(10) To discuss strategy with respect to contract negotiations for the provision of cable television service to residents of the city, region or town, if such discussions may have a detrimental effect on the negotiating position of the governmental body and a person, firm or corporation.

SECTION 17. Section 20 of chapter 40B of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2008 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking the definition of “consistent with local needs”, and inserting in place thereof the following definition:--

"Consistent with local needs", requirements and regulations shall be considered consistent with local needs if they are reasonable in view of the regional need for low and moderate income housing considered with the number of low income persons in the city or town affected and the need to protect the health or safety of the occupants of the proposed housing or of the residents of the city or town, to promote better site and building design in relation to the surroundings, to preserve the municipal water supply or the region's natural water resources, or to preserve open spaces, and if such requirements and regulations are applied as equally as possible to both subsidized and unsubsidized housing. Requirements or regulations shall be consistent with local needs when imposed by a board of zoning appeals after comprehensive hearing in a city or town where (1) low or moderate income housing exists which is in excess of ten per cent of the housing units reported in the latest federal decennial census of the city or town or on sites comprising one and one half per cent or more of the total land area zoned for residential, commercial or industrial use or (2) the application before the board would result in the commencement of construction of such housing on sites comprising more than three tenths of one per cent of such land area or ten acres, whichever is larger, in any one calendar year; provided, however, that land area owned by the United States, the commonwealth or any political subdivision thereof, or any public authority shall be excluded from the total land area referred to above when making such determination of consistency with local needs.

SECTION 18. Section 3 of chapter 44B of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2008 Official Edition, is hereby amended by adding the following new subsection:--

(j) Upon acceptance of sections 3 to 7, inclusive, every subsequent five years, the city or town clerk or the state secretary shall place before the voters of said city or town the following ballot question: "Shall this (city or town) re-accept sections 3 through 7, inclusive, of chapter 44B of the General laws, as approved by its legislative body, a summary of which appears below". (Set forth here a fair, concise summary and purpose of the law to be acted upon, as determined by the city solicitor or town counsel, including in said summary the percentage of the surcharge to be imposed.) If a majority of voters voting on said ballot question vote in the affirmative, then its provisions shall remain in effect for an additional five years; otherwise, the act shall cease.

SECTION 19. Subsection (b) of section 5 of chapter 44B of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2008 Official Edition, is hereby amended by inserting at the end thereof the following subdivision:-- (4) In the event that a project meeting the qualifications outlined in subdivision (2) was authorized and financed by a town's legislative body not more than 2 years prior to the acceptance of sections 3 through 7, inclusive, by the voters pursuant to section 3, the community preservation committee may then include in its recommendations to the legislative body a recommendation to expend funds for such project, whether to augment existing funds or to replace funds otherwise dedicated to such project.

SECTION 20. Section 6 of chapter 44B of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby amended by striking out the final sentence in its entirety and inserting in place thereof the following sentence:-- The community preservation funds shall not replace existing operating funds, only augment them; provided, that projects approved and financed by a legislative body not more than 2 years prior to the acceptance of sections 3 through 7, inclusive, by the voters pursuant to section 3 shall be exempt from this requirement.

SECTION 21. Section 21C of Chapter 59 of the General Laws, as most recently amended by chapter 91 of the acts of 2007, is hereby further amended in paragraph (i½), in the second sentence, by striking out the words "nineteen hundred" and inserting in place thereof the following:-- two thousand.

SECTION 22. Section 23 of chapter 60 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2008 Official Edition, is hereby amended, in line 22, by striking out the words "twenty-five dollars" and inserting in place thereof the following:-- $35.

SECTION 23. Chapter 64A of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2008 Official Edition, is hereby amended by inserting, after section 7A, the following section:--

Section 7B. The sale of fuel to a city or town which having consumed the same for any municipal purpose shall be exempt from the excise established by this chapter.

SECTION 24. Section 3 of chapter 70B of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2008 Official Edition, is hereby amended by inserting after subsection (w) the following new subsection:-

(x)The authority shall acquire an electronic data base system in order to file, track and update all pending school building assistance projects. The authority may decide which data base system shall be the most effective in tracking all pending and new school building projects before purchasing this system.

SECTION 25. Section 17A of chapter 131 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2008 Official Edition, is hereby amended, in line 3, by striking out the words “one dollar” and inserting in place thereof the following:-- $3.

SECTION 26. Section 29 of chapter 149 of the General Laws, as most recently amended by Section 62 of Chapter 188 of the Acts of 2010, is hereby amended, by striking out the words “is more than $25,000” and inserting in place thereof the following :-- is more than $50,000.

SECTION 27. Subdivision (A) of subsection (2) of section 44A of chapter 149 of the General Laws, as most recently amended by Section 63 of Chapter 188 of the Acts of 2010, is hereby amended, by striking out the figure “$10,000” and inserting in place thereof the following:-- $200,000.

SECTION 28. Subsection (1)(a) of section 44F of chapter 149 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2008 Official Edition, is hereby amended, in line 6, by striking the figure $20,000 and inserting in place thereof the following:-- $25,000.

SECTION 29. Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, the commissioner of the department of fisheries, wildlife and environmental law enforcement, in coordination with the director of fisheries and wildlife, is hereby directed to study methods of improving the process of issuing hunting and fishing licenses in the commonwealth, including but not limited to the complete privatization of the responsibility for issuing said licenses. The commissioner shall file a written report of his findings, together with any recommendations for administrative or statutory revision, with the clerks of the House and Senate and the chairmen of the House and Senate committees on ways and means not later than December 31, 2012.

SECTION 30. Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, there shall be a special commission to study and report on ways to improve the teacher licensure process. The commission shall consist of the commissioner of education; 3 members of the house of representatives, 2 of whom shall to be appointed by the speaker of the house, and 1 of whom shall be appointed by the minority leader of the house; 3 members of the senate, 2 of whom shall be appointed by the senate president, and 1 of whom shall be appointed by the senate minority leader; the chancellor of higher education; a representative of the Massachusetts Teacher Association; and a member appointed by the governor. The scope of the commission's study shall include, but shall not be limited to, the following: researching the current process of teacher licensure and ways to streamline the process of certifying qualified applicants without sacrificing quality or public safety; analyzing the effectiveness, clarity and accessibility of applications and certification via email and the internet; examining the feasibility of streamlining the application process for teachers who have previous extensive experience in a public or a private school system; evaluating possible options to simplify or lessen current state teacher licensure regulations; and examining the capacity of the department to process all teacher applications and 179     certifications in a timely manner. The commission shall submit its report to the board of 180     education, the joint committee on education, arts and humanities and the senate and house clerks

181     not later than December 31, 2012.
