other conveyances in the chain of mortgage title that either are

13 void ab initio or invalid or are adjudicated by the court hearing the action for possession or other 14 court to be void by reason of fraud, duress, breach of contract, or other legal or equitable 15 grounds; provided, however, that a mortgage of land shall be considered to have been lawfully 16 foreclosed if the purchaser at foreclosure sale is a bona fide purchaser that never held the 17 mortgage or note and is neither a subsidiary, parent, trustee, or agent of nor otherwise related to 18 an entity that at any time held the mortgage or note and the foreclosure was initiated and carried 19 out strictly according to the power of sale in the mortgage and chapter 244 of the General Laws 20 and there are no void conveyances in the chain of mortgage title.”
